

OVER THE STATE.

FALLS CITY has opened a new business college. PEOPLE of Wallace prayed for rain and they got it. Ex-Gov. NANCE will build a $10,000 residence in Lincoln. THREE divorces were granted at Hastings last week. THE assessed valuation of Dodge county is $3,097,712. SEVERAL stone buildings are being erected at Lodge Pole. NEW hay has appeared in Fremont and is selling at $5 a ton. KEARNEY is preparing for a fitting celebration on the Fourth. TURNERS of Nebraska City will have a great celebration in August. THE assessed valuation of Pierce county for the current year is $1,521,490. LOU CARROLL of Hastings, for robbery, was given two years in the state pen. It is estimated that 75,000 sheep will be fattened on Dodge county corn this fall. THE costs of the jury during the late term of court in Buffalo county, were $2,061. WARM as is the weather, Ashland is having a series of religious revival meetings. THE Lancaster county teachers' institute is now in session and will last two weeks. NEW potatoes are on the market at Pawnee City. They are selling for $1.50 per bushel. A SARPY county farmer has some alfalfa that has grown fifteen inches in seven weeks. GENOA has an Indian base ball club. They will probably play at Nebraska City on the Fourth. ALL reports to the contrary, there will be a fair yield of wheat and oats in Johnson county. THERE was quite a hail storm in and around Exeter, some of the stones being as large as hen's eggs. TWO BRICK blocks will be added to the thrifty village of Laurel before corn husking begins. JONATHAN MARTIN and James Colgan were committed to the asylum at Norfolk from Cheyenne county. THE first teachers' institute in Nebraska this year was held in Madison county, beginning June 11th. THE Hastings gas company has recently changed hands, and cheaper gas is promised in the near future. BOYS at Kearney brought in 2,500 gopher scalps on circus day, and the latter reaped a bountiful harvest. THE Amelia creamery is turning out about 600 pounds of butter a day and the product is daily increasing. THE Union Pacific officials have closed the Willow Island station and transferred Agent Pangborn to Gibbon. J. SNIDER of Furnas county shelled 1,700 bushels of corn last week and sold all but about 400 bushels at 35 cents. COL. EDGAR, editor of the Beatrice Express, occasionally occupies the pulpit, being preacher as well as editor. THE new Christian church at Elmwood was dedicated last Sunday. All of the indebtedness has been provided for. FARMERS in Pawnee county report the corn crop farther advanced this year than usual owing to the early spring. THREE little Indian boys who skipped from the Indian school at Lawrence, Kan., were detected at Nebraska City and will be returned. A PIG having seven legs and eight feet was born on the farm of W. K. Hardman, near Sprague, the other day. It lived only a short time. HONORE JAXON, who is credited with being the head of the conspiracy to blow up the public buildings at Washington, is known in Omaha. IN the district court of Richardson county last week Judge Babcock gave five men one year each in the penitentiary for burglarizing houses. THE Santee Indian band will furnish the Fourth of July music at Randolph. As an extra attraction 200 members of the tribe will accompany them. EDITOR ALBIN of the McCool Junction Record came near losing his only child. The child had got into a package of paris green and had put some in its mouth. DEPUTY UNITED STATES MARSHAL COBLE arrived in Omaha from Boyd county, having in charge F. J. Lopatch, who is charged with selling liquor to Indians. F. COOL of Custer county was found lying dead in his doorway last week, having been killed by lightning. His body lay three days before being discovered. EZRA BEEMAN pleaded guilty to the charge of selling liquor without a government license in the federal court at Omaha, and Judge Dundy fined him $25 and costs. JOHN P. KELLY, formerly a private in the regular army, stationed at Sidney, was found dead on a railroad track in New Jersey. He became dissolute while at Sidney and was court-martialed and dishonorably discharged. Good soaking rains have brought smiles to our farmers' faces. Now patronize home industry and keep money in the state. You should always buy Farrell & Co.'s brand of syrups, jellies, preserves and mince meat; Morse-Coe boots and shoes for men, women and children; American Bisenit & Manufacturing Co., Omaha. THE 15 cents an hour to seventy men now working on the canal at Kearney means over $500 a week turned over to the families of the laboring men. THE Eshville hose team has offered a purse of between $50 and $75 to be contested for by such teams as may care to go there and race on the Fourth. THE $9,000 water bonds voted by Cedar Rapids last spring have been sold after considerable delay. In two or three days the board will be ready to receive bids for the construction of the work, which will be pushed to completion. The power will be furnished by the Cedar Rapids Improvement and Milling company.

