Good races at the fair grounds on the Fourth.

J. W. Dolan returned from the big show, Saturday night.

C. T. Beggs, the McCook abstracter, was down, first of the week.

W. G. Black and wife returned last week from the city on the lake.

The children of the M. E. church held a very pleasant picnic, Thursday.

That was a good rain, Wednesday night. Let us have some more just like it.

Rev. James Lisle is announced as one of the orators at Box Elder on the Fourth.

J. J. Lamborn and children came home Friday evening from Iowa and Chicago.

A representative of the World-Herald has been in town, this week soliciting subscriptions.

The Minton brothers' house being constructed on Third avenue, was blown down during the storm on Wednesday evening.

William Terwilliger and Inez R. Garner, both of McCook, were married at the court house on the 28th, the county judge officiating.

Will Harrison, proprietor of the York nursery, accompanied by his wife, drove up from Cambridge, Monday, to look after his interests here.

At the school election, Monday evening, Mrs. Helen Keyes was elected for two years and L. J. Holland and Mrs. Frank Powell for three years.

License was issued on the 24th for the marriage of Otto Pultz and Anna Ruby, both of Danbury; they were married on the 25th by Rev. Boucher of Bartley.

Rev. James Lisle will deliver a lecture for the benefit of the Epworth league at the M. E. church, Thursday evening. Subject, "Life Among the Sioux Indians."

Lena Beck is attending the state convention of the Daughters of Veterans in Lincoln, this week, being sent as a delegate from Lucretia Garfield tent No. 21 of this city.

James Williams of Bondville precinct, who was bound over to keep the peace a few days ago, upon complaint of James Wingate, has made complaint before the county judge charging said James Wingate with assault. Trial set for July 6th.

Mrs. J. H. Goodrich died at the residence of her mother Mrs. Bishop in this city, Thursday morning. The funeral will be held at the Congregational church, Friday morning. The deceased had been a patient sufferer from consumption for several years. She leaves a husband and son.

AT Chicago Sunday the Anarchists unveiled a monument to the five Haymarket rioters, who were found guilty of treason under the laws of the state and put to death; Mohammedans in Midway Plaisance celebrated the birthday of the Prophet with sacrificial rites; the World's Fair was open, although it was Sunday, and the public was permitted to view the great show with none to molest or make afraid. This combination of events could only happen in a cosmopolitan city and in a land of civil and religious liberty.

THE free coinage men are about to open headquarters at Washington for the purpose of distributing free silver literature and the assignment of speakers to advocate the cause in the western and southern states. They intend to make a hot fight for the white metal.

SILVER has dropped to 77 cents per ounce and the effect has been to almost paralyze the silver mining interests in the western states.
