

Cream—Not Skim-Milk.

Every farmer and villager, their wives and boys and girls, will be interested in the big-little, cream-not-skim-milk paper, the Farm Journal of Philadelphia. Its 200,000 subscribers are scattered from Maine to Washington, and from Michigan to Texas. Its breezy, crisp, boiled-down pages contain as much information in the course of a year as many of the high-priced weeklies; while its earnest, manly tone and its bright and common-sense way of treating farm matters leaves a good and lasting taste in one's mouth. The subscription price is 50 cents a year. We have made arrangements with the publisher whereby he will send it one full year free, to all who promptly pay up for our paper. Sample copies will be sent free by addressing a postal request to the Farm Journal, Philadelphia, Pa.

He said, from his experience with it, he regarded it as the most reliable preparation in use for colds, and that it came the nearest being a specific of any medicine he had ever seen.
