

OVER THE STATE.

BOX BUTTE county is without a dollar of indebtedness.

AURORA has a democratic club in active working order.

A NUMBER of rabid dogs have been killed at Ashland and vicinity.

THE sheriff of Gage county is in possession of the American bank at Beatrice.

THE schools at Valley have been closed during the prevalence of scarlet fever.

DAWES county will ask for no aid and does not even have to organize a relief society.

THE Methodists of Haskins have commenced the erection of a church. It will cost about $2,500.

SOME cases of diphtheria have again developed in Hastings. There has been one very sudden death.

GEN. THAYER is giving here and there throughout the state his "Recollections of Grant and Lincoln."

SIX loaves of bread for 10 cents does not longer prevail in Nebraska City. The war has been declared off.

AT Valley Elmer Powers was declared insane by the county board last week and taken to the Norfolk asylum.

NINETY cases are before the present term of the district court of Sappo county seven of them being criminal.

JOHN PEW of Hebron cut from one cottonwood tree on his farm ten cords of stove wood, and yet the tree was not all consumed.

THE Valentine district of county reports a big fall of snow, eleven or twelve inches, making the ground in fine shape for plowing.

THE 10-year-old son of M. Chapman, a farmer living south of Nelson, had both hands blown off by a gun which he didn't know was loaded.

A DISTRICT Young Men's Christian association has been organized with a membership of eighteen. J. D. Forbes of Ponca is the president.

REV. P. SMOLEK of Ferguson Falls, Minn., has located at Wakefield, where he will be the pastor of the Swedish Evangelical Lutheran church.

THE defalcation of ex-Treasurer Rodwell of Union township, Butler county, amounting to $350, has been settled by his bondsmen, and Rodwell has gone to Ohio.

THE interstate encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic will meet at Superior May 15 to determine the place of holding the next interstate reunion.

A. H. SHOEMAKER, a veteran of Broken-Bow, has received notice that his pension has been suspended. He will at once take steps to have it restored.

W. F. CODY offers a reward for the conviction of the party or parties who poisoned a few grey hounds at his ranch. The dogs cost him several thousand dollars.

THE harness that was stolen from A. B. Scott of De Witt February 5, 1895, was found in the north part of town, hid in a manure pile. The thieves are known and will be arrested.

AT Shelby Mrs. Jane Patterson, familiarly known as "Grandma," died at the age of 83. She has resided in Polk county a quarter of a century, leaving a family of respected and prosperous children.

PATRICK is being pretty thoroughly discouraged in Pratt county. The county commissioners are making the line close and nearly everyone applying for county aid must go to the poor house to receive it.

REPORTS were received at Beatrice of the wholesale thefts of harness of all descriptions from farmers a few miles east of that city last week. The thieves were traced to Beatrice, but have not yet been apprehended.

APRIL 1 work will commence on the new opera house at Pierce. The structure will be 44x90 feet, and thirty-two feet in height. The seating capacity will be 800. The call says it is to be the finest opera house in northeastern Nebraska.

ROY MOORE, a boy of 15 years, committed an act of burglary in Harvard by entering the house of Mrs. M. W. Wilcox by opening the door with a false key and ransacking the place and carrying off $13 in money he found on the premises. He is in jail now.

MARK, the 14-year-old son of H. L. Miller of Holdrege, was killed while playing around the Burlington tracks. He attempted to cross the track between two cars, with an engine was attached. His head was cut off and the body dragged some distance.

REUBEN CHURCH of Nebraska City swore out a warrant for the arrest of his son, Renken D. Church, charging him with insanity. Young Church gained some notoriety a year ago by commencing suit against the State university for refusing to grant him a diploma.

MR. AND MRS. WOODS of Papillion were in Fremont last week. Mrs. Woods is the mother of Charles Carleton, who is condemned to hang on the 20th of April, for the murder of August Gotzman, and she is circulating petitions to be presented to the governor, asking that the sentence be commuted to imprisonment.

THE Callaway Central Relief committee has sent out over 3,000 letters to the newspapers of the country containing an appeal for funds with which to purchase seed. The money contributed is to be deposited with the Omaha National bank, and will be received either as a gift or as a loan. In the latter case the committee will undertake to handle it the same as any other loan.

