THE politicians are looking forward to the result of tomorrow's county convention with considerable interest at least.

Ed. J. Mock promises to revive the Alma Record soon. He has replevined his outfit, and the case goes to the district court.

THAT was very keen sarcasm—the sending by Denver of aid for the starving laborers of metropolitan New York. Very keen.

THE president has issued his proclamation opening the Cherokee strip to settlement at the hour of 12 o'clock noon, central standard time, Saturday, September 16.

THE county democrats seem to be a little slow or backward about their convention. Perhaps it will not be called until after the republicans have made their nominations.

A CASE of rape in each of Nebraska's large cities, this week. Judge Lynch might profitably move his seat of operation north of the Mason and Dixey line, and west of the Muddy, for a season. A little unceremonious hemp-stretching might prove efficacious.

THE excited populace shot about a ton of unsympathetic lead into a poor dog's anatomy, down at Lincoln, the other day, while laboring under the hallucination that the animal was mad; and then the Call added insult to death by claiming that the canine died from natural causes!

NOBODY need starve to death in this country or suffer food and clothing if all the persons who can secure employment will work and if the people who have abundant means to aid those who are really in distress and who are worthy objects of charity will do their duty and exemplify the fellowship and philanthropy which the great American nation professes.

THE cause of silver has been given a very sombre optic in the lower house of congress—the majority for the repeal of the Sherman act, and against free coinage at any ratio, being over a hundred. The effect on the senate is expected to be as tremendous as the size of the majority against silver was unexpected. But the cause of silver will be valiantly fought in the senate.

THE Republican state convention which meets in Lincoln, Thursday morning, October 5, at 10 o'clock, will be composed of 958 delegates, of which Red Willow county is entitled to nine members. There is a recommendation that no proxies be allowed in the convention. One associate judge of the supreme court and two members of board of regents of state university will be nominated.

THE Philadelphia Times advocates a state bank circulatinn as a "temporary currency," intended for the "immediate neighborhood" of the banks. Nothing could better describe the currency as furnished by these banks when they were "on earth before." The currency was indeed "temporary," and in fact transitory. Its value might vanish between sunset and sunrise. It was also limited in its circulation; it was worthless a hundred miles from home, even while its temporary existence continued. Any citizen who remembers 1857 can comprehend the beauties of a "temporary" and "limited" bank currency.

NORTH DIVIDE NUBBINS.

Still in the ring. P. J. Farrell expects shortly to leave for the Pacific coast.

Tom Scofield is hustling around betimes and putting up considerable hay.

Not much of a chance to hook melons, this year. None to be had anywhere.

Fred Carter is cutting corn for fodder, doing the work with his self-binder.

Bain Kinzer and James Thompson have been hauling new hay to town at odd times.

M. L. Brown is among those who will have corn enough to swear by any way.

Captain A. T. King was up from Indianola, last week, on a brief business-pleasure trip.

Jack Cashen has left for eastern part of the state in search of something to keep him busy.

A. F. Reeves and mother and Mrs. Cynthia Reeves were Trenton visitors, during this week.

J. M. Henderson has purchased the broom corn machinery formerly owned by W. S. Hanlein.

The acreage of fall grain promises to be unusually large; ground is in fair shape for planting.

Prairie chickens and quail seem to be quite plentiful, just now, and not as many hunters as usual.

Uncle Billy Johnson has been enjoying himself down in Harlan county, for the past week or two.

W. Y. Johnson and family are occupying Walter Hickling's place during the latter's absence at the world's fair.

James Brady has been discing in some fall wheat, this week. The ground seems rather dry for that kind of work.

A number from here attended the "hoe down" at Gockley's, a few evenings ago. Of course North Divide's best fiddler was there.

Mr. Isaac Newton, North Divide's buffoon, is going to have a right smart bunch of corn, if the frost does not come too soon.

Miss Winnie Sexton, who has been enjoying a visit at the home of the Misses Hanlein, returned to her home in Bartley, close of last week.

Fred Carter began work in his broom corn, this week. He is starting thus early in order to avoid having so large a force of hands at one time.

J. S. Modrell is making preparations to take care of his broom corn. He has in about eighty acres, this year, the greater part being on new ground.

A. F. Reeves has been rummaging around up in Frontier county gathering together some machinery which he had disposed of to some unreliable party there.

Mr. Sherman, who has been occupying the Groves place, left for Iowa, a few days ago, driving overland. He expects to return in the spring, and hopes to find the crop prospects in a more flourishing condition.

IT is now stated that President Cleveland is afflicted somewhat like General Grant and his condition is a source of grave apprehension. An operation was performed on his mouth and nose, a few days since, for a disease thought to be of a cancerous nature.

THERE will be an inter-state irrigation convention held in Salina, Kansas, September 28th. Irrigation is extending into the country east of the Rockies in earnest.

WHEN it comes to the monumental in straddling Senator David B. Hill takes no back seat.

Attend the fair, next week.

Mess. Babcock and Troxel were visitors of Sheriff Banks, Wednesday.

Supt. Bayston made a trip to the southwestern part of the county on Tuesday.

Mrs. R. C. Catlett and Miss Maud Irons visited Mrs. Mitchell, this week.

Misses Ida Smith and Sallie Hamilton drove up from Bartley, Wednesday.

M. Yarnell and family of Lyle, Kansas, are visiting Geo. Briggs's family, this week.

The G. A. R. talk of holding an other picnic on the Beaver, some time in September.

Three teachers were examined, Wednesday, for certificates to preside over district schools.

Joe Stephens, the Crete nursery man, was in town, this week, selling our merchants fruit.

Mrs. Thomas Duncan returned home, Saturday evening, from her eastern visit. Tom is happy again.

H. F. Tomblin, wife and son passed through town, Wednesday, returning from his farm south of here.

C. W. Hodgkin, A. Utter, W. M. Taylor and S. Bentley, of Bartley, attended Odd Fellows lodge, Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Emma J. Plumb made application, Monday, for letters of administration on the estate of her late husband, Perry P. Plumb.

A. G. Dole has traded his farm northwest of this city for a hardware stock and store building in Bartley, also a quarter of land near that town.

C. H. Russell and G. N. Hoag went to East Valley precinct, Tuesday, to collect a note. Mr. R. was knocked down and hurt, resulting in the offending party being brought before Esquire Phillips, who lifted up his voice and demanded $12.90 to repair the fractured law and Charlie's injured feelings.

Mess. Walter Devoe and Frank Nichols were over from Lebanon, Wednesday. We are glad to see Mr. Nichols out again, after his long sickness. He says that it was much comfort to him, when very low, and not knowing whether he would ever get up again, to feel that he had $4,000 insurance in the Modern Woodmen and A. O. U. W., and that his family would be provided for.
