F. M. KIMMELL,
Acting Chairman.

McCook, Neb., Sept. 4th, 1893.

T. THATCHER GRAVES, M. D., has carried his case to the highest court by committing suicide; and the mystery remains unsolved.

ENGLAND'S wheat harvest is said to be even worse than was supposed possible. England, however, need not be worried, for the United States is always ready to supply all deficiencies in exchange for John Bull's gold.

JUDGE S. A. HOLCOMB of Broken Bow is independent nominee for supreme judge. The nominees for regents are E. L. Heath of Sheridan, A. A. Monroe of South Omaha, and C. L. Brainard of Chase.

SENATOR PEPPER has introduced to the kindly—or unkindly rather—consideration of congress a bill to give each state enough paper money to permit each inhabitant to have $50. He, however, makes a fatal mistake in not providing for its free distribution.

THE friends of Tom Reed are setting him up as the residuary legatees of James G. Blaine. It is doubtful, however, whether the republican party will be disposed to recognize and concede that claim. Reed has some elements of power and strength which Blaine did not possess, and he reveals certain forcible qualities which are destined to make him a conspicuous figure in American politics. But in those attributes which inspire enthusiasm and enkindle affectionate admiration he falls far behind Blaine, and can never hope to fill the place of that brilliant and picturesque figure in our national history.

JUDGE HOLCOMB may be a good man, and, in fact, we have heard upon middling reliable authority that he is a first-rate fellow. So is Mrs. Bittenbender. But that is hardly a sufficient reason why either should be elected. There is, as between the two candidates, very much in favor of the lady. She has a national reputation as a jurist and is as thoroughly a self-made man as the populist nominee, but neither was chosen for his or her knowledge of law, but because their avowed sentiments in favor of certain heresies that have gained popularity on account of dry weather in one instance and hereditary thirst in the other. Those who look upon all of us as the "people," and that the government should be of, by and for us all will think a few times before casting a ballot for either the judge or the judgee at the coming election.

INDIANOLA ITEMS.

Everything is fair, this week.

As a marshal, Dr. Minniear is a success.

There is a good show of cattle on the grounds.

Dave Deviney has some nice swine at the fair.

Dr. G. W. Curfman is visiting here, this week.

The Pops had a very enthusiastic convention, last Saturday.

Attorneys Cole, Kelley and Rittenhouse were in town, Tuesday.

J. H. Bayston and I. A. Sheridan were delegates to the People's state convention.

Two cases in the county court, against M. Alshuler, have been settled and dismissed.

License was issued on the 6th for the marriage of Charles Rawson and Lizzie Puckett, both of Indianola.

The late improvements on the grounds add much to the comfort and convenience of those attending the fair.

The fair, during the day, and the merry-go-round and dance, in the evening, keep our young people on the go.

Willis Gossard and wife have returned from their extended visit to the World's fair and Iowa and Illinois points.

McCook, Cambridge, Stockville, Danbury, Lebanon and Bartley were all well represented at the fair, Thursday.

A six months old child of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. White died, on Wednesday, after a brief illness. Funeral was held Thursday.

Jesse Smith and R.L. Duckworth made proof on their timber claims before the county judge, September 1st: A. J. Dole on the 2d.

Rev. Lisle has his collection of Indian relics on exhibition; also a lot of diamond willow furniture, canes, etc., all of which attract considerable attention.

Messrs. J. S. and A. Pyfer of Odell have a large collection of curiosities and specimens on exhibition, including many kinds of eggs, serpents, shells, etc.

The McCook A. O. U. W. band was present on Thursday and gave us some enjoyable music. They came in the interest of the order to which they belong, which spoke well of fraternal insurance.

Prof. L. W. Smith arrived, on Wednesday evening, and will take charge of our school, Monday next. He comes well recommended and we hope our people will assist him in making this one of the best schools in the state.

The races awarded up to Wednesday are: Running race, half mile heats, best 2 in 3, for $40.00: Daytime 1st, Antelope 2d, Bud 3d, and Little Nick 4th. 3-minute trotting race for $60.00: Broncho Bill 1st, Hambletooin Joker 2d, Starbuck 3d, and Little Billie 4th. Thursday—2:45 trotting race: Little Billie 1st, Tempest, Jr., 2d, Starbuck 3d, Sylvan Chief 4th. One-half mile running race, best 2 in 3: Antelope 1st, Jack 2d, Charley 3d. The exhibition trot was made in 2:24 3/4.

HARD times have not only filled the ranks of the army, but now it is announced that the navy, too, has more applications than its quota of men can allow. Returning prosperity will no doubt do away with this phenomenon, and it will be as difficult as ever to secure the enlistment authorized by law.

J. M. FISHER, cashier of the Geneva National Bank, has decamped with $12,000 in cold cash. His bondsmen will make good the amount.

VAILTON NOTES.

Fall seeding is now the order of the day—preparing the ground.

Could we have a wet fall there would still be considerable corn in this vicinity.

There is but little sickness in our midst at present. This seems to be quite a healthy locality.

James Hoyt and David Bopenmeyer are expected to return from the Cherokee Strip in a short time. They will then remain in this part of the country, for a while, at least. Mr. Hoyt makes a specialty of raising fine stock.

Mrs. Fauss is none the worse on account of her trip to Clay county. Mr. Fauss thinks a more extended change would be beneficial, and is contemplating a trip farther east, perhaps to the old Indiana home on the banks of the Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Sprague buried their infant child, Friday. It had never been a strong child, but that fact does not lessen the sorrow that the angel of death has brought to the household, and their only consolation is in the promise given in the Word of Life.

C. S. Ferris has returned from his overland trip to Hastings. He thinks parts of Red Willow county will hold her own with any other western county, so far as the corn crop is concerned, although small grain was much better, especially in the vicinity of Minden, owing to the fact of their getting early rains that did not materialize in this section of the country.

THE national encampment of the Grand Army at Indianapolis, this year, cannot but feel the effects of the recent financial troubles, as also of the counter-attraction in the World's fair in Chicago. As a consequence, the next annual reunion will assume much greater importance than would otherwise be the case. It is all the more to be regretted that Lincoln has pulled out of the race for the encampment of 1894, but this must be charged to the railroad, which refused to co-operate with the Lincoln committee.
