I. T. BENJAMIN.

The Midsummer Number of "Tales from Town Topics," including a $1,000 prize novel, "Six Months in Hades," is on the news stands, and is a very lively volume, particularly suited to the season and a very engaging companion for a railroad or steamboat journey.—TOWN TOPICS, 21 West Twenty-third street, New York.

I would sing you a song of a beautiful land, that far away home of the soul: where no winds ever blow eyes and ears full of sand, and they don't pay two prices for coal. I long to cross over and be with the blest, where life is one fourth of July—a jolly and well-beloved saint as the best, and likely I will, bye and bye.—Col. Bixby.

Try one pound of McKonna's uncolored Japan tea at 45 cents per pound. Guaranteed to be as good as you can buy elsewhere for 60 cents.

A fine assortment of dusters may be seen at the harness shop of McMillen Bros. on east Dennison street. They are very reasonable in price too.

McMillen Bros. carry a complete stock of dusters—the cheap as well as the finer articles. Give them a call if you need anything in that line.

If you want a luxury go to the C. O. D. store and get a pound of English breakfast tea.

THE successful exploit of the "Exposition flyer," covering the distance between New York and Chicago in the reduced time of twenty hours, is a theme of general newspaper comment. It demonstrates that those who are able to pay may expect to soon have transportation at their disposal with a minimum speed of at least sixty miles an hour on all well-equipped roads. But the feat of the millionaire train does not prove to the public's satisfaction that the great mass that patronize the railroads are to derive any benefit from the fast train service which has just been inaugurated. What the common people want is lower fares not fewer hours. One per cent of the traveling public may be willing and can afford to pay extra for saving a few hours by riding on a luxurious flyer, but to the other 99 per cent a saving of cost and not time is the great desideratum. It would seem as though regard for their own interests alone would lead the roads to adopt the policy the popular demand suggests.

It has been discovered that the democrats have made preparations to bring out a succession of raw head and bloody bones stories of pension frauds from different parts of the country in order to stiffen the back of Hoke Smith and prepare the country for an era of "pension purging" unequalled in the history of the nation. The old soldiers will have to take their medicine. The government is no longer in the hands of their friends.

EX-SENATOR INGALLS struck a hornet's nest when he urged that the negro population of the United States be deported into Africa. The colored people do not take kindly to the suggestion. Mr. Ingalls may run short on the negro vote if he should ever again venture into the political arena. But—

The Greatest of All.

As circus day approaches interest in coming exhibition of the Great Sells & Rentfrow's shows which will exhibit here Wednesday, June 21st, increases, and the excitement in young and old American circles expands. The reports of the big show's success this year have been so general and the leading features have produced so great a sensation elsewhere that public interest has been aroused to a greater extent than usual, and the big show is certain to coin money. It must always be a source of satisfaction to an audience when it feels it is getting an equivalent for its money, but when the features—both in the menagerie and ring—are out of the established "rut" of the average circus, and develops into a series of surprising novelties, any one of which constitute a "feature" strong enough to draw a public, an audience must become enthusiastic in its pleasures. This seems to be the effect Sells & Rentfrow's Shows have been this season, and no doubt will be the effect here. Among the new features the most prominent will be the largest elephant that walks on the earth. The free exhibition on the show grounds after the parade is said to be the best ever given. We expect to see an enormous crowd on June 21st.

A Summer School.

If a sufficient number of pupils can be secured J. H. Fowler will conduct a private school in the east ward building for the benefit of those pupils whose promotions are conditional and those who wish to enter a grade higher than that to which they are promoted. School to begin on Monday, June 19, and continue six weeks. Persons interested are invited to communicate with him in writing.

SELLS & RENTFROW'S

Colossal Aggregation of Sensational Features. Monster Museum, 3-Ring Circus and Great Double Menagerie. Real Roman Races.

You can't afford to miss seeing

World's Fair on Wheels

The most extraordinary of principal bareback equestrians, William Sells, a veritable centaur; a paragon among all horsemen; none dare to challenge his supremacy; the pride of America; the wonder of Europe, who for over three continuous months was the popular hero at Olympia, London; received the most enthusiastic recognition from royalty, nobility and commoners, and was unanimously recognized by the British press as the pre-eminent feature of the circus in which he was then performing.

Mr. William Dutton, in his brilliant feats of Equestrianism, performing at will forward and backward somersaults on the bare back of swiftly running steeds. One of the most daring equestrians of the age, engaged at an enormous salary to ride at this faultless exhibition.

Mr. Charles Watson, the greatest 6-horse rider the world ever saw. A wonder to behold.

The Dutton sisters, undoubtedly the finest lady riders on earth. Miss Mildred Murray, the finest menagerie rider. Edgar Wilkinson, the celebrated European hurdle rider. The great Livingstone family, 4 in number, aerialists, gymnasts, acrobats, bicyclists, in sensational aerial flights, dazzling and intrepid feats. Fearless and astonishing features that heretofore have seemed impossible accomplished by these wonderful artists with such ease and grace as to establish them the undisputed champions of the gymnastic world.

Two Immense Menageries of Wild Beasts.

Open dens of savage brutes; mammoth elephants, lions, tigers, hyenas, bears, wolves, leopards and panthers. Trained to drive like horses. Knights in armor, ladies as princesses, male and female jockeys, squadrons of princes, nobles and cavaliers in royal robes and rich costumes, mounted on spirited horses like in days of old.

The best performing elephants. Sea lion, leopard and baby camel. Twenty great circus acts. Three great bands in street parade. Courtly knights and dames. A drove of monster camels. Zebras, bears and baby monkeys. Twenty great leapers. Richly carved and gilded tableau wagons. Myriad cages, dens and lairs. See the twenty clowns; first in wit, first in fun, first in the hearts of the public.

A Mile Tumble from the Skies.

Grand Balloon race and double parachute jump by Miss Anna Bell Holton and Miss Lillie Rice. To be witnessed positively each day of the exhibition at the show grounds.

Be sure and ask your agent for cheap excursion rates. Every rail road gives cheap excursion rates to this big show. At 10 A. M. a glorious grand holiday free street parade. One day only; afternoon and night. Doors open at 1 and 6 o'clock. No extra charge. One ticket admits to all. You all know us. Our past record a guarantee of the future.
