NORTH DIVIDE NUBBINS.

And the "Nubbins" are not all gathered yet.

The writer hasn't considered the matrimonial question very seriously, thank you.

Several of the Divide folks attended the literary at Box Elder on Wednesday evening.

A very proper present about this time would be a year's subscription to THE McCOOK TRIBUNE.

M. Steltzer has been plastering his house, the past week, and is now comfortably settled.

A brother of James Thompson, who recently arrived from Michigan, will occupy and farm the old Carter place.

We are not exactly suffering for rain, but wish some one would devise a scheme to settle the dust.

A number of kindly disposed people hereabout have been soliciting aid in behalf of Mrs. A. M. Ward and family.

Mr. Hale, a young man from Burt county, has bought the Rev. Kimmel place, and is making very extensive improvements on same.

William Doyle up on the Willow has about completed a large and substantial barn. S. D. McClain, James Thompson and a number of others have been driving the nails.

Thirty-five scholars are now enrolled at the Divide school house, and everything progressing nicely. The fault-finding element found in nearly all district has sensibly quieted down.

Mr. Cashen has built a house on the place he now occupies, and as seems to be the custom, on its completion, a large number of friends made merry the occasion.

As Christmas draws on apace the young folks are anxious to know to what extent they will be remembered, and if reports are true all of the "dear girls" will by no means be forgotten.

Fred Carter has about closed the deal whereby he comes into possession of the old Cyril Templin place near Box Elder, and he will move there in the early spring. We regret to lose Fred from our midst, and thus early wish him abundant success.

We understand that the road now running through J. S. Modrell's old tree claim is to be made a permanent one and will be extended to the public road at the north. This will make an excellent opening and is a wise plan of the land owners in that vicinity.

On Saturday evening last at the home of the bride's parents, Miss Alice B. Scofield and Mr. John Griffin were happily united in marriage, only a few of the relations and friends being present. Monday evening following a few lads from the Willow composed a charivari party and made themselves painfully "manifest" by discharging firearms through the windows, tearing the siding from the house, and making general, uncouth disturbances.

A gay crowd of young folks participated in the joint spelling match and basket supper which was held at the Box Elder school house on Monday evening. A general jolly good time was had of which "Polly Perkins" and "Jenny Jenkins" fully shared. The proceeds of the supper are to be used in the purchase of maps etc. for the school, which by the way, seems to be jogging along smoothly. CONNIE.
