And Monday was pay day. Conductor Frank Kendlen took in the State fair, Thursday.

S. S. Frederick is entertaining his parents from Indianola, this week.—Holbrook News.

Mrs. Max Anton returned, latter part of last week, from her visit to Indiana relatives and friends.

Mrs. Oyster and family and sister arrived home from her visit to a brother in Kansas, last Thursday night.

Mrs. Thomas Crabtree left, Wednesday, to spend a week or two in the mountains for her health and to visit.

Mrs. Edward Ellis left, this week, for Jerome, Iowa, on a visit to her children living there and in that section of Iowa.

Mrs. Amanda Evans arrived in the city, last Thursday night, from Valparaiso, and is the guest of her cousin Mrs. J. E. Robinson.

Conductor and Mrs. S. E. Callen became the parents of a promising 8-pound son, Tuesday, and all parties to the interesting occurrence are doing nicely.

Two hundred and twelve cars of stock have been shipped from Wilsonville this far in 1884, or about 35 cars more than were shipped out during the entire year of 1893.—Review.

G. W. Holdrege of Omaha, F. I. Foss of Crete, C. B. Rogers of San Francisco, J. F. Seymour of Denver, in the general manager's private car, passed through McCook, Sunday morning, for the west on a business trip.

O. M. Potter from Red Cloud, is a new brakeman out of Alliance. Anton Yost, brother-in-law of Section Foreman Yost, at Alger, was injured at that place, and cannot recover. His people at Culbertson have all been notified.—Alliance Grip.

Charles Ball has been transferred to McCook, and is now switching in the yards there. The day job for switchmen here has been done away with, and Frank Clarey, the yardmaster, now has the night job, and Sam Gilcrest has Chas. Ball's old job.—Akron Republican.

The B. & M. have gone into the retrenchment business with a vengeance, and for the first time in over five years this station is without a night man. Mr. VanWye, the last man to hold that position, has been transferred to near Sheridan, Wyoming.—Cambridge Kaileidoscope.

Something like 1300 head of hogs have been shipped out of Palisade so far this week. Last week a special stock train was run out and our dealers are figuring on another special for next week. As we have remarked before, "Palisade do beat the world on live stock."—Palisade Times.

Last Saturday night Dr. Barr had his arms full of babies, while attending Mrs. Wesley Steinman at the Racket Store. First came two girls, and then came a boy, and it looked like a whole family was coming at once, but it stopped with the three. Mr. Steinman works in the car repair shops and is about 50 years of age. Mrs. Steinman is over 40 years old. All parties are reported as doing nicely.—Alliance Grip.

Dispatcher and Mrs. J. E. Robinson arrived home, Thursday night of last week, from Valparaiso, where Mrs. Robinson was summoned to the bedside of her mother, a number of weeks since. Mrs. Robinson's mother died, first of last week. It was the first break in a large and devoted family circle, and the parting was one of unusual sadness. She has the profound sympathy of many friends in our city.

A patent has been granted to Webb W. M. Williams, assigned one-half to A. H. Merchant, for a patent sleeping car and berths. Mr. Williams was formerly chief rate clerk of the Elkhorn and Mr. Merchant is at present the assistant general freight agent of the Elkhorn. The new car will be much lighter than the Pullman or Wagner, while there will be more space. The berths instead of folding up will slide down and the bed will be of rubber and filled with air, hot or cold as the climate warrants. There are numerous other improvements which, it is said by those who have seen the models, will revolutionize the sleeping car.

Jack Moore, a B. & M. engineer with headquarters at McCook, was in town, Thursday, looking for stock hogs. While here he purchased the corn crop belonging to J. W. Pierson and will winter 150 head of cattle on it. . . . Joe Young, the boy operator, who held that position at this place for some months past, departed for his home at Yuma, Colorado, last Saturday night, where he will attend school this winter. His place is being ably filled by C. E. Headley, of Norton, Kansas. . . . J. D. Robertson, a former B. & M. agent at this place, but now a physician of Chicago, dropped in on his many friends last Tuesday evening. He has been absent from Haigler nearly 18 months and during that time he has grown a handsome beard and donned a silk hat, which caused many of his old acquaintances here a great surprise.—Haigler News.

