Mrs. J. E. Sanborn is expected from Chicago, this week.

Miss Grace Sanborn is rusticating on the ranch near Haigler.

Engineer Sanborn moved into the Breanbrack residence, this week.

Conductor and Mrs. S. E. Callen and Bert Beyrer spent the early portion of the week in Lincoln.

Assistant Superintendent Highland was at western division headquarters, Tuesday, on business of the road.

Mrs. James Chambers came down from Sheridan, Wyoming, Saturday evening last, on a visit to McCook relatives.

Roadmaster Josselyn is talked of as a possible assistant superintendent of a Wyoming division of the Burlington.

The Boston chop house has been purchased by E. B. Odell, who has changed its name to Odell's restaurant. Elza has the qualifications for making a popular caterer.

A measure has been introduced into the Kansas legislature prohibiting the issuance of free transportation of any kind, even the exchanging of mileage for advertising.

George F. Rule, who has been storehouse clerk here for the past two years, has accepted the clerkship under Foreman Ritchie at Sheridan, and left for that place on Tuesday evening.

Pneumatic berths and cushions are the coming thing in parlor cars. A patent for such an invention has recently been issued. It will make cars much more sanitary and comfortable.

The railroad men's club now occupy the rooms formerly used as an office by Dr. Spickelmier. This gives the club four rooms facing on South Main street, in the Temple building, and makes them very fine quarters, convenient, roomy, steam heated and electric lighted.

Luman N. Howe, who spent a couple of days here last week, seeing old friends and scenes, departed for Trinidad, Colorado, Friday night. He has not been able to do any work since his terrible injuries received in an accident about two years ago, in which he was terribly scalded.

Word was received here, first of the week, of the shooting of Wm. Knowles at Logansport, Indiana, and his probable fatal injury. The reports indicate an attempt at hold-up. Wm. is a nephew of Mrs. H. H. Berry and formerly acted as a night caller here. Many railroad men will be sorry to hear of his injury.

renew your youth, be on hand, brethren.

Any and all references to the weather bulletins are out of order.

North Divide Events.

The protracted meetings conducted by Rev. Vivian at Box Elder are well attended.

William V. Johnson and family consent no longer to be debarred from the privileges of good society, and have moved back to North Divide and occupy the A. T. King place.

A generous supply of clothing and a few other necessities were donated by the people of Illinois and sent to this precinct. A portion of them were distributed from the house of William X.
Johnson. The precinct is indebted to Mr. Johnson and family for the kind services rendered in this work.

What is the matter with the producer of small ears of corn; does the dry weather effect his crop? Or perhaps he is chewing the end of his lead pencil in secret, and will astonish his readers with several columns of poetry. Our advice is "don't." If you can't raise "nubbins" surely the flowers of poetry won't grow for you.

We ought to say something about the snow, the recent cold weather, the coming of spring, etc., and so carry on, as far as possible, the work of the newspaper in disseminating news. But then some people who do not take THE TRI-BUNE would still be in outer darkness and we will let it go and leave you to find out these facts as best you may.

Though fame may spoil some, such is not the case with our genial friend, Constantine Mundy, who bears his political honors with becoming modesty, and whose smile is as bright, and grasp as fervent as it was before election. We almost envy Box Elder the pleasure of owning Charley as a townsman, but we still take comfort in the thought that the Divide has a place in his generous heart.

How nice it would be if, among other much desired things, we could believe that the time would come when people who are sick or slightly ailing will not be put on the "sick list." If we were suffering from poor health we should strongly object to being put on that mysterious "list," for the writers always leave us in doubt as to its nature.
Where is the "sick list," and who keeps it? How many are on it? what do they do with folks when they get them there, and how long do they stay? Or, at least, if we must have a sick list, why not, for convenience, have a "life" list and a "dead list."

The Hog Cholera.

The following formula of ingredients of a hog cholera cure is suggested by the department of agriculture as most efficacious:

Wood charcoal, pounds, 1 Sulphur, pounds, 1
Sodium chloride, pounds, 2 Sodium bicarbonate, pounds, 2 Sodium hyposulphite, pounds, 2 Sodium sulphate, pounds, 1 Antimony sulphide, pounds, 1

These ingredients should be completely pulverized and thoroughly mixed.
The dose is a large tablespoonful for each 200 pounds of hogs to be treated, and it should be given only once a day.

You can grow fat on those lean hogs' backs at Brewer's meat market.

Best Fancy Patent flour at $1.00 per sack, $1.95 per hundred, at Knipple's.