MARY BURNS of Burt county, was pronounced insane and sent to the Norfolk asylum last week. The young lady is a mite, about 20 years of age and well educated, having attended an Omaha school for six or eight years. An inheritance is also due her from a relative in Iowa.

THE police of Beatrice made a raid on a gambling den in the central part of the city and succeeded in capturing a number of well-known citizens of sporting tendencies. The parties were given a mid-night hearing in police court, and were heavily fined and the den broken up and the paraphernalia confiscated.

A GYMNASIUM class is being organized by the management of the Young Men's Christian association at Fremont to enlist the attention of small boys.

WHILE Mr. Miller, an old bachelor farmer living about one mile east of Daykin, was preparing supper, two unknown men called at the door and asked permission to go in and get warm. As soon as they entered they attacked the old man and beat him unmercifully, leaving him unconscious. They then ransacked the place and got about $20.

CLARENCE H. GRAHAM, a printer, lost his right foot while attempting to cross in front of a train of cars on the Burlington in Lincoln. Being in a hurry he crawled between the cars. While so doing, the engine let up the slack and Graham's right foot was caught between the bumpers and so badly crushed that amputation was necessary at the ankle joint.

THE efforts of the directors and stockholders of the North Platte National bank, which has been in the hands of receiver for several months, have proven unsuccessful, so far as concerns reorganizing and reopening the bank. Receiver Doolittle will proceed to close up the affairs of the bank as soon as possible. It is thought that depositors will be paid in full.

OWING to the heaviest pressure of the aid business being over, the local committee at North Loup has made public a regulation that hereafter no aid will be distributed on any days other than Tuesday and Friday, which indicates that the more serious labors of the committee are over for the season, and unless cold weather intervenes it is hoped that the work may hereafter be only nominal.

ELON, the 4-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dobson, was fatally burned at Filley during the temporary absence of the child's mother. Mrs. Dobson was washing clothes and had gone out to hang clothes on the line, when the child's clothing caught fire from the stove. The child's screams brought the mother to her rescue, but she was burned so badly that she died of her injuries.

H. E. FREDERICKSON of Fremont, who won a barrel of prizes in bicycle races last year, has received a letter from George D. Gideon, chairman of the L. A. W. racing board, stating that in protest and charges against him in the race at the Chautauqua grounds last June, in which he was accused of receiving a cash prize, had been withdrawn, which places him in good standing in the L. A. W.

BIBBY'S BOOK, 200 pages of rhyme by the "Driftwood" man on the Lincoln Journal, is before the public and is meeting with encouraging sale. The selections are the poet's choicest gems and cover a wide range of subjects, rendering the book of absorbing interest to all classes of readers. One dollar pays the bill and insures to the person ordering a publication faultless in binding, paper and contents.

PROBABLY the oldest woman in Nebraska, certainly the oldest Indian woman, died at her home on the Omaha reservation last week at the age of 115 years. She was quite a relic of ancient times and was the mother of a noted Ponca chief. She claimed to have known the great explorers, Lewis and Clark, personally. It is positive that she had in her possession pots, urns and cooking utensils that were used by the Indians at least seventy-three years ago.

THE Fremont papers publish a long article by Mr. Oxnard of the Norfolk sugar factory, giving full instructions as to the preparation of the ground for the raising of sugar beets, and the culture of the crop from the seeding to the marketing. It will doubtless be read with great interest in that vicinity, as the farmers and land owners have already contracted to raise several hundred acres of the crop for the Norfolk factory, and others are preparing to join the procession.

MISS MARY BRADLEY, aged 24 years, was found in a comatose condition by the side of a hedge fence by Fred Fisher at Verdon as he was going to church. She was taken to his home and everything done that could be for her recovery, but she died. The coroner's jury, after viewing the place and examining witnesses, rendered a verdict that the deceased came to her death by despondency, exposure and cold by lying on the cold, wet ground all night on the night of March 9, 1895.

IF any further proof was needed that Henry Hueske of this county, says a dispatch, was a victim of the Elkhorn disaster, he recently received a draft from Bremen to the widow for money which he was bringing home with him which would establish the fact. The Lincoln Journal learns that Hueske only put a part of his money in the form of a draft and that quite a large sum was lost with him. The widow received the draft several days ago. The proceeds of it will aid herself and family greatly in their distress.

