

Cream—Not Skim-Milk.

Every farmer and villager, their wives and boys and girls, will be interested in the big-little, cream-not-skim-milk paper, the Farm Journal of Philadelphia. Its 200,000 subscribers are scattered from Maine to Washington, and from Michigan to Texas. Its breezy, crisp, boiled-down pages contain as much information in the course of a year as many of the high-priced weeklies; while its earnest, manly tone and its bright and common-sense way of treating farm matters leaves a good and lasting taste in one's mouth. The subscription price is 50 cents a year. We have made arrangements with the publisher whereby he will send it one full year free, to all who promptly pay up for our paper. Sample copies will be sent free by addressing a postal request to the Farm Journal, Philadelphia, Pa.

No woman is educated who is not equal to the management of a family.

Hints on Poultry Keeping

Is the title of our little pamphlet which tells all about how to have plenty of eggs and no sick chickens. It is our kindest and tenderest emotion that we screen from the world.

My wife was so badly afflicted with rheumatism as to be unable to move in bed without assistance. Our druggist, Mr. Laddamus, recommended Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which greatly relieved her. We have used six bottles at various times, and would not be without it at hand.—Jas. Coleman, Lowell, Neb. 50 cent bottles for sale by McConnell & Co.

To love is to admire with the heart; to admire is to love with the mind.

A benefactor—a person who purchases his own self-gratulation at the expense of our self-respect.

A farmer near Albia, Iowa, by the name of J. H. Wolfe, has found a sure cure for croup. He says: "For the last eight years I have recommended Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for croup. Half of a fifty cent bottle will cure the worst case, if taken in time. On the 20th of this month, my boy, four years old, had the croup very bad and three doses cured him. I would not be without it in my family." If the remedy is given as soon as the child becomes hoarse, it will invariably prevent croup. 50 cent bottles for sale by McConnell.

An egotist—one whose glasses are convex with reference to himself but concave with reference to others.

Distemper Among Horses

Articles of Incorporation

Farmers and Merchants Bank of McCook, Red Willow County, Nebraska.

We the undersigned, Frank H. Spearman, Sylvester Cordeau, and Joseph A. Cordeau, of Red Willow county, and state of Nebraska, do hereby voluntarily associate ourselves together for the purpose of forming a corporation under the laws of the state of Nebraska.

1. The name of this corporation shall be the Farmers and Merchants Bank of McCook, Nebraska.

2. The principal office where the business of this corporation shall be transacted shall be at McCook, county of Red Willow, state of Nebraska.

3. The purposes for which this corporation is formed are to transact a banking business, by receiving money on deposit, buying and selling exchange, loaning money on notes, bills of exchange, and other real and personal securities, and such other business as is by law authorized to be transacted for the purposes and uses of said banking corporation hereinbefore mentioned.

4. The term for which said organization is organized is twenty five (25) years.

5. The business of this corporation shall be conducted by officers known as president, vice president and cashier, and by a board of three directors, which directors shall be stockholders. The officers and board of directors shall be elected annually, on the first Monday of April of each and every year. The first officers of said corporation shall comprise the following named persons: Frank H. Spearman, president; M. L. Longergan, vice president; and Sylvester Cordeau, cashier. And the first board of directors of the said corporation shall comprise the following named persons: Frank H. Spearman, M. A. Longergan and Sylvester Cordeau, who shall hold such offices until the first Monday in April, 1894, or until their successors are elected, and upon such first Monday in April, 1894, the regular annual meeting of said corporation shall be held; due notice shall be given of each meeting as required by law.

6. The capital stock of said corporation shall be twenty five thousand dollars ($25,000), paid up capital stock, and shall be divided into two hundred and fifty (250) shares of one hundred dollars ($100) each. Certificates of such stock shall be signed by the president and cashier and shall be transferable only on the books of the corporation, and at all meetings of the stockholders each share shall be entitled to one vote, which vote may be cast, either in person or by proxy. The capital stock may be increased or diminished as provided by law, by a vote of three-fourths of the shares thereof at any regular meeting of the stockholders, or at a special meeting duly called and held for that purpose.

7. The directors shall fill any vacancy in the offices of said corporation.

8. The books of said corporation shall be kept at the banking office of said corporation, and shall be open for the inspection of any stockholder during the ordinary business hours of the corporation.

9. The board of directors are authorized to make such regulations as to its meetings and government and such by-laws as may be necessary, in conformity with these articles of incorporation; the place of meeting being always at the banking office of the corporation. A majority of the board shall at all times have power to call a special meeting of the stockholders.

10. The indebtedness of this corporation shall not exceed fifteen thousand dollars at any one time, and that such limitation shall be governed by the laws of Nebraska relating to banking business, and transactions related thereto which are made the object of this corporation.

11. These articles may be amended at any time by a vote of three-fourths of the capital stock at any regular or special meeting convened in the manner provided by said corporation.

In testimony whereof we have hereunto subscribed our names this 20th day of October, 1893.
