SUMMONS BY PUBLICATION.

Letchia M. Stewart, Letchia M. Stewart as administratrix of the estate of Robert R. Stewart, deceased, James Stewart and Joseph Stewart, defendants, will take notice that George Hocknell as trustee for the McCook Building Association, plaintiff, has filed his petition in the district court of Red Willow county, Nebraska, the object and prayer of which are to foreclose a certain mortgage deed executed December 22, 1892, by the defendant, Letchia M. Stewart, and one Robert R. Stewart, now deceased, to the plaintiff, upon the following described real estate situated in Red Willow county, Nebraska, to-wit: The east half of the northwest quarter and the west half of the northeast quarter of section numbered twenty-two in township numbered three, north of range numbered twenty-nine, west of the sixth principal meridian, to secure the payment of their three certain promissory notes, each for the sum of $500, due respectively on the first day of December, 1893, 1894, 1895. There is now due on said notes and mortgage the sum of $500, with interest thereon at the rate of six per cent. from December 1, 1895, and there will be due therefrom from the said defendants on the first day of December, 1894, the sum of $500, with interest at the rate of six per cent. from December 1, 1893, and on December 1, 1895, $500, with interest thereon at six per cent. from December 1, 1893, and the plaintiff prays that the defendants be required to pay the same, or that said premises be sold to satisfy said amount.

You are required to answer said petition on or before Monday, the 14th day of January, 1895. Dated this 20th day of November, 1894. GEORGE HOCKNELL, as Trustee for the McCook Building Association, Plaintiff. By W. S. MORLAN, his attorney. Dec-7-4ts.

YOU SHOULD GET IT.

Should get what? Why, the Rev. I. L. Hicks' splendid almanac for 1895. He has kindly sent to this office a copy of the same, and we speak advisedly in saying that it is a rare publication—the very latest and best of all that has emanated from the pen and brain and heart of this well-known friend of the public. The history of this man's work—now an open book to all America—and a casual glance at his almanac for 1895, convinces you that this vitally useful and instructive book ought to find its way into every shop, store, office and home in the land. The price of the book—only 25 cents—could not to our knowledge be invested for any one thing more profitably. It contains 84 pages, printed on fine book paper, with elegant covers in colors. It is for sale by all newsdealers. This fine almanac is given as a premium to every yearly subscriber to Rev. I. L. Hicks' well-known and deservedly popular paper, Words and Works. This unique journal is a peerless educator of the masses, and is fast becoming a household guardian and necessity in the homes of America. Those who want to keep up with all the latest thought of the age in science, religion and all social, commercial and intellectual and domestic subjects, should subscribe for Words and Works. Subscription only $1.00 a year. You can send for both to Words and Works Publishing Company, St. Louis, Mo.