THE largest and most valuable load of cobs ever sold in Syracuse, says the Syracuse Journal, was brought in last week by Henry McCartney, four miles west of Nebraska City. The load contained 10,500 cobs by actual count, and was sold to the pipe factory. The standard grade requires the cobs to measure one and five-eighths inches in diameter and all but 300 met this requirement. Mr. McCartney realized more for his load of cobs than three ordinary loads of corn would bring in the market even at present prices.

THE Maccabees of Nebraska met in Lincoln last week and elected officers as follows: Past commander, R. J. Coles, York; state commander, W. L. Brown, Lincoln; lieutenant commander, J. E. Fitzgerald, South Omaha; record keeper, M. J. Durkin, Grand Island; finance keeper, A. N. Steele, Aurora; sergeant, J. W. Lewis, Grand Orchard; master-at-arms, J. W. Tanner, Fullerton; sentinel, M. C. Remington, Antelope; picket, Walter Hainey, Grafton. There are seventy tents in the state.

REN. BRAY of the Presbyterian church at Aurora, started east last week. He is chairman for the relief department for the presbytery and his time is very much occupied with that work. His committee has distributed thousands of dollars, mostly in western counties.

NO MORE applications by the farmers of York county for relief in the way of grain for seed and feed will be considered, as the limit has arrived. The number of applications received, as figured up by Relief Agent Smith, are 37, 10,694 corn. If all applications now on hand are accepted, the 205 to the county will not be over $7,000.

NEBRASKA ASSEMBLY.

A RECORD OF PROCEEDINGS IN BOTH HOUSES.

Many Bills Now Being Pushed Through Insurance Matters—The Irrigation Measure—Bills Recommended for Passage—An Appropriation for Unfinished Buildings—The Sugar Beet Industry—Seed for Nebraska's Drouth Stricken—Miscellaneous Matters.

SENATE.—In the senate on the 11th several resolutions against the passage of the bill to permanently locate the state fair at Lincoln, and two or three against the amendment to the oleomargarine bill were read and referred to the committee on mutual insurance companies to charge a policy fee on policies issued, was passed. House roll 10, providing for feed grain surplus pre-empt bond funds left on hand after bonds are paid off, was passed.

SENATE.—In the senate on the 11th several resolutions against the passage of the bill to permanently locate the state fair at Lincoln, and two or three against the amendment to the oleomargarine bill were read and referred to the committee on mutual insurance companies to charge a policy fee on policies issued, was passed. House roll 10, providing for feed grain surplus pre-empt bond funds left on hand after bonds are paid off, was passed.

SENATE.—In the senate on the 11th several resolutions against the passage of the bill to permanently locate the state fair at Lincoln, and two or three against the amendment to the oleomargarine bill were read and referred to the committee on mutual insurance companies to charge a policy fee on policies issued, was passed. House roll 10, providing for feed grain surplus pre-empt bond funds left on hand after bonds are paid off, was passed.

SENATE.—In the senate on the 11th several resolutions against the passage of the bill to permanently locate the state fair at Lincoln, and two or three against the amendment to the oleomargarine bill were read and referred to the committee on mutual insurance companies to charge a policy fee on policies issued, was passed. House roll 10, providing for feed grain surplus pre-empt bond funds left on hand after bonds are paid off, was passed.

SENATE.—In the senate on the 11th several resolutions against the passage of the bill to permanently locate the state fair at Lincoln, and two or three against the amendment to the oleomargarine bill were read and referred to the committee on mutual insurance companies to charge a policy fee on policies issued, was passed. House roll 10, providing for feed grain surplus pre-empt bond funds left on hand after bonds are paid off, was passed.

SENATE.—In the senate on the 11th several resolutions against the passage of the bill to permanently locate the state fair at Lincoln, and two or three against the amendment to the oleomargarine bill were read and referred to the committee on mutual insurance companies to charge a policy fee on policies issued, was passed. House roll 10, providing for feed grain surplus pre-empt bond funds left on hand after bonds are paid off, was passed.

SENATE.—In the senate on the 11th several resolutions against the passage of the bill to permanently locate the state fair at Lincoln, and two or three against the amendment to the oleomargarine bill were read and referred to the committee on mutual insurance companies to charge a policy fee on policies issued, was passed. House roll 10, providing for feed grain surplus pre-empt bond funds left on hand after bonds are paid off, was passed.