CHADRON is working to secure a beet sugar mill and starch factory. A FIRE in South Omaha destroyed Mosher's livery barn, together with a number of horses, harness, buggies, etc. The loss is $4,000, with only $1,500 insurance. LIGHTNING struck the house occupied by H. Wardell at Heemer, setting it on fire. Mr and Mrs Wardell were rendered insensible, but in a short time fully recovered. SEVEN head of cattle belonging to Mr. Bollus, living near Courtland, were killed by lightning during a thunder storm. The cattle were bunched alongside a wire fence. THERE are but few towns in Nebraska that will not let the eagle soar on the glorious Fourth. All along the line preparations are going forward for due observance of the day. Mrs. Eldora Johnson, who was struck by a switch engine while walking on the track in South Omaha, died of her injuries. She was a widow and leaves several small children. INVESTIGATION shows that the dyke at the head of the Island in Otoe county, which was mentioned as giving way before high water, was cut by a farmer named Thaman. He will be prosecuted. EX-SHERIFF D. S. CONELYAN, alleged embezzler of Phelps county funds, who escaped jail at Holdrege a few weeks ago, was arrested in Champagne, Ill. He was brought back to Nebraska. THE citizens of Bancroft decided to build a creamery at that point, and operations will be begun as soon as the stock can be subscribed. Several new dwellings are being built and business is booming. DANIEL SCHELL, living near Cortland, Gage county, died from the effects of being overheated. He was one of the first settlers of Highland township and was well known and esteemed throughout Gage county. JOHN PRICE of Nebraska City, a colored boy aged 14, was sent to the reform school last week. He has robbed nearly fifty houses of small articles, entering by means of skeleton keys which he made himself. THE residence of J. S. McCoy of Fairbury was struck by lightning during a severe thunder storm. The building was badly damaged and Mrs. McCoy and a young child were stunned, but have recovered from the shock. THE average daily killing at the Nebraska City packing house for the past week has been 1,740. This is almost the full capacity of the plant, and in all probability the largest average for any week since the house began running. JOHN DUTCHER's barn in Boyd county burned last week, destroying five head of horses, seven sets of harness, one hack, hay, grain and many other articles. Loss, $1,200; no insurance. It is thought the fire was the work of some enemy. MARY E. SMITH HAYWARD, the head of the largest dry goods house in Chadron, was last week taken to a private asylum by her friends. She has been failing mentally for some time. It is thought the affliction is only a temporary one. A WOMAN claiming to be from Tecumseh complained to the police of Nebraska City that she had been robbed of horse, wagon, household goods and her two children by one John Cornaway, with whom she states she was on her way to Oklahoma. JULIAN WOOD, the 18-year-old son of J. P. Wood of Louisville, was drowned in an old unused sandpit. He, in company with another boy, was in bathing when he took a cramp, and the water being about thirty feet deep the other boy was unable to rescue him. FREMONT parties have organized the Fremont Canal and power company and filed articles of incorporation with the secretary of state. The object of the concern is to build and maintain canals for irrigating and power purposes, and the capital stock authorized is $300,000. PRINCIPALS in Lincoln city schools will work next term for smaller salaries than they have heretofore received. The school board has reduced the salaries of all principals of schools of from nine to twelve rooms to $85, those of five to eight rooms was fixed at $80 and to those having two to four rooms $75 will be paid. THE sheriff of a western county presented a bill of expenses at the governor's office recently, in which he claimed that he was entitled to pay for the amount expended by him in recapturing an escaped prisoner. The claim was not allowed, and the inference drawn is that the state will not hold itself responsible for such escapes and will not pay for recaptures. EDGAR was treated to a sensation the other day, in which a woman, a man from Fairfield and a gun took prominent parts. The woman occupies rooms over a saloon and the man, whose name is Enwald, went to her room and attempted to force an entrance. The woman shot him in the left breast with a 32-caliber revolver. The bullet ranged across his chest and was extricated near his right shoulder. He will recover. THERE was a disastrous wind at Chadron last week. Much damage was done. The buildings of the Excelsior Lumber company were torn to pieces and the manager, John F. Tenzer, who attempted to escape when the crash came was caught by the wind and blown across the street and thrown violently against a blacksmith shop, head first, crushing his skull and fatally injuring him. He died in a few minutes. Mr Tenzer was a prominent man of Chadron and an old resident. He has relatives living at Toledo O. CHARLES HARMAN and John Holker of Hopkins, Mo., were in Nebraska City looking for three men, who, Holker alleges, relieved him of $5,000 cash the day before on the bogus farm sale racket. Harman was looking for a team which he thinks were stolen by the same men. Three men answering the description given by Harman and Holker had been in Nebraska City. FLORIN GEIGER, a well-to-do German farmer living six miles southeast of Utica, was instantly killed while returning home from Utica with a load of lumber by his team running away and throwing him under the wheels of the wagon, which crushed his breast.

