Mrs. P. F. McKenna is entertaining her mother.

Mrs. M. Carmony is back from her visit to Amboy.

Conductor Coy was up from Holdrege, Monday, on business at division headquarters.

Engine 36 with a broken driver is down from the high line for an overhauling.

Mrs. Forbes is much better, and, the baby is improving, it is a great pleasure to note.

It is pretty hard to keep house properly without THE McCOOK TRIBUNE. Don't try.

Mulhall says that the life of a locomotive is usually fifteen years, and its earnings $300,000.

Joseph Dick has gone to Red Cloud to take the position of switchman in the company's yard there.

Quite a change in ticket punches has taken place on the high line in the last week.—Curtis Courier.

Will Archibald is confined to the bed with an attack of malarial fever, and has been quite ill for a few days.

Mesdames L. C. Wolff and Joseph McMeningal went down to Lincoln, yesterday, to visit a few days with relatives and friends.

Roadmaster Haley is laying heavier steel between here and Bartley. They are putting down 76 pound steel in place of the old 60 pound.

Night Foreman Henry Culbertson has had a severe tussle with the measles; but is now better. Harry Kingsbury acted in that capacity during his illness.

Dispatcher Townsend expects to have his electric circuit for power in operation within a few weeks. A number of people have already applied for power.

Mrs. Catherine Earner was called to McCook, Sunday, on account of the illness of the child of her daughter, Mrs. Harry Conover.—Red Cloud Argus.

Mrs. George Conner of McCook is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Roy. She will visit in Kansas City before her return.—Falls City Journal.

Business is looking up. Freight trains 63 and 80 have both been run through a number of times lately. Steel from Pueblo for the company's northern extension is one of the items of increase in the volume of business.

John Phillips, a fireman of the Philadelphia & Reading railroad at Tamarand received his pay April 11th, about $80, says the Philadelphia Record. As he mounted the engine with the money in his hand the whole amount, which was in paper, was pulled from his grasp into the fire box by the draught and burned.

The contract to build the Stratton school house has been awarded to McAdams & Rooney, Messrs. O'Neil & Kilpatrick having thrown up their interest in the matter on account of something in the contract that they would not sign. Mr. Rooney has been up there, this week, arranging for the burning of brick for the structure.

Frank Quigley took his wife and her mother out for a buggy ride Sunday. The horse became frightened and Mrs. Cummings was thrown out and suffered a badly sprained elbow. Frank and his wife "stuck to the engine" and the horse was stopped without further mishap.... The item clipped from the McCook paper some time since to the effect that Frank Quigley had resigned his place on the road, said Quigley by a mistake of the McCook compositor. It should have read Rigley.—Red Cloud Belt.

The completion of the Burlington's northwestern line to a connection with the Northern Pacific at Billings is expected to result in a marked increase in the smelting business of the Black Hills. Ores needed for mixing with the products of the hill mines can then be brought in from the far west to good advantage, and in a few years the largest smelting center in the northwest can be built up in the Deadwood district. The Black Hills region has a great future before it, and the depression of the present will soon give way to a period of unprecedented activity.—Lincoln Journal.

The Burlington railroad has announced two special homeseekers' excursions from all points on their system east of the Missouri to all stations west of that river. A round trip rate of one fare has been made, with liberal stop-over privileges and a limit of twenty days. These tickets may be purchased on May 8th and 28th. They will afford a fine opportunity for people in the east to pay a visit to Nebraska. The time, it will be observed, could not be better for giving the visitors a favorable impression of the state. Nebraskans may find it desirable to bring these excursions to the attention of their friends and relatives east of the Missouri. A round trip for one fare, and the privilege of remaining in the state twenty days, ought to encourage many visits from eastern people.

Notice from the Postoffice Department.

