THE suicide of a St. Paul editor who threw himself under an engine because he had been disappointed in an application for Government position is hardly a vindication of the spoils system. Nor is it a blow at civil service reform. The man who is weak enough to kill himself because the Government does not give him a job is not likely to be the sort of man that would be serviceable to the Government in any capacity.

Episcopal services in Masonic hall, both morning and evening, Sunday next, at the usual hours, by Rev. Durant. The hour for Sunday school has, however, been changed from 12 to 10 in the morning. Please observe this change in the time for Sunday school.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hupp entertained their relatives Mr. and Mrs. Miller of Fairmont, close of last and fore part of this week. Mr. Miller is a banker, and has interests at Lebanon, whither they all drove, Monday, the latter going east from that point.

BACHELOR HOLLOW.
Weather fine and corn husking progressing rapidly. Yield is fair.
There is a literary society at the Laurel Dell school house that bids fair to be a success.
From the way farmers talk in this section of the county, next season will see the planting of the greatest acreage of wheat and corn of any previous year.
J. B. Miller marketed some fine hogs, last week, and from the way Mr. Miller rustles around one would suppose that he was looking out for a cook. That's right, Jim.
We have one christian young man in our vicinity, we should judge from the way he pays his attentions to the widows and orphans. But we will not give him away, for it might make E. L. Fowler blush.
The way alfalfa threshing has been pushing the farmers on the Beaver is amazing, and many have been caused to rejoice in a big yield of seed. The Ashton brothers have nearly six hundred bushels of seed. Some crops yielded 12 bushels to the acre.

ROUGH AND READY.
Official reports of railroad earnings for October are not showing the terrible falling off in net receipts of which the railway magnates have been so loudly complaining. The railroads are by no means as badly affected by the prevailing industrial depression as are a host of other important business interests of the country.
It is to be sincerely hoped that General Master Workman Sovereign will be able to restore to the Knights of Labor that harmony of purpose and action among its members and officers which it has so sadly missed since the advent of the Powderly machine.

POPULISTS of the state announce that a council of the party leaders will be held in January to adopt a plan of campaign for next year.
