We Mean Business.

The public is quick to appreciate an article of merit, and when the publishers of The State Journal began offering their Semi-Weekly at only $1.00 per year, the same price that others ask for their weeklies which only give half as many papers, the subscription list doubled in a few months, and has since been growing with wonderful rapidity leaving the old-fashioned weeklies away behind. People don't see any use in waiting a whole week for the news when they can get it fresh twice a week for the same money. Readers of The Semi-Weekly Journal get 104 papers a year for only $1.00, which is less than one cent per copy, and they find the paper almost as good as a daily. If you have not yet tried this great paper, do so at once. It gives you the market twice each week, which alone is worth the price. Some of our special offers are: The Journal and either The Standard History of the United States, Stanley's Adventures in Africa, Life of Spurgeon or Life of Harrison, handsomely bound books, postage all paid, for $1.40. The Journal and Weekly New York Tribune both one year, $1.25. For $2.00 we will send The Journal two years and one of the above books free; for two new subscribers (your one may be one of them) we will send you any one of the above named books free; for $1.65 we will send The Journal and Tribune, and any one of the books.
