Engineer Harris has a badly scalded face.

Conductor Hank Rouch has been on the sick list.

Conductor Pope went in to see the fair, Monday on four.

There are fifteen days in store for using valve oil in rod cups.

Engineer Conner is still in the hands of his enemy—the rheumatism.

C. A. Mitchell of the shop force is on the sick list, with a severe sprain.

Mrs. W. T. Shields is liable to lose a little finger from blood poisoning.

T. E. Calvert of Lincoln was a Commercial house guest, last Friday night.

Auditor Foreman was down from Denver, first of the week, on business of his department.

Conductor Odell is away taking in the last days at the fair. He went on 4, Monday night.

Gus Budig is up at Akron in charge of the locomotive department during Pavers' absence at the fair.

"Neighbor" Archibald returned from Chicago, last Friday, where he has been viewing the wondrous white city.

Mrs. Will Yetter of Hastings has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Burnett, since the latter part of last week.

Engineer and Mrs. J. H. Moore arrived home, Monday afternoon on delayed No. 1, from their visit to the fair and to Iowa friends.

The taking off of Nos. 1 and 6 will make a big and unsightly hole in our passenger service, which is already rocky enough.

Mrs. Will Brown entertained her mother from Hastings, Mrs. Wirts, from last Friday noon until Monday evening of this week.

One of Pete Carty's children cut an artery of one of its eyes, the other day, while playing with glass, making a severe injury.

The company is burning out its right-of-way to avoid setting out fires in the spring. They are also putting up their snow fences.

Jacob Burnett went up to Colorado, Tuesday night, on business connected with his ranch near Sterling. He will be absent a week or two.

The earnings of the Pullman car company, the past year, were $11,389,896.19. Disbursements, $7,383,447.69. Surplus, $4,006,448.50. Their assets are the neat sum of $61,791,643.14.

The handsome English locomotive called "Empress" is to be pitted against the famous American No. 999, for a race against time after the fair closes. They are supposed to be the best engines in the world and the race will be attended with considerable interest and the time which will be made, one of the railroad wonders of the age.

REPUBLICAN CITY.

St. Francis shipped 24 cars of stock, Thursday.

Mrs. W. Joslyn is just recovering from a week's sickness.

Eighteen cars of stock on No. 174 of the "sunflower" Monday night.

Mr. Hunt and another party shipped 8 cars of feeders to Wilsonville last week.

Mrs. Agent Knox has returned from her visit. Mr. K. has quit the baching business.

L. E. Cann has the day office at Red Cloud now during McClintock's absence at the fair.

All the crews who used to live at Orleans are residing at Republican except brakeman Cropp.

Mrs. Spencer is rapidly recovering her wonted strength and health, being able to take short rides in a buggy.

Ag't Cann, of Danbury, is taking in the sights at the white city. Extra Ag't Barden fills his place in the interim.

The section foreman at Danbury was suspended on account of dereliction of duty in allowing a switch stand to become unsafe.

There is only one conductor on this branch who is a christian, and he is such a "dear conductor" and his name is—but then we will not give it away as no body but the evangelist preacher knows it.

Mrs. J. D. McAlpine came in from Denver, Wednesday evening, on a visit to her parents, Mrs. C. W. Knights.

Will Ackerman, now of Havelock, formerly of the machinist force here, was in the city, close of last week, greeting his numerous acquaintances and friends.

Articles of Incorporation OF THE FARMERS AND MERCHANTS BANK OF McCOOK, Red Willow County, Nebraska.

We the undersigned, Frank H. Spearman, Sylvester Cordeal, and Joseph A. Cordeal, of Red Willow county, and state of Nebraska, do hereby voluntarily associate ourselves together for the purpose of forming a corporation under the laws of the state of Nebraska.

1. The name of this corporation shall be the "Farmers and Merchant Bank of McCook, Nebraska."

2. The principal office where the business of this corporation shall be transacted shall be at McCook, county of Red Willow, state of Nebraska.

3. The purposes for which this corporation is formed are to transact a banking business, by receiving money on deposit, buying and selling exchange, loaning money on notes, bills of exchange, and other real and personal securities, and such other business as is by law authorized to be transacted for the purposes and uses of said banking corporation hereinbefore mentioned.

4. The term for which said organization is organized is twenty-five (25) years.

5. The business of this corporation shall be conducted by officers known as president, vice president and cashier, and by a board of three directors, which directors shall be stockholders. The officers and board of directors shall be elected annually, on the first Monday of April of each and every year. The first officers of said corporation shall comprise the following named persons: Frank H. Spearman, president; M. A. Lonergan, vice president; and Sylvester Cordeal, cashier. And the first board of directors of the said corporation shall comprise the following named persons: Frank H. Spearman, M. A. Lonergan and Sylvester Cordeal, who shall hold such offices until the first Monday in April, 1894, or until their successors are elected, and upon such first Monday in April, 1894, the regular annual meeting of said corporation shall be held; due notice shall be given of each meeting as required by law.

6. The capital stock of said corporation shall be twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000), paid up capital stock, and shall be divided into two hundred and fifty (250) shares of one hundred dollars ($100) each. Certificates of such stock shall be signed by the president and cashier and shall be transferable only on the books of the corporation, and at all meetings of the stockholders each share shall be entitled to one vote, which vote may be cast either in person or by proxy. The capital stock may be increased or diminished as provided by law, by a vote of three-fourths of the shares of the corporation meeting duly called and held for that purpose.

7. The directors shall fill any vacancy in the offices of said corporation.

8. The books of said corporation shall be kept at the banking office of said corporation, and shall be open for the inspection of any stockholder during the ordinary business hours of the corporation.

9. The board of directors are authorized to make such regulations as to its meetings and government and such by-laws as may be necessary, in conformity with these articles of incorporation; the place of meeting being always at the banking office of the corporation. A majority of the board shall at all times have power to call a special meeting of the stockholders.

10. The indebtedness of this corporation shall not exceed fifteen thousand dollars at any one time, and that such limitation shall be governed by the laws of Nebraska relating to banking business, and transactions related thereto which are made the object of this corporation.

11. These articles may be amended at any time by a vote of three-fourths of the stock at any regular or special meeting convened in the manner provided by said corporation.

In testimony whereof we have hereunto subscribed our names this 26th day of October, 1893.

FRANK H. SPEARMAN,
SYLVESTER CORDEAL,
JOSEPH A. CORDEAL.
