BOX ELDER.

Everybody was hunting during the snow. Mrs. M. E. Piner is slowly recovering from her severe spell of sickness. A great many are wondering where their feed and seed are coming from in the spring. M. E. Piper has commenced his school after a two-week's vacation on account of sickness. Robert Campbell has returned from his prospecting trip well satisfied with Red Willow.

The recent snow and rain will be of great benefit to the fall and winter grain that has been sown.

E. Brown, who has been nursing a very painful hand from being cut on an ax is slowly recovering.

R. E. Moore is having his creek land cleared of the timber and brush preparatory to farming in the spring.

Box Elder Sunday school will give an entertainment instead of a tree, Christmas eve. All are cordially invited to come.

LEBANON.

We had such a snow it stopped our correspondence, last week.

The meetings in Beaver creek school house will close this week.

Meetings have been in progress in Lebanon the last and present week.

The snow is gone but it left a healthy mark on the small grain in this vicinity.