FOULLY ASSASSINATED.

PRESIDENT CARNOT MURDERED BY AN ANARCHIST.

STABBED TO DEATH IN HIS CARRIAGE.

Giovanni Santo, an Italian, the Slayer—The Wretch Almost Beaten to Death by the Populace—The Whole World Shocked—President Cleveland Issues a Message to Congress.

LYONS, France, June 26.—President Carnot of France was stabbed through the left side by Cesare Giovanni Santo, a young Italian Anarchist, last night while on his way to attend a fete at the theater, and three hours later was dead. The knife of the murderer had pierced through the upper liver and from the first there was no hope. The wretched assassin was terribly beaten by the infuriated people who witnessed the terrible crime, but was saved for the guillotine by gendarmes and soldiers. The international silk exhibition in this city was opened yesterday, and President Carnot and most of the ministers were honored guests. The distinguished party spent some time at the exhibition and were then tendered a banquet at the chamber of commerce. A gala performance had been arranged at the principal theater for the evening, and the president and his party started for the structure at 9:25 o'clock, the president's carriage in front. The streets were lined with enthusiastic people who cheered repeatedly for their popular chief magistrate. All seemed perfectly bright and only one of all the hosts on the streets was aware of any cloud to mar the happiness of the people of France.

THE CRIME DONE IN A MOMENT.

The president's carriage, which was in the lead, had been driven slowly down the Rue de la Republique when, just as he was waving his right hand and saluting with his hat in his left, a man pushed his way through the cheering masses and leaped upon the steer. A long knife was in his hand. A moment it flashed in the electric light beams as it was raised aloft. Then before even one cry of warning could be uttered it descended with terrible force. The president fell back on the seat of the carriage while one hand pressed his left side.

M. Rivaud, prefect of Lyons, whose guest President Carnot was, leaped up like a flash and struck the cowardly assassin a blow full in the face, hurling him from the step just as he was preparing to raise the bloody point for a second blow.

The tragedy occupied but an instant, but that instant plunged all France into mourning.

THE PEOPLE BATTLE FOR VENGEANCE.

The people, who a moment before had been cheering enthusiastically for their chief magistrate, instantly cried: "The president is assassinated. Death to the assassin!" and pressed closely around the wretch. Dozens seized him and tried to tear him limb from limb, while each moment the angry cries gathered fresh force.

Gendarmes stationed along the street to preserve order gathered about the now trembling assassin and partially checked the infuriated people. Blows were rained on him from all sides over the shoulders of the officers, who received accusations each moment and soon were strong enough to hold the incensed hosts in check.

LAST HOURS FULL OF PAIN.

While the people were battling for revenge, the president was driven to the prefecture and placed upon a low iron bed between two windows. His clothes were deeply stained with blood. The best surgeons of the city were summoned and, headed by Dr. Gaillon, mayor of the city, made a hasty examination of the wound.

Because of the weakness of the president, chloroform was not administered. During the probing of the wound by Dr. Gellier, M. Carnot, who had been unconscious, roused and exclaimed: "How you are hurting me!" The president was reassured by the physicians and the examination was continued as gently as possible. During this he cried several times: "My God, will this never end?" "My God, how I am suffering."

