DANBURY NEWS.

Look out for thunder showers, this summer.

Fred Lyons went to Hastings, last Wednesday.

Editor Smith spent Decoration Day at Wilsonville.

Ashton Bros. shipped three car loads of stock this week.

We had a very large crowd in attendance upon the the Decoration ceremonies.

Powell Bros. shipped five car loads of cattle and one of hogs, this week.

Hilton and Street returned from Beaver City, last Tuesday. They disposed of some of their horses during their absence.

The Order of the Eastern Star of our city will soon be out of dispensation. A banquet is then proposed. It will take place early this month.

The Free Methodists continue bombarding the citidel of Satan in our midst. But the walls have not yet fallen down before their vociferous assaults. The old fellow is a pretty tough customer.

Take your fat hogs to F. S. WILCOX.

For pure lard go to the B. & M. meat market. F. S. WILCOX.

TYRONE NEWS.

N. W. Fough went to Colorado, this week.

C. A. Noble of Valparaiso, Nebraska, called on J. C. Moore, Tuesday.

Ed. Allen and John Farr dug out and caught six young wolves, one day this week.

J. C. Moore is having a fine lot of rock quarried to be used in a foundation for a house.

John Morgan and others quit work, Saturday, and went fishing on Medicine creek near Cambridge.

Florence Moore and Frances Kimpton were out, Monday, soliciting money to pay what is owed on the new organ.

Mrs. M. E. Barger will sell or close out her stock of millinery regardless of cost on account of the hard times. Or will sell out to any one wishing to buy. Now, if the ladies want bargains in millinery just call and see her goods and prices and be convinced.

The Tariff, Financial, Hawaiian and other questions of the day do not interest the people hereabout as much as the question where can I get the most and best groceries for the money. C. M. Noble can answer the question to the satisfaction of all.

Cochran & Co. have on display a large line of carriages, phaetons, buggies, road carts, spring wagons, etc. Completest stock in Red Willow county. Inspect them if you want anything in that line.

Do you know that woven wire fencing is the best and cheapest fencing on earth? S. M. Cochran & Co. have a large stock of all sizes. Don't fail to see their line before buying.

VAILTON NOTES.

We are sorry Arthur Strine is still on the sick list.

The measles have left us, for which we may be thankful.

C. S. Ferris finished planting seventy-five acres of sod Tuesday 22d.

Pretty chilly about the 20th, and most too dry in this locality for growing crops to flourish.

Quite a number of our people attended the baptismal services at the sod church, five miles west.

W. T. Coleman and wife, of McCook, viewed the Driftwood in the vicinity of Vailton Thursday.

Mr. Barr, of the South Side, was arranging to take in a carload of cattle to the Omaha market last week.

Neighbor Record, now of McCook, called on his many friends a few days ago. Mr. R. looks even more hearty than when on the farm.

Owing to continued dry weather corn planting will extend into the first part of June, although some of the first planting is ready for cultivating.

Samuel Reed was on our streets the other day. We understand he is making a specialty of gardening under the favorable conditions of the irrigation ditch.

Elder McBride preaches to our people on alternate Sabbaths at the school house in what is known as the George Frederick district and he preaches to a well filled house. Truly the Lord's day is more appropriately observed here than in many other localities where our lot has been cast.
