THIRTEENTH YEAR.

McCOOK, RED WILLOW COUNTY, NEBRASKA, FRIDAY EVENING, NOV. 9, 1894.

NUMBER 25.

The Testimonial Concert.

The testimonial concert to Prof. Reizenstein by the McCook public school orchestra in assembly room, Tuesday evening, was a success artistically as well as financially, and was enjoyed by a good audience and an appreciative one.

The following programme was rendered with quite uniform good effect:

PROGRAMME—PART I.
1. "Harvest Home," Overture. Mercandante. ORCHESTRA.

2. "Maypole Dance," Piano Duet. S. Smith. HATTIE YARGER, LILLIAN TROTH.

4. "Gloria, 12th Mass." Mozart. ORCHESTRA.

5. "Cradle Song," String Quartette. Latann. HALLIE BOMGARDNER, MABEL WILCOX, ELMER KAY, EARL LUDWICK, F. A. PENNELL.

The following are the names of the members of the orchestra, and their respective instruments:

First Violin, Hallie Bomgardner.
Second Violin, Mabel Wilcox.
First Violin, Frank Fitch.
Viola, Elmer Kay.
Violin Cello, Earl Ludwick.
Bass Viol, E. J. Wilcox.
Clarinet, Peter Biever.
Flute, Roy Smith.
First Cornet, Arthur Douglass.
Second Cornet, May Morrow.
First Trombone, Orla LeHew.
Second Trombone, Ray McCarl.
JOS. REIZENSTEIN, Director.

The efforts of Prof. Reizenstein, Mrs. E. T. Waters and Mrs. Frank Brown were especially meritorious.

The work of the orchestra, as well as of all individuals on the programme, was well up to the standard, and everything passed off smoothly, barring slight delays incident to the stirring evening of election day.

We understand that these pleasing entertainments will be continued at proper intervals during the school year.

A Joke on Rosewater.

Last week, every Dane and Norwegian in the vicinity of Quick postoffice, in Frontier county, received a paper printed in Swede. There was no name or heading on the sheet, and no date or ought else to signify its origin. But the sheet contained two of Rosewater's speeches and a few small items of a political sort. But the joke of the whole matter is that there is only one Swede in the whole neighborhood who could read the paper, and its contents were a blank to the Danes and Norwegians who, almost without exception, are unable to read Swedish print.

Here's a Fine Chance

To rent a productive farm on Red Willow Creek, at Box Elder, near fine church and school privileges. $800 worth of produce raised on the 25 acres of bottom land this year. This splendid 80-acre tract will be rented for five years at public auction, December 1st, 1894, commencing at 3 o'clock, at the Box Elder postoffice. Go and examine the land or write A. W. Campbell, Box Elder, Nebraska, for fuller particulars.

For Sale or Rent.

Seven-room house, corner of Madison and Monroe streets, with bath room and water closet. Steel range will be left in the house. Good cellar and large barn. Fruit trees and lawn. As desirable a place as there is in the city. Inquire of FRANK CARRUTH.

Degree of Honor.

There will be a meeting of the Degree of Honor, next Monday night, November 12th. All members are requested to be present, as there will be important business to attend to.

See Mrs. M. E. Barger, the milliner, rear of DeGroff & Co., before making your purchases in that line. She has a nice stock of goods and her prices are very reasonable. Remember her new location, east Dennison street, rear of DeGroff & Co.

Fine and complete line of calling cards at THE TRIBUNE. Also order taken for engraved cards.

Perfumes and toilet powders at L. W. McConnell & Co's.

Boiling meat 3c. per pound at the B. & M. meat market.

Toilet soap, tooth brushes and sponges at McConnell's.

Toilet soap, tooth brushes and sponges at McConnell's.

Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder World's Fair Highest Award.

Of course THE TRIBUNE is a little gay, this week, but the provocation is great.

When it comes to Wolfe hunting, Mr. Howe Smith, one of the funniest, can give you points and win the game.

Messrs. McBrayer & Osborn of the White Line, have dissolved partnership. They will each continue in the dray business on their own hook.

The abstract of the votes cast at the election, Tuesday, appearing on our editorial page, will be found to be substantially correct. Limited time has made a careful comparison impossible.

C. L. DeGroff & Co. sport a large and handsome new sign on the north side of their store building, advertising "Duke's Mixture" and their own business. A representative of the tobacco company painted the same in an artistic manner, the close of last week.

The following letters remain uncalled for at the McCook postoffice, November 4th, 1894. In calling for any of the above please say "advertised." Crowell, Mr. Will; Gay, Mrs. Nettie; Hourigan, Mr. James; Jones, Wm. J.; Ritchie, James C.; Ruhl, L. L. C. H. MEERER, Postmaster.

If THE TRIBUNE is not mistaken there is quite a severe penalty on our statute books against selling tobacco in any form to minors. But the number of school lads, large and small, to be seen every day going to and from school with cigars and cigarettes in their mouths would indicate that the law is not being observed to any alarming extent, as it certainly should be.

Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Beggs had the misfortune to lose their infant son Robert, aged 17 months, last night, from a relapse of cholera infantum. The little one has been ill ever since July, when its life was despaired of from a severe attack of the above malady. The bereaved parents have the deep and tender sympathy of all in their sorrow. The funeral will be held from the residence tomorrow afternoon at two o'clock. Friends are invited.

