"ANOTHER of Hoke Smith's victims" is a familiar caption in the newspapers.

J. C. MOORE, candidate for county superintendent, is entitled to your vote. Give it to him.

THE Republican county ticket is composed of conspicuously well qualified candidates, in its entirety. Vote it straight.

VOTE for the ticket at the head of these columns and you'll be happy and contented and feel as though you had done your duty as a citizen.

A VOTE for E. R. BANKS is a vote for a sheriff whose record as an officer has been unequalled since the organization of Red Willow county. He's all right.

THE candidates on the republican ticket are men whose abilities and qualifications cannot be doubted in the least, and if elected will prove model officials in every respect.

ALL voters must register this fall. Do not neglect to see that your name is properly registered in the ward or precinct where you expect to cast your vote at the election on the 7th.

BERT BARNES is making a gratifying canvass for the office of county treasurer. He is a young man who well illustrates the energy, enterprise and integrity of the young men of our state. He is deservedly popular, and the people have full confidence in his capacity as well as in his honesty—two qualifications which abundantly fit him for the office of county treasurer.

SOME of these times a lot of wise men will organize a political party having for its foundation the furnishing of every man with a good, comfortable, neatly-fitting office and that political party will sweep the country like a cyclone. The necessity of such a party is demonstrated daily and the party cannot long delay the coming. Look around you and you will find hosts of your acquaintances struggling for appointment to some place under the federal or state governments, while others look wistful and hopeful and their eyes are wet in wrestling with their emotions; they, too, want offices. There is a mad rush for the public places, so much intriguing, sharp practice, assaulting of character; the winner sees that his hope lies in tearing the others down and the tearing process is carried on most mercilessly. Under the ideal government this reign of terror will yield to a reign of peace. The ideal government will furnish every subject with an office, thereby giving him a salary and a responsibility. Whenever there is a change of administration it will simply mean a shifting of the people from one office to another, and this will prevent "ennui" and the celebrated tired feeling. The People's party offered a partial solution of the great problem. It would create thousands of sub-treasury agents and land-loan clerks and telegraphers and tens of thousands of government railway employees; but the People's party does not go to the full length and it cannot succeed. Speed the day when we'll all have an office and can live like princes of the realm.

OUR readers will observe that while the Independent candidates are prancing around all over the county, Banks, Beck, Barnes and Roper are attending strictly to their official duties. They should, however, be remembered at the polls on the 7th day of next month by the voters of this county.

JUDGE IRVINE is a clean, honest and able man. No more creditable nomination could have been made. Even as long ago as the time of Moses the lamb for the sacrifice had to be without spot or blemish. Says the Democratic Lincoln Herald.

THIS is the year republicans should shoot their ballots straight. The national conflict is rapidly approaching. Divided victories are partial defeats, and are poor preparatory work for a great national victory.—Hebron Journal.

GEORGE ROPER, our candidate for county clerk, possesses every personal and business qualification to make a most capable and efficient county clerk. He should be elected by a most decisive majority.

THE Holdrege Nugget couldn't wiggle any longer without patronage, and suspended. But there are plenty of papers left in that town.

HERE are some sober minded words uttered by Church Howe at the republican state convention. They should be practiced and lived up to by our county republicans between now and election: "I heard someone remark as I came on the platform that the 'old ship is leaking.' I beg to differ with the gentleman. You have today stopped the leaks in the old ship (a voice from the audience, 'We have thrown the Jonah overboard.') We come forward to battle with more of harmony than we have had in many years. You have in choosing the candidate for the supreme bench selected in my opinion, very wisely. I have been looking for harmony in the republican party for a good many years. I came here last night looking for it, but I did not expect to find it so soon. There is an old tomb stone down in my old native state, Massachusetts, which says, 'I expected this but not so soon.' And I think that is all I need to say. Republicans, bury your differences! There never was a time in the history of the republican party in the state when the conditions for success were so bright. All it needs in this state is that you will vote your sentiments. Be republicans. That is all. You have the votes, you have the candidates, and you have the party with a record. All you need to do is to stand up like men, shoulder to shoulder and be republicans. Don't praise the cook or d—n the cook, but go about your business, and vote the republican ticket, never minding personal differences. We stand here in Nebraska today blessed with everything. West of us thousands are begging for bread; east of us workshops are closed. We are told by the gentleman who is chief executive of this country that he would give us an object lesson. He did. Do you see it? Point out to the laboring man of this country that object lesson and let him study it. Any of you are capable of teaching it to him. Now, as I said my friends we do not need much talk, and I say to you, let us be men and be republicans. Go forward and advocate the election of as clean a ticket as was ever named in the bright state of Nebraska."

TOWNSHIP organization means another increase of taxes. It is not known accurately how much greater the expense will be, but it will be considerable. Do we want greater or less burdens? It is a simple business proposition. THE TRIBUNE favors a lesser.

JUDGE HARRISON'S canvass is progressing very satisfactorily, although with the quiet dignity which should characterize campaigning for the office of supreme judge. His majority is estimated between ten and fifteen thousand.

H. H. TROTH is all right and will make a just assessor.

AN ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATION.

Friday evening will long be remembered by E. N. Benjamin as one of the bright stars in his firmament. On that evening a goodly number of his friends gathered at the home of Dr. Critser and from there proceeded to the capture. The assault was a surprise and therefore a complete success. The hour being late, supper was at once announced, and it seldom falls to the lot of man to enjoy a more bounteous repast. Music and conversation whiled away the time until the wee sma' hours, when all dispersed, living in the hope that a year will soon roll around and again bring to us the 20th day of October. Ed was the recipient of several valuable and useful presents. Many returns. UNO.
