An amendment to the general appropriation bill, providing $1,000,000 for the extermination of the Russian thistle or cactus, passed the senate, this week.

THE statement that Senator Allen was recently drunk and distinctly on the warpath in Washington is indignantly denied by the senator, and the story cannot be verified, as a Journal special admits.

IVORY SOAP 99 1/2% PURE FOR CLOTHES. Letteuce and radishes at Knipple's grocery store.

THE tariff bill is tied up. The upper and lower houses cannot agree, and there is a possibility that the measure may not pass at all.

THE Times-Democrat still insists that it wants a congressional candidate with the customary vertebrae as well as with the usual gray matter in his think tank. Well, what's the matter with Andrews. Has the political editor of the Times-Democrat the assurance to claim that Andrews lacks brains or courage?

THE Red Cloud Chief says that "there seems to be no reason why Hon. James McNeny of this city should not receive the nomination next month at Holdrege for congress on the Republican ticket."

There is nothing in the way, Mr. Hosmer, but the deliberate and thoughtful determination of the people of the Fifth district to renominate W. E. Andrews of Hastings. That is all. He deserves it too. However, the future has great things in store for the talented and manly McNeny.

WHERE HEALING WATERS FLOW. Hot Springs, South Dakota, is a place that everyone should visit. It's a health resort; the best in the west. It's a charming place where pure air and healing waters put sickness to flight and make anything but perfect health well-nigh an impossibility. Invalids, no matter what their ailment, should give Hot Springs a trial. It's sure to benefit them, more than likely to cure. How to get there? Why, by the Burlington Route, of course. It's the line. Ask the local agent for full information or write to the undersigned for a beautifully illustrated pamphlet. J. FRANCIS, G. P. & T. A., Omaha, Neb.
