COL. MARY LEASE discloses at last how she was made a Mason. She says that it was years ago, in Lockport, N. Y., where she had a friend who was a Mason, and that one night he conducted her to a neglected door looking upon a lodge room where there was a sliding wicket, and it was through this peep-hole that she saw some fellows making Masons. She witnessed the conferring of the first and second degrees, and hence she is a Mason herself.

If anybody learns that Colonel Lease has been missing the better part of a night and that when she is rediscovered she is no longer as flip as she was, all Masons will know what has happened. There are two instances on record of this sort where women were caught peeping. They were both given the alternative of instant death connected with something called a cable tow, or of being regularly initiated and sworn. They chose to be initiated. When Mary goes through the mill herself she will doubtless feel the better for the experience.

As for that lodge of Free and Accepted Masons in Lockport, N. Y., that had a wicket put in a door leading to the lodge for the convenience of Colonel Lease, it will have to be investigated right away.

But Mary confesses that she knows nothing about the third or masters degree of masonry. That settles her standing as a fellowcraft. Having witnessed only the two preliminary degrees she hasn't seen very much and her claim to be a full fledged Mason is a very flimsy one, indeed.—Journal.

COLEMAN PRECINCT.

Some farmers were plowing yesterday, and the soil rolled over nice.

Word from Dubuque, Iowa, says that Saturday morning was the coldest this winter.

If the lister needs a new lay, or sharpening, throw it in the wagon when you go to town, and have it done now, and save an extra trip.

Examine the harrow and if any bolts are needed get them Saturday when you are in town and put the harrow in good shape, as it will be needed soon.

Sabbath school at the Coleman school house every Sabbath, at 10 a. m., central time. Preaching every two weeks at 11 a. m., central time.

If there are any bolts needed or burs loose on the cultivator, see to it now. If the shovels need sharpening have it done now, as it may be needed soon in cultivating in wheat.

Wm. Coleman has sold the east half of 6-2-30, known as the Harbican, or Harvey Pate farm, consideration, $4,300, cash. The purchaser, J. W. Jones of Richardson county, this state, will move on to it in a few days.

Mr. A. Prentice and wife of Lee county, Illinois, arrived Wednesday night, and their two cars loaded with stock and emigrant goods came yesterday afternoon. They go to their new home in Coleman precinct.

Buckwheat flour, oat meal, corn meal, flour, feed, and baled hay, for sale by McCook Commission Co.

The transcontinental railways have opened one of their biennial rate wars on Pacific coast business. It makes little difference to the line officials whether or not the roads are deep down in the slough of financial despond, controlled by high salaried receivers. They go merrily on cutting one another's throats, making a solemn compact to retain rates today only to break it tomorrow, and throwing the property of eastern stockholders into the railroad junk pile. To be sure, people who want to travel between "the states" and the coast will derive a temporary benefit. There are, however, other interests to be subserved. No bankrupt institution can successfully engage in a cut-rate fight.