The master mechanics of the whole Burlington system are holding a convention in Hot Springs, South Dakota.

Tom Catt had the misfortune to get in the way of a coal car being pushed up the incline to the coal shutes, Wednesday afternoon, and the doctor had to sew up his head in consequence. Tom was crossing the track apparently unmindful of his surroundings, and sustained a jolt that will keep him laid up for a number of days. He had a rather close call in fact for his life.

The Burlington will soon get out a time card for the new Montana extension. The service will probably consist of a train each way a day between Sheridan and Billings and it has about been decided to run a sleeper. The extension reached Huntley, the Northern Pacific junction, yesterday, and the work is now being nearly completed. The work of constructing the buildings and yards will be commenced immediately.

Miss Anna Jessen, of Nebraska City, formerly of the McCook schools, has been granted a professional state certificate.

CHATTEL MORTGAGE SALE.

Whereas, D. Carpenter, by a certain chattel mortgage note, dated May 1st, 1894, and then there filed in the office of the county clerk of Red Willow county, Nebraska, mortgaged to George J. Burgess, of McCook, Red Willow county, Nebraska, the following described property, to-wit: one Keyes Brothers buggy, one bay mare seven years old; and whereas the mortgage was given to secure the payment of the amount named in said chattel mortgage note, to-wit, the sum of $67.50, and was dated the first day of May, 1894, and payable August 27th, 1894; and whereas the amount claimed to be due on said chattel mortgage note at the date of the first publication of this notice is sixty-nine ($69) dollars and ninety (90) cents. And whereas default has been made in the payment of said chattel mortgage note, now therefore public notice is hereby given, that, in pursuance of said chattel mortgage note, and by virtue of the statutes of Nebraska in such cases made and provided, the undersigned will on Saturday, the 29th day of September, 1894, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon of said day, at the corner of Main and Dennison streets, and in front of the Citizens Bank of McCook, Red Willow county, Nebraska, sell the above described property at public auction to the highest bidder for cash in hand, and will continue said sale from day to day until said chattel mortgage note is satisfied, and all costs and accruing costs. Dated this 7th day of September, 1894.

GEORGE J. BURGESS, By A. J. RITTENHOUSE, his Agent.

SUMMONS BY PUBLICATION.

Adam Fritz, Christina Fritz, John George, Anna George, George H. Grubb, Fanny A. Grubb, Joseph Appenmaier and Mrs. Joseph Appenmaier, defendants, will take notice that Charles P. Dewey and J. D. Deery, plaintiffs, are doing business under the firm name of C. P. & A. B. Dewey, plaintiffs herein, have filed their petition in the district court of Red Willow county, Nebraska, the object and prayer of which are to foreclose a mortgage executed January 12th, 1886, by the defendants, Adam Fritz and Christina Fritz to the plaintiffs, upon the following described real estate, situated in Red Willow county, Nebraska, to-wit: the south half of the northeast quarter and the north half of the southwest quarter of section 18, township 2, range 27, north, in range number two, north, in range number twenty-seven, west of the sixth principal meridian, to secure the payment of their eleven certain promissory notes, one for the sum of $400, due December 24th, 1890, and ten for the sum of $20 each, due respectively June 1st and December 1st, 1886, 1887, 1888, 1889 and 1890, and all drawing interest at the rate of ten per cent after maturity. There is now due on said notes and mortgage the sum of $250, with interest thereon at the rate of ten per cent from October 1st, 1894. The plaintiffs pray for a decree that the defendants be required to pay the same or that said premises be sold to satisfy said amount. You are required to answer said petition on or before Monday, the 15th day of October, 1894, under all conditions. One dose prevents, one bottle cures in three to six days. Send for "Treatise" and testimonials from breeders who have used it for many years. Address the Wells Medicine Co., Lafayette, Ind.
