Attorney.

This has been a year of wonderful growth for The Lincoln State Journal. Its aggressive methods have pushed it to the front. One thing that accounts for this is The Journal's principles. It is republican, true and blue, but first of all it is a great newspaper and considers news the most essential part. It prints more state telegraph news than either of the Omaha papers. The business interests of the state recognize in The Journal the only the United States, and O. R. Burnham, defendants, will take notice that the American Investment Company, of Emmitsburg, Iowa, state paper which is standing up for the wel-fare of Nebraska. You can see how The Journal is growing in your own town. It is gaining in every other town in the state just as much. The reduced price is only 50 cents per month without Sunday, or 65 cents per month with Sunday. This also accounts for the big growth. The Semi-Weekly Journal has the largest circulation of any Nebraska paper. It has completely routed its old oncea-week rivals. It is being sent from now un-til January 1st, 1896, for $1.00. This carries four, north of range number twenty-eight, west of the 6th P. M., to secure the payment readers through the coming legislature and of the sum of $050, as evidenced by their certhrough the next presidential campaign. It gives readers two complete papers each week and also for the foreclosure of a certain mortfor the price of one. Gov. Furnas is farm editor and I. I. Lyman poultry editor. It is published at the State capital and is a paper for Nebraskans.

ALWAYS A REASON WHY.