A very interesting and profitable hour was spent with the Red Willow Christian Endeavorers at their temperance meeting last Sunday afternoon by quite a number of the McCook Endeavorers. The programme was carried out as arranged with the exception of the paper by Howard Finity, who was unable to be present. All who attended will testify to the encouragement given and the uplift experienced by the discussions, and their zeal was stirred to renewed activities against the saloon power.

Office of the McCook Transfer Line, opposite the Burlington depot, McCook, Neb., Nov. 9, 1894. The business of the McCook Transfer Line will be conducted hereafter by me, Mr. Osborn having retired. I take this opportunity to thank its patrons for the liberal patronage of the past and to solicit the continuation of the patronage of all old customers and the business of new ones, with the assurance that strict and prompt attention will be given to all business entrusted to me, and every effort will be put forth to please. J. S. McBRAVER.

Sunny Side Dairy.

You will find all the fruits, berries and vegetables, in season, at Noble's. And they will be the freshest and best the market affords.

Election Day in McCook.

Tuesday's election was without striking or startling incident. There was a surprisingly large vote cast, but everything passed off smoothly and quietly, although every effort was made by the republicans especially to get out every vote, and the result shows an unprecedented majority for the republican ticket: Majors received the highest majority, 277; Rathbun, 270; Andrews, 231; Lamborn, 205; Berry, 92; Keyes, 81.

That a lively and deep interest was felt in the election was manifested in the large crowds that made their headquarters at the city hall and at other points in the city, and there was considerable enthusiasm displayed when the result in the precinct became known.

Well! WELL!! WELL!!!

Excuse us while we vocalize.

As has been stated this is a republican year.

The Czar is dead—but Little Russia still lives.

Majors had votes in McCook to throw at the birds.

McCook's vote was surprisingly large for a dry year.

The country has doubtless been saved by a large majority.

Rathbun's majority is placed safely at 300 for state senator.

Tuesday was a sad sad day for Red Willow county populists.

Politically speaking, Lamborn is somewhat of a hummer himself.

Ree, republican, will represent Furnas county, vice Stevens, populist.

The "little giant of the fifth" made a magnificent race in Red Willow county.

Referring to McCook's republicanism, it's of a very prolific and enthusiastic kind, anyhow.

McBride, populist, carries the representative district formed by Frontier and Gosper counties.

McCook stayed by Messrs. Lamborn and Keyes like a major. That's a winning way we have.

Lamborn run like a frightened hare in McCook, and it much more than made up for the little surprise he received at home.

Andrews has 1,370 majority with three counties to hear from. His official majority will be between ten and twelve hundred.

Cole, republican, is elected in the representative district composed of the counties of Hitchcock, Hayes, Dundy and Chase.

The populists only elected three representatives in Southwestern Nebraska, McBride, Soderman of Phelps and the representative from Harlan county.

Red Willow county went straight republican by fine majorities, save Meserve—whose splendid conduct of the treasurer's office the past few months carried him through by 182 majority.

H. H. Easterday, the ever genial and clever colonel, will assess your diamonds and plate, next spring. The other fellow wasn't in it. He wasn't even on the ticket. And the colonel had everything his own way.

Jake Burnett has, or rather has had, two magpies at his lunch counter at the depot. He only has one bird now. The birds belonged to the republican and democratic faiths respectively. The democratic magpie was a very sensitive bird, according to Jake's account, and when the wires became hot with the lurid accounts of the irresistible republican landslide, Tuesday evening, why that bird deliberately hung itself.

Tuberculosis in cows is epidemic in different parts of Iowa, and as a result several cases of consumption and deaths are reported of persons on account of impure milk. Such is the substance of a circular letter emanating from the state board of health to all of the local representatives in different portions of the state. Precaution is given to prevent the spread. A large number of cattle have already been killed.

Two fine black-tailed deer were purchased by F. S. Wilcox of the B. & M. meat market, Monday. A late invention, brought out in response to an imperative demand, is a trolley chair to run above a race track. In this sit two judges who follow the horses and are thus enabled the better to obtain their movements and keep tab on the race at all points. ## McKeighan Badly Beaten.

One of the surprises of the campaign is the defeat of McKeighan, the democratic-populist of the Fifth district, who has already served two terms, and who in former years was elected by immense majorities. The following table registers the change of the ballots which resulted in the election of W. E. Andrews by a plurality of about 1,000.

Secretary Renner of the Fifth district congressional committee telegraphed the Omaha Bee last evening that Mr. Andrews' plurality on the official count would be about 1,200.—Omaha Bee.

JOHN M. THURSTON.

Thou art not beautiful we know, John M. Thurston.

Thy youth hath lost its rosy glow, Thy locks are touched with time's first snow,

Yet thou art not so awful slow, John M. Thurston.

Thou art what David was of old, John M. Thurston.

And David laid Goliath cold, And left him on the field to mold,

We all have heard that story told, John M. Thurston.

If there were sin in loving thee, John M. Thurston;

Then none in this great state were free From taint of sin nor ought to be,

And when election comes you'll see John M. Thurston.

Just pound away at that same nail, John M. Thurston;

And if we find thou'rt like to fail, Because perchance thy face is pale,

We'll telegraph for Madam Yale, John M. Thurston.

—Isabel Richey in Plattsmouth News.