As soon as the examination was completed, the physicians agreed that there was no hope and sent for the Archbishop of Lyons to administer the last rites of the church. The president remained conscious to the last.

EXCITEMENT IN THE THEATER.

In the theater, toward which the president and his party were driving, was the most brilliant audience of the season. All were impatiently awaiting the arrival of the guests of honor when Prefect Rivaud and Deputy Chaudey appeared in front of the president's box. The whole audience arose as if to greet the president. The prefect cried out in a voice broken with sobs: "The president has just been assassinated."

The women screamed and several fainted while the men uttered exclamations of fury and ran from the theater with cries of vengeance.

When silence was in a measure restored M. Rivaud continued: "In the Rue de la Republique a miscreant, under the pretext of presenting a petition stabbed M. Carnot with a dagger." M. Rivaud was again interrupted with shouts of "Death to the murderer, revenge, revenge."

Waving his hands for silence, M. Rivaud again spoke, saying: "Do not make my mission more painful. We left M. Carnot in the hands of the doctors. You understand that under these conditions our hearts are filled with sorrow, and that the proposed performance in the president's honor cannot take place."

The audience then left the building, many of them proceeding at once to the prefecture, where they stood in the streets waiting for any report that might be vouchsafed to them from the building, and discussing the crime they considered had cast disgrace upon the fair fame of their city.

VENGEANCE ON ALL ITALIANS.

As soon as it became known that the assassin was an Italian, mobs wrecked Italian cafes, and then bearing French flags and crying "Down with the foreigners!" "out with them!" hundreds of people marched to the Rue de la Barre, in which street the Italian consulate is situated. There is no doubt the consulate would have been sacked had it not been for the prompt action of the police, who stopped the crowd and compelled its members to disperse.

After the attacks upon the Italian cafes the disorderly element among the crowds devoted their attention to the Italians whom they found upon the street. Several of them were pursued by the mob and barely escaped with their lives. The police, who were extraordinarily vigilant, had great difficulty in rescuing the hunted men. The Rue de la Barre is now barricaded at both ends and guarded by troops.

MME. CARNOT WITH HER DEAD.

Mme. Carnot, accompanied by her two sons, arrived at Lyons at 7 o'clock this morning. The widow was most respectfully greeted by a large crowd of people assembled about the railroad depot. She proceeded immediately to the prefecture, where the body of the late president now reposes in state.

When Mme. Carnot reached the prefecture the death chamber was cleared of all but the family and the widow, who had been joined by her third son, was left alone with her dead. The late president's family remained for a long time in prayer before the bier, and then the widow was led away by her three sons, all four weeping bitterly.

Later a consultation between the sons of the late president and the authorities in charge of the body took place. The exact nature of their deliberations has not been made public, but it was stated that Mme. Carnot did not desire the body of her late husband to be embalmed and wished it removed immediately from Lyons to Paris in order that it might lie in state in the chapel of the Elysee palace.

THE BODY LYING IN STATE.

The apartment at the prefecture in which the body of the late president lies in state presents a most interesting appearance. The body of the murdered man is clad in a dress suit and across his breast is the grand cordon of the Legion of Honor, of which, as chief of the state he was grand master. Around the bier are stationed a number of the high officers of the president's military household, who, with several Sisters of Charity have watched the remains throughout the night.

The prefecture itself is surrounded with troops, and a strong detachment of infantry is guarding the building in which Santo, the assassin, is confined.

THE ASSASSIN'S PAST RECORD.

The inquiries of the police this afternoon resulted in showing that Santo was born in Motta Visconti, northwest of Pavia, in December, 1873. The prisoner is a baker by trade and was tried in Milan in 1892 for breach of the peace, but he was acquitted, owing to lack of sufficient evidence against him.

Santo was known as a dangerous anarchist and delivered anarchist lectures of the wildest character before going to Switzerland last year. The police are keeping a strict watch over Anarchists in all the cities of France, and it is expected that several important arrests will be made. There no longer seems to be much doubt that the president's assassination was the result of an Anarchist conspiracy to avenge the deaths of Vaillant and Emil Henri, the two recently executed Anarchists. Twenty detectives have gone to Certe, department of Herault, where Santo was recently domiciled, in order to track down his supposed accomplices.