SENATE.—In the senate on the 11th several resolutions against the passage of the bill to permanently locate the state fair at Lincoln, and two or three against the amendment to the oleomargarine bill were read and referred to the committee on mutual insurance companies to charge a policy fee on policies issued, was passed. House roll 10, providing for feed grain surplus pre-empt bond funds left on hand after bonds are paid off, was passed.

SENATE.—In the senate on the 11th several resolutions against the passage of the bill to permanently locate the state fair at Lincoln, and two or three against the amendment to the oleomargarine bill were read and referred to the committee on mutual insurance companies to charge a policy fee on policies issued, was passed. House roll 10, providing for feed grain surplus pre-empt bond funds left on hand after bonds are paid off, was passed.

SENATE.—In the senate on the 11th several resolutions against the passage of the bill to permanently locate the state fair at Lincoln, and two or three against the amendment to the oleomargarine bill were read and referred to the committee on mutual insurance companies to charge a policy fee on policies issued, was passed. House roll 10, providing for feed grain surplus pre-empt bond funds left on hand after bonds are paid off, was passed.

SENATE.—In the senate on the 11th several resolutions against the passage of the bill to permanently locate the state fair at Lincoln, and two or three against the amendment to the oleomargarine bill were read and referred to the committee on mutual insurance companies to charge a policy fee on policies issued, was passed. House roll 10, providing for feed grain surplus pre-empt bond funds left on hand after bonds are paid off, was passed.

SENATE.—In the senate on the 11th several resolutions against the passage of the bill to permanently locate the state fair at Lincoln, and two or three against the amendment to the oleomargarine bill were read and referred to the committee on mutual insurance companies to charge a policy fee on policies issued, was passed. House roll 10, providing for feed grain surplus pre-empt bond funds left on hand after bonds are paid off, was passed.

SENATE.—In the senate on the 11th several resolutions against the passage of the bill to permanently locate the state fair at Lincoln, and two or three against the amendment to the oleomargarine bill were read and referred to the committee on mutual insurance companies to charge a policy fee on policies issued, was passed. House roll 10, providing for feed grain surplus pre-empt bond funds left on hand after bonds are paid off, was passed.

SENATE.—In the senate on the 11th several resolutions against the passage of the bill to permanently locate the state fair at Lincoln, and two or three against the amendment to the oleomargarine bill were read and referred to the committee on mutual insurance companies to charge a policy fee on policies issued, was passed. House roll 10, providing for feed grain surplus pre-empt bond funds left on hand after bonds are paid off, was passed.

SENATE.—In the senate on the 11th several resolutions against the passage of the bill to permanently locate the state fair at Lincoln, and two or three against the amendment to the oleomargarine bill were read and referred to the committee on mutual insurance companies to charge a policy fee on policies issued, was passed. House roll 10, providing for feed grain surplus pre-empt bond funds left on hand after bonds are paid off, was passed.

SENATE.—In the senate on the 11th several resolutions against the passage of the bill to permanently locate the state fair at Lincoln, and two or three against the amendment to the oleomargarine bill were read and referred to the committee on mutual insurance companies to charge a policy fee on policies issued, was passed. House roll 10, providing for feed grain surplus pre-empt bond funds left on hand after bonds are paid off, was passed.

SENATE.—In the senate on the 11th several resolutions against the passage of the bill to permanently locate the state fair at Lincoln, and two or three against the amendment to the oleomargarine bill were read and referred to the committee on mutual insurance companies to charge a policy fee on policies issued, was passed. House roll 10, providing for feed grain surplus pre-empt bond funds left on hand after bonds are paid off, was passed.

SENATE.—In the senate on the 11th several resolutions against the passage of the bill to permanently locate the state fair at Lincoln, and two or three against the amendment to the oleomargarine bill were read and referred to the committee on mutual insurance companies to charge a policy fee on policies issued, was passed. House roll 10, providing for feed grain surplus pre-empt bond funds left on hand after bonds are paid off, was passed.

SENATE.—In the senate on the 11th several resolutions against the passage of the bill to permanently locate the state fair at Lincoln, and two or three against the amendment to the oleomargarine bill were read and referred to the committee on mutual insurance companies to charge a policy fee on policies issued, was passed. House roll 10, providing for feed grain surplus pre-empt bond funds left on hand after bonds are paid off, was passed.

