

Cream—Not Skim-Milk.

Every farmer and villager, their wives and boys and girls, will be interested in the big little, cream-not-skim-milk paper, the Farm Journal of Philadelphia. Its 200,000 subscribers are scattered from Maine to Washington, and from Michigan to Texas. Its breezy, crisp, boiled-down pages contain as much information in the course of a year as many of the high-priced weeklies; while its earnest, manly tone and its bright and common-sense way of treating farm matters leaves a good and lasting taste in one's mouth. The subscription price is 50 cents a year. We have made arrangements with the publisher whereby he will send it one full year free, to all who promptly pay up for our paper. Sample copies will be sent free by addressing a postal request to the Farm Journal, Philadelphia, Pa.

Tulle was invented at Tulle, in France.

Farmers and Merchants Bank of McCook, Red Willow County, Nebraska.

We the undersigned, Frank H. Spearman, Sylvester Cordeal, and Joseph A. Cordeal, of Red Willow county, and state of Nebraska, do hereby voluntarily associate ourselves together for the purpose of forming a corporation under the laws of the state of Nebraska.

1. The name of this corporation shall be the Farmers and Merchants Bank of McCook, Nebraska.

2. The principal office where the business of this corporation shall be transacted shall be at McCook, county of Red Willow, state of Nebraska.

3. The purposes for which this corporation is formed are to transact a banking business, by receiving money on deposit, buying and selling exchange, issuing money on notes, business of exchange, and other real and personal securities, and such other business as is by law authorized to be transacted for the purposes and uses of a banking corporation in the state of Nebraska.

4. The term for which said organization is organized is twenty five (25) years.

5. The business of this corporation shall be conducted by officers known as president, vice president and cashier, and by a board of three directors, which directors shall be stockholders. The officers and board of directors shall be elected annually, on the first Monday of April of each and every year. The first officers of said corporation shall comprise the following named persons: Frank H. Spearman, president; M. A. Lonergan, vice president; and Sylvester Cordeal, cashier. And the first board of directors of the said corporation shall comprise the following named persons: Frank H. Spearman, M. A. Lonergan and Sylvester Cordeal, who shall hold such offices until the first Monday in April, 1894, or until their successors are elected, and upon such first Monday in April, 1894, the officers and board of directors of the said corporation shall be elected; due notice shall be given of each meeting as required by law.

6. The capital stock of said corporation shall be twenty five thousand dollars ($25,000), paid up capital stock, and shall be divided into two hundred and fifty (250) shares of one hundred dollars ($100) each. Certificates of such stock shall be signed by the president and cashier and shall be transferable only on the books of the corporation, and at any time money may be loaned to each share shall be entitled to one vote, which vote may be cast either in person or by proxy. The capital stock may be increased or diminished as provided by law, by a vote of three-fourths of the shares of the corporation at any regular or special meeting, and at a special meeting duly called and held for that purpose.

7. The directors shall fill any vacancy in the offices of said corporation.

8. The corporation shall be kept at the banking office of said corporation, and shall be open for the inspection of any stockholder during the ordinary business hours of the corporation.

9. The board of directors are authorized to make such regulations as to the conduct of government and such by-laws as may be necessary, in conformity with these articles of incorporation; the place of meeting being always at the banking office of the corporation. A majority of the board shall at all times have power to call a special meeting of the stockholders.

10. The indebtedness of this corporation shall not exceed fifteen thousand dollars at any one time, and that such limitation shall be governed by the laws of Nebraska relating to banking business, and transactions related thereto which are made the object of this corporation.

11. These articles may be amended at any time by a vote of three-fourths of the capital stock at any regular or special meeting convened in the manner provided by said corporation.

In testimony whereof we have hereunto subscribed our names this 30th day of October, 1893.