SYMPATHY UNIVERSAL.

The Senate Shows Its Respect—Tributes of Public Men—Europe's Regret.

WASHINGTON, June 26.—The death of President Carnot was the sole theme about the senate to-day. A prayer marked by deep feeling was delivered by the Rev. Dr. Milburn, the blind chaplain. Then Mr. Morgan, chairman of the committee on foreign relations, offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That the senate of the United States unite with the American people in expressing their sympathy for the sorrow and sympathy in the national bereavement they are suffering from the cruel blow of an assassin which was aimed at the peace of France and fell upon the heart of President Carnot. And as a mark of respect due to the memory of this virtuous and patriotic president of the republic of France the senate will, at the close of this proceeding, stand adjourned until tomorrow at 11 o'clock.

Second, that the president of the United States be requested to communicate this expression of sympathy to the government of France and to Mme. Carnot.

Senator Morgan made a brief speech in which he referred to the patriotism of the people of the French republic and the cordiality of the relations between the two republics and at 10:30 the senate adjourned.

The following official action was taken by the state department on receipt of Ambassador Estnis' official notification.

EXECUTIVE MANSION, WASHINGTON, June 25.—Estnis, Ambassador, Paris, France: Express to minister of foreign affairs the profound sorrow with which the president and America have heard of the atrocious crime which has robbed the sister republic of its wise, humane and patriotic chief magistrate GRESHAM.

The president took notice of the tragedy in the following message to congress:

To the Senate and the House of Representatives: The shocking intelligence is received that the president of the French republic met his death yesterday at the hands of an assassin. This terrible event which has overtaken a sister republic cannot fail to deeply arouse the sympathies of the American nation, while the violent termination of a career promising so much in aid of liberty and in advancing civilization should be mourned as an affliction of mankind. GRESHAM.

EXECUTIVE MANSION, June 25, 1894.

The news of the assassination created a profound sensation here last night, and members of both houses, diplomats and other public men discussed it as a great calamity to the world. There were many expressions of misgiving, but more of the necessity of united action by the civilized world to stamp out anarchy and deal with Anarchists as they deserve.

When the house met to-day it was generally understood it would adjourn early out of respect to the memory of President Carnot. Chaplain Bagby referred in his prayer to the calamity. A message from the president was announced and the executive clerk, Prudden, appeared at the main door bearing a large envelop bearing the president's announcement. Mr. McCrary, chairman of the committee on foreign affairs thereupon arose and offered the following resolutions:

Resolved, That the house of representatives of the United States of America has heard with profound sorrow of the assassination of President Carnot and tenders the people of France sincere sympathy in their national bereavement. That the President of the United States be requested to communicate this expression of sorrow to the government of the republic of France and to Madame Carnot and that as a further mark of respect to the people of the French republic the house of representatives do now adjourn.

Mr. McCrary and Mr. Hitt spoke on the resolutions and they were adopted unanimously and the house at once adjourned.

EUROPE'S REGRETS.

The Capitals of the Old World Greatly Shocked Over the Assassination.

NEARLY GOT AWAY.

Murderer Clark Almost Succeeded in Getting Out of the Kansas City Jail.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., June 26.—William C. Ricksher, alias John Clark, made desperate by the thought of death on the scaffold next Friday for the murder of Madame Jane Wright, made an almost successful attempt to break from the county jail a few minutes before 3 o'clock this morning. He broke through the triple steel bars of his cell with hammer and saws, and five minutes of work on the bars of the outer windows would have given him his liberty. He was at work on the bars with a saw when discovered by the night jailer, P. J. Kennedy, who shot at him, and, though missing him, caused him to surrender.

A KENTUCKY MIRACLE.

JUDGE JOHN M. RICE TELLS HOW HE WAS CURED OF RHEUMATISM.

Crippled for Six Years With Sciatica in Its Worst Form—He Expected to Die, But Was Saved in a Marvelous Manner.

From the Covington, Ky., Post. The Hon. John M. Rice, of Louisa, Lawrence County, Kentucky, has for the past two years retired from active life as Criminal and Circuit Judge of the Sixteenth Judicial district of Kentucky.

