Miss Allison's grade of the public school enjoyed a half holiday, Wednesday afternoon, according to rule.

At the Harris Hardware you can get a Sewing Machine a good one from $20 to $45 with the company's guarantee for five years.

Last Saturday William Coleman closed the sale of the Christian Blaeholder 80 just north of Perry to Orr Early of Bonaparte, Iowa, the consideration being $1,400.

W. A. Mitchell is arranging to build him a cosy and comfortable cottage at once on north Manchester street. It will be 26x28 feet in the main with a kitchen 10x12 feet.

J. S. LeHew of McCook is in the city. He says he seeks no office and he is here simply on business in the executive department. In the menagerie of democrats LeHew is a freak.—Washington cor. Bee.

Mr. Rachel, a wealthy Gage county farmer who owns some Red Willow county dirt, is in the city. A Mr. Richard from the same county is also here looking around for the purpose of buying a farm.

John F. Helm of Red Willow commenced this week to sow 150 acres to alfalfa. He is putting the alfalfa in with oats. He proposes having one of the finest dairy and stock farms in southwestern Nebraska.

Andrew Carson has bought the right to make and sell a patent washing machine in Nebraska and Kansas, and is thinking of selling his place southwest of the city, and devoting his time to pushing the washing machine business.

An editor sees and hears a great deal which he does not tell. He knows of affairs of men and women which if given publicity would astonish the natives and create sensations to a great extent. In his life of business he is an observing individual and sees shams and hypocrites, both men and women, as well as good deeds and commendable characteristics.

The first annual convention of the sixth district of Nebraska Christian Endeavor union will be held in Hastings on March 31, April 1 and 2d. Over a hundred delegates are expected. The state officers will be present, also Mr. Stevenson of McCook, Mr. Billings of Omaha and Mr. Cook, of Omaha. The Hastings union are making preparations for a grand good time.—Hastings Democrat.

OUTING SHOES.

It long ago seemed as though shoes could never be better and never be cheaper, but they are better now and cheaper now than they ever were before. The great every day favorite is our men's and ladies' shoe. It is as much a boon to the pocketbook as it is to the feet. It won't wear you out to wear it out. You don't need to take care of it; it takes care of itself. It will give you solid comfort for the simple reason that a better shoe for knockabout purposes has never been produced. If prices never appealed to you before, the price of this shoe will, for it costs only $2.50. It will look nicer and wear longer than any shoe on earth.

It now looks as though Mayor Brewer would be re-elected by acclamation.

A canning factory ought to be encouraged. It is a practical enterprise, and can be made mutually profitable.

"An unappropriated blessing" is the definition given by one of McCook's charming "old maids," of her kind.

Magic Lodge No. 38, Knights of Pythias, Holdrege, have invitations out for an elaborate banquet on March 21st.

Are you using the very latest? Visiting cards of sheet iron, with inscription in silver letters are produced in England.

A St. Patrick's night banquet will be given in the Menard opera house on Friday evening next, March 17th, by "The Ladies' Sodality."

The advantages of a canning factory in our midst are numerous, and our farmers will do well to give the proposed factory careful and immediate consideration.

The farm on which the fair grounds at Indianola are situated has been sold, which will, we are informed, necessitate moving elsewhere for a location for holding the coming fall meeting of the agricultural society.

THE TRIBUNE wishes to warmly encourage such affairs as that held in the east ward school house, last Friday evening. This pleasant intercourse between the pupils of the city and country schools must prove mutually beneficial. It shows a spirit which might profitably be emulated by older people from country and city, whose relations could in this wise be greatly improved.

All true hearts in our city go out to Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Kelley in profound sympathy in the death of their baby Hazel on Tuesday evening from scarlet fever. The burial of the little one occurred on Wednesday afternoon, brief services being conducted at the house by Rev. Stevenson. There was a large funeral cortege despite the rain and wind. Their daughter Edna is down with the same disease, which in her case however, is in a mild form, and her rapid recovery is expected.

"The Helpers" of the public schools of the city entertained "The Visitors" from the country schools of this vicinity in a handsome manner, last Friday evening. There was an enjoyable program, literary and musical, for the entertainment of the audience from city and country which thronged the assembly room of the east ward building. Besides toothsome refreshments were served to delight and satisfy the inner cravings. There were delegations present from three of our neighboring district schools. It was a very pleasant and doubtless profitable occasion.

It is said that there are forty or more new hotel enterprises in progress in the vicinity of the World's fair grounds in Chicago, and that a large proportion of them are frauds, having no more substantial foundation than may be found in circular letters soliciting cash subscriptions for alleged stock. These enterprises purport to be co-operative hotel schemes designed to supply the demand for accommodations, and the innocent victim who is asked to take stock is assured that he will have cheap quarters during the exposition. It is a good plan to steer clear of such enticing schemes. The man who subscribes stock in an enterprise that exists only on paper is sure to lose his money.

Surprise parties are coming fast and furiously. The latest was on Mrs. A. Snyder, Wednesday night. A large company of neighbors and friends composed the surprising party, which carried in its train a well stocked commissary department, which figured largely in the festivities of the evening. Games and other social devices aided in making the occasion an unusually pleasant one. The party was composed of Mesdames S. H. Colvin, J. F. Ganschow, C. T. Brewer, J. H. Yarger, Walter Vischer, C. E. Pope, G. E. Leming, H. F. Pade, A. J. Chambers, Vina Wood, W. C. LaTourette, F. M. Kimmell, Charles Coleman, J. W. Bartley, C. B. Gray, G. W. Conner, Joseph Reizenstein, J. H. Ludwick, E. Q. Robie, S. L. Green and Miss Amelia Wille.

One of the choicest musical entertainments ever given in McCook was that furnished by the Chicago Lady quartette in the Lutheran church on Tuesday evening. By some misunderstanding between Manager Harris of Cambridge and the manager of the quartette, no arrangement had been made for their appearance here. But the Endeavor society took the matter in hand and provided for an entertainment in the Lutheran church, making the fact known as best they could in the brief time that remained. The rainy night and shortness of time of announcement, however, conspired to make the audience very small; but the audience made up in enthusiastic appreciation all that was lacking in numbers. On the following evening, the young ladies appeared in the church again, under the same auspices, before a good house, and once more proved themselves to be first-class artists of a refined and charming sort. We hope they may come this way again, and under more favorable circumstances.