The following notice to postmasters has been published by the order of the postmaster general concerning the transmitting of letters and circulars by persons operating what is generally called "green goods or sawdust swindle." Caution cards, suitable for display in postoffice lobbies will be furnished to all postmasters in the course of the next few weeks, with instructions to display them conspicuously in those portions of the postoffice frequented by the public:

"POSTOFFICE DEPARTMENT, WASHINGTON, D. C., March 21, 1894.—The attention of persons is called to the fact that the laws prescribing penalties for using the United States mails for the conveyance or transmittal of letters and circulars concerning swindling and fraudulent schemes is being violated by persons operating what is called "the green goods or sawdust swindle."

"These swindlers pretend to sell counterfeit money and call their goods "cigars," "green articles," "green goods," "business that is not legitimate," etc. One set of these swindlers, located in Jersey City, N. J., mailed their circulars at that point, while others were sent to be posted at New York, Chicago, Toledo, O., Detroit, Mich., and different cities. To avoid detection, they request that replies be sent by telegraph to fictitious addresses."

"A contemplated robbery, pure and simple, and in every possible instance plunder their object. Therefore, all persons who receive circulars in which are contained offers to sell counterfeit money, green goods, cigars, etc., will know that there is an attempt being made to deceive and plunder them."

"To further the ends of justice, persons receiving such circulars through the mails are requested to hand the same to the postmaster, who is directed to transmit them forthwith to the chief postoffice inspector at Washington, D. C."

A Great Big Cut.

Owing to the hard times nearly every commodity has been lessened in price. The Nebraska State Journal, which has forged to the front as the best paper in the state, realizes that the public is entitled to cheaper state papers, and therefore reduces its prices from $10.00 to $7.50 per year, including the Sunday issue, or $6.00 per year for six days in the week. There will be no reduction in quality but the increased circulation even at the lower price will permit of larger expenditures for telegraphic news, etc. The Journal is for Nebraska first, last, and all the time, and every effort is put forth to build up state industries. Published at the state capital it is of particular interest to Nebraskans. Its Washington bureau is in charge of W. A. Annin, who is thoroughly acquainted with Nebraska interests at the national capital. During the approaching campaign, and during the coming legislature, the Journal will be pre-eminently the newspaper of Nebraska. Try it awhile; 65 cents per month for seven days in the week; 50 cents per month except Sunday. Address NEBRASKA STATE JOURNAL, Lincoln, Neb.

SPARKS FROM THE RAILS.

Assistant Supt. Harman was down from Holyoke, yesterday, on business of his branch.

The remains of the wreck near Schramm were taken to Havelock, first of the week.

Frank Millikin of Stratton, one of the B. & M. steel gang here, got his foot badly mashed by letting a rail fall on it, yesterday. He was taken to McCook for treatment.—Indianola Courier.

Fine Printing.

We make a specialty of fine job printing. Our samples of fashionable and elegant stationery for invitations, programs etc., is not excelled in Nebraska.

THE TRIBUNE is the only paper in Red Willow county that publishes all the county printing. We do it by authority—and it's correct.

In Hayes county, Nebraska, according to the American Newspaper Directory for 1894, now in press, the Hayes Centre Republican has a larger regular issue than any other paper. Advertising rates made known on application.

The Harper War Book is the greatest work of the kind ever published. The State Journal has arranged to supply its patrons at 10 cents per part. You can get part one by cutting out this item and sending with 10 cents to the State Journal, Lincoln, Neb.

Advertisement for Bids.

Sealed bids will be received by the city clerk up to noon on the 9th day of May, 1894, for the services of one man and good heavy team for city work the coming year. Bids to specify the size of team proposed to be used. Such bids to be securely sealed and endorsed "bids for man and team for city." The council reserve the right to reject any or all bids.

Dated April 26th, 1894.
49-2ts. E. J. WILCOX, City Clerk.

REDUCTIONS THAT

Do Not Reduce!

It is a practice, unfortunately too frequent, for dealers to make fictitious and fanciful prices on goods as a basis for reduction and a text for advertising. Positive Evidence confronts us in which the net result of vaunted and much advertised bargains is simply a scale of prices the same as ourselves and other dealers charge regular. The remedy for this humbug is with the retail business.