He has for many years served his native county and state in the legislature at Frankfort and at Washington, and, until his retirement, was a noted figure in political and judicial circles. The Judge is well known throughout the state and possesses the best qualities which go to make a Kentucky gentleman honored wherever he is known.

About six years ago the bodily troubles which finally caused his retirement at a time when his mental faculties were in the zenith of their strength, began their encroachment upon his naturally strong constitution. A few days ago a Kentucky Post reporter called upon Judge Rice, who in the following words related the history of the causes that led to his retirement. "It is just about six years since I had an attack of rheumatism, slight at first, but soon developing into Sciatic rheumatism, which began first with acute shooting pains in the hips, gradually extending downward to my feet.

"My condition became so bad that I eventually lost all power of my legs, and then the liver, kidneys and bladder and in fact, my whole system became deranged. I tried the treatment of many physicians, but receiving no lasting benefit from them, I had recourse to patent remedies, trying one kind after another until I believe there were none I had not sampled.

"In 1888, attended by my son John, I went to Hot Springs, Ark. I was not much benefited by some months stay there when I returned home. My liver was actually dead, and a dull persistent pain in its region kept me on the rack all the time. In 1890 I was reappointed Circuit Judge, but it was impossible for me to give attention to my duties. In 1891, I went to the Silurian Springs, Wakeshaw, Wis. I stayed there some time, but without improvement.

"Again I returned home, this time feeling no hopes of recovery. The muscles of my limbs were now reduced by atrophy to mere strings. Sciatic pains tortured me terribly, but it was the disordered condition of my liver that was, I felt, gradually wearing my life away. Doctors gave me up, all kinds of remedies had been tried without avail, and there was nothing more for me to do but resign myself to fate.

"I lingered on in this condition sustained almost entirely by stimulants until April, 1893. One day John saw an account of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People in the Kentucky Post. This was something new, and as one more drug after so many others could not do so much harm, John prevailed upon me to try the Pink Pills. It was, I think, in the first week in May the pills arrived. I remember I was not expected to live for more than three or four days at the time. The effect of the Pills, however, was marvelous, and I could soon eat heartily, a thing I had not done for years. The liver began almost instantaneously to perform its functions, and has done so ever since. Without doubt the pills saved my life and while I do not crave notoriety I cannot refuse to testify to their worth.

The reporter called upon Mr. Hughes, the Louisa druggist, who informed him that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have been very popular since Judge Rice used them with such benefit. He mentioned several who have found relief in their use.

An analysis of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People shows that they contain, in a condensed form, all the elements necessary to give new life and richness to the blood and restore shattered nerves. They are an unfailing specific for such diseases as locomotor ataxia, partial paralysis, St. Vitus' dance, sciatica, neuralgia, rheumatism, nervous headache, the after effects of a grippe, palpitation of the heart, pale and sallow complexions, all forms of weakness, either in male or female, and all diseases resulting from vitiated humors in the blood. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all dealers, or will be sent post paid on receipt of price, (50 cents a box, or 6 boxes for $2.50—they are never sold in bulk or by the 100) by addressing Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y.

He Was Safe.

"My boy," said a very practical old gentleman, "let politics alone. Never allow yourself to be put in office."

"Yes, father, but know that the office sometimes seeks the man."

"Very true. But you are safe. There isn't one chance in sixty of its finding him if he is a resident of the District of Columbia."

Her Confidence Shaken.

"It is a dreadful thing not to have confidence in one's husband," said Mrs. Swifkins.

"Yes," replied the visitor. "But you surely have no trouble with yours."

"That is all that you could be expected to know about it. I was playing poker with him the other evening and he raised the limit on two deuces, and then got scared and called me. Now, what is to become of a woman who has trusted her future to such a man?"

An Echo from the World's Fair.

The Lake Shore Route has recently gotten out a very handsome litho-water color of the "Exposition Flyer," the famous twenty hour train in service between New York and Chicago during the fair. Among the many wonderful achievements of the Columbian year this train—which was the fastest long distance train ever run—holds a prominent place, and to anyone interested in the subject the picture in stamps or silver sent to C. K. Wilber, West Pass. Agt., Chicago, will secure one.