SENATE.—In the senate on the 11th several resolutions against the passage of the bill to permanently locate the state fair at Lincoln, and two or three against the amendment to the oleomargarine bill were read and referred to the committee on mutual insurance companies to charge a policy fee on policies issued, was passed. House roll 10, providing for feed grain surplus pre-empt bond funds left on hand after bonds are paid off, was passed.

SENATE.—In the senate on the 11th several resolutions against the passage of the bill to permanently locate the state fair at Lincoln, and two or three against the amendment to the oleomargarine bill were read and referred to the committee on mutual insurance companies to charge a policy fee on policies issued, was passed. House roll 10, providing for feed grain surplus pre-empt bond funds left on hand after bonds are paid off, was passed.

SENATE.—In the senate on the 11th several resolutions against the passage of the bill to permanently locate the state fair at Lincoln, and two or three against the amendment to the oleomargarine bill were read and referred to the committee on mutual insurance companies to charge a policy fee on policies issued, was passed. House roll 10, providing for feed grain surplus pre-empt bond funds left on hand after bonds are paid off, was passed.

SENATE.—In the senate on the 11th several resolutions against the passage of the bill to permanently locate the state fair at Lincoln, and two or three against the amendment to the oleomargarine bill were read and referred to the committee on mutual insurance companies to charge a policy fee on policies issued, was passed. House roll 10, providing for feed grain surplus pre-empt bond funds left on hand after bonds are paid off, was passed.

SENATE.—In the senate on the 11th several resolutions against the passage of the bill to permanently locate the state fair at Lincoln, and two or three against the amendment to the oleomargarine bill were read and referred to the committee on mutual insurance companies to charge a policy fee on policies issued, was passed. House roll 10, providing for feed grain surplus pre-empt bond funds left on hand after bonds are paid off, was passed.

SENATE.—In the senate on the 11th several resolutions against the passage of the bill to permanently locate the state fair at Lincoln, and two or three against the amendment to the oleomargarine bill were read and referred to the committee on mutual insurance companies to charge a policy fee on policies issued, was passed. House roll 10, providing for feed grain surplus pre-empt bond funds left on hand after bonds are paid off, was passed.

SENATE.—In the senate on the 11th several resolutions against the passage of the bill to permanently locate the state fair at Lincoln, and two or three against the amendment to the oleomargarine bill were read and referred to the committee on mutual insurance companies to charge a policy fee on policies issued, was passed. House roll 10, providing for feed grain surplus pre-empt bond funds left on hand after bonds are paid off, was passed.

SENATE.—In the senate on the 11th several resolutions against the passage of the bill to permanently locate the state fair at Lincoln, and two or three against the amendment to the oleomargarine bill were read and referred to the committee on mutual insurance companies to charge a policy fee on policies issued, was passed. House roll 10, providing for feed grain surplus pre-empt bond funds left on hand after bonds are paid off, was passed.

SENATE.—In the senate on the 11th several resolutions against the passage of the bill to permanently locate the state fair at Lincoln, and two or three against the amendment to the oleomargarine bill were read and referred to the committee on mutual insurance companies to charge a policy fee on policies issued, was passed. House roll 10, providing for feed grain surplus pre-empt bond funds left on hand after bonds are paid off, was passed.

SENATE.—In the senate on the 11th several resolutions against the passage of the bill to permanently locate the state fair at Lincoln, and two or three against the amendment to the oleomargarine bill were read and referred to the committee on mutual insurance companies to charge a policy fee on policies issued, was passed. House roll 10, providing for feed grain surplus pre-empt bond funds left on hand after bonds are paid off, was passed.

SENATE.—In the senate on the 11th several resolutions against the passage of the bill to permanently locate the state fair at Lincoln, and two or three against the amendment to the oleomargarine bill were read and referred to the committee on mutual insurance companies to charge a policy fee on policies issued, was passed. House roll 10, providing for feed grain surplus pre-empt bond funds left on hand after bonds are paid off, was passed.

