More Students Will Be Taken.
 To all County Superintendents:
 I am informed that the report is being very generally circulated throughout the state that the limits of registration at the University have been reached, and that no more students need apply for enrollment in September.
 Will you kindly give the widest possible denial to this in your local press and otherwise. We have been obliged to limit the number of students for the year to fifteen hundred, but that number has not yet been enrolled. Estimating a certain per cent. of failure to attend, on the part of those who have already asked for recognition, it is safe to say that three or four hundred students can be accepted between this date and the opening of the semester, Sept. 18.
 Notwithstanding the unusual personal effort that must be put forth by every member of our faculty to care for the great increase in numbers, we are not willing to have a single child deprived of the advantages so wisely and freely offered by the state. Very cordially yours,
 J. A. CANFIELD, Chancellor,
 Lincoln, Neb., Aug. 10, 1893.
