COMMITTEEMEN, send in the result in your precinct at earliest possible moment.

THE campaign is now on the home stretch and everybody can see that the republicans will be in it.

A VOTE for George W. Roper will be that much toward retaining a faithful and capable man in office.

SOME of the stories started by the monkey-doodle politicians are reacting and putting them in a hole. 'Twas ever thus.

SHERIFF BANKS richly deserves re-election. He has filled his office with fidelity and unquestioned ability. Vote for him.

THE way for republicans to be ready to resume business in national affairs is to be in business in state and county affairs.

Now that repeal has come will the good, kind east that has more money hoarded than it has had at any one time in twenty five years, loan the west a dollar?

C. W. BECK's record as county judge is clear and strong for competency, fairness and painstaking carefulness. He should be retained there another term.

WE fancy the Times-Democrat a trifle too fresh in reading Republicans out of the party. Just wait a second, Pete, until you know you are fairly in it yourself.

A DISTINGUISHED figure in the Catholic church in America has passed away in the Very Reverend Edward Sorin, who died Tuesday at Notre Dame, Indiana. Father Sorin, a member of the then recently founded order of the Holy Cross, arrived in the vicinity of South Bend in October, 1842, to find a log cabin and the rude habitations of Indians standing amid the waste of trackless snow. Amid these unpromising surroundings and with $5 in his pocket he laid the foundations of the largest Catholic school in America. Father Sorin will be remembered by the thousands of students, who in the half century past have sought Notre Dame from all parts of the country, as a man of distinguished presence and character. He possessed not only high scholastic attainments, but cultured, artistic taste, adorned Notre Dame with treasures of art carefully gathered in Europe, and was the patron of the artist Gregori, who spent seventeen years in the adornment of the church and university. The fiftieth anniversary of Father Sorin's arrival at Notre Dame was celebrated with great enthusiasm last year.