SENATE.—In the senate on the 11th several resolutions against the passage of the bill to permanently locate the state fair at Lincoln, and two or three against the amendment to the oleomargarine bill were read and referred to the committee on mutual insurance companies to charge a policy fee on policies issued, was passed. House roll 10, providing for feed grain surplus pre-empt bond funds left on hand after bonds are paid off, was passed.

SENATE.—In the senate on the 11th several resolutions against the passage of the bill to permanently locate the state fair at Lincoln, and two or three against the amendment to the oleomargarine bill were read and referred to the committee on mutual insurance companies to charge a policy fee on policies issued, was passed. House roll 10, providing for feed grain surplus pre-empt bond funds left on hand after bonds are paid off, was passed.

SENATE.—In the senate on the 11th several resolutions against the passage of the bill to permanently locate the state fair at Lincoln, and two or three against the amendment to the oleomargarine bill were read and referred to the committee on mutual insurance companies to charge a policy fee on policies issued, was passed. House roll 10, providing for feed grain surplus pre-empt bond funds left on hand after bonds are paid off, was passed.

SENATE.—In the senate on the 11th several resolutions against the passage of the bill to permanently locate the state fair at Lincoln, and two or three against the amendment to the oleomargarine bill were read and referred to the committee on mutual insurance companies to charge a policy fee on policies issued, was passed. House roll 10, providing for feed grain surplus pre-empt bond funds left on hand after bonds are paid off, was passed.

SENATE.—In the senate on the 11th several resolutions against the passage of the bill to permanently locate the state fair at Lincoln, and two or three against the amendment to the oleomargarine bill were read and referred to the committee on mutual insurance companies to charge a policy fee on policies issued, was passed. House roll 10, providing for feed grain surplus pre-empt bond funds left on hand after bonds are paid off, was passed.

SENATE.—In the senate on the 11th several resolutions against the passage of the bill to permanently locate the state fair at Lincoln, and two or three against the amendment to the oleomargarine bill were read and referred to the committee on mutual insurance companies to charge a policy fee on policies issued, was passed. House roll 10, providing for feed grain surplus pre-empt bond funds left on hand after bonds are paid off, was passed.

SENATE.—In the senate on the 11th several resolutions against the passage of the bill to permanently locate the state fair at Lincoln, and two or three against the amendment to the oleomargarine bill were read and referred to the committee on mutual insurance companies to charge a policy fee on policies issued, was passed. House roll 10, providing for feed grain surplus pre-empt bond funds left on hand after bonds are paid off, was passed.

SENATE.—In the senate on the 11th several resolutions against the passage of the bill to permanently locate the state fair at Lincoln, and two or three against the amendment to the oleomargarine bill were read and referred to the committee on mutual insurance companies to charge a policy fee on policies issued, was passed. House roll 10, providing for feed grain surplus pre-empt bond funds left on hand after bonds are paid off, was passed.

SENATE.—In the senate on the 11th several resolutions against the passage of the bill to permanently locate the state fair at Lincoln, and two or three against the amendment to the oleomargarine bill were read and referred to the committee on mutual insurance companies to charge a policy fee on policies issued, was passed. House roll 10, providing for feed grain surplus pre-empt bond funds left on hand after bonds are paid off, was passed.

SENATE.—In the senate on the 11th several resolutions against the passage of the bill to permanently locate the state fair at Lincoln, and two or three against the amendment to the oleomargarine bill were read and referred to the committee on mutual insurance companies to charge a policy fee on policies issued, was passed. House roll 10, providing for feed grain surplus pre-empt bond funds left on hand after bonds are paid off, was passed.

SENATE.—In the senate on the 11th several resolutions against the passage of the bill to permanently locate the state fair at Lincoln, and two or three against the amendment to the oleomargarine bill were read and referred to the committee on mutual insurance companies to charge a policy fee on policies issued, was passed. House roll 10, providing for feed grain surplus pre-empt bond funds left on hand after bonds are paid off, was passed.

SENATE.—In the senate on the 11th several resolutions against the passage of the bill to permanently locate the state fair at Lincoln, and two or three against the amendment to the oleomargarine bill were read and referred to the committee on mutual insurance companies to charge a policy fee on policies issued, was passed. House roll 10, providing for feed grain surplus pre-empt bond funds left on hand after bonds are paid off, was passed.

SENATE.—In the senate on the 11th several resolutions against the passage of the bill to permanently locate the state fair at Lincoln, and two or three against the amendment to the oleomargarine bill were read and referred to the committee on mutual insurance companies to charge a policy fee on policies issued, was passed. House roll 10, providing for feed grain surplus pre-empt bond funds left on hand after bonds are paid off, was passed.

SENATE.—In the senate on the 11th several resolutions against the passage of the bill to permanently locate the state fair at Lincoln, and two or three against the amendment to the oleomargarine bill were read and referred to the committee on mutual insurance companies to charge a policy fee on policies issued, was passed. House roll 10, providing for feed grain surplus pre-empt bond funds left on hand after bonds are paid off, was passed.

SENATE.—In the senate on the 11th several resolutions against the passage of the bill to permanently locate the state fair at Lincoln, and two or three against the amendment to the oleomargarine bill were read and referred to the committee on mutual insurance companies to charge a policy fee on policies issued, was passed. House roll 10, providing for feed grain surplus pre-empt bond funds left on hand after bonds are paid off, was passed.

SENATE.—In the senate on the 11th several resolutions against the passage of the bill to permanently locate the state fair at Lincoln, and two or three against the amendment to the oleomargarine bill were read and referred to the committee on mutual insurance companies to charge a policy fee on policies issued, was passed. House roll 10, providing for feed grain surplus pre-empt bond funds left on hand after bonds are paid off, was passed.

SENATE.—In the senate on the 11th several resolutions against the passage of the bill to permanently locate the state fair at Lincoln, and two or three against the amendment to the oleomargarine bill were read and referred to the committee on mutual insurance companies to charge a policy fee on policies issued, was passed. House roll 10, providing for feed grain surplus pre-empt bond funds left on hand after bonds are paid off, was passed.

SENATE.—In the senate on the 11th several resolutions against the passage of the bill to permanently locate the state fair at Lincoln, and two or three against the amendment to the oleomargarine bill were read and referred to the committee on mutual insurance companies to charge a policy fee on policies issued, was passed. House roll 10, providing for feed grain surplus pre-empt bond funds left on hand after bonds are paid off, was passed.

SENATE.—In the senate on the 11th several resolutions against the passage of the bill to permanently locate the state fair at Lincoln, and two or three against the amendment to the oleomargarine bill were read and referred to the committee on mutual insurance companies to charge a policy fee on policies issued, was passed. House roll 10, providing for feed grain surplus pre-empt bond funds left on hand after bonds are paid off, was passed.

SENATE.—In the senate on the 11th several resolutions against the passage of the bill to permanently locate the state fair at Lincoln, and two or three against the amendment to the oleomargarine bill were read and referred to the committee on mutual insurance companies to charge a policy fee on policies issued, was passed. House roll 10, providing for feed grain surplus pre-empt bond funds left on hand after bonds are paid off, was passed.

SENATE.—In the senate on the 11th several resolutions against the passage of the bill to permanently locate the state fair at Lincoln, and two or three against the amendment to the oleomargarine bill were read and referred to the committee on mutual insurance companies to charge a policy fee on policies issued, was passed. House roll 10, providing for feed grain surplus pre-empt bond funds left on hand after bonds are paid off, was passed.

SENATE.—In the senate on the 11th several resolutions against the passage of the bill to permanently locate the state fair at Lincoln, and two or three against the amendment to the oleomargarine bill were read and referred to the committee on mutual insurance companies to charge a policy fee on policies issued, was passed. House roll 10, providing for feed grain surplus pre-empt bond funds left on hand after bonds are paid off, was passed.

SENATE.—In the senate on the 11th several resolutions against the passage of the bill to permanently locate the state fair at Lincoln, and two or three against the amendment to the oleomargarine bill were read and referred to the committee on mutual insurance companies to charge a policy fee on policies issued, was passed. House roll 10, providing for feed grain surplus pre-empt bond funds left on hand after bonds are paid off, was passed.

SENATE.—In the senate on the 11th several resolutions against the passage of the bill to permanently locate the state fair at Lincoln, and two or three against the amendment to the oleomargarine bill were read and referred to the committee on mutual insurance companies to charge a policy fee on policies issued, was passed. House roll 10, providing for feed grain surplus pre-empt bond funds left on hand after bonds are paid off, was passed.

SENATE.—In the senate on the 11th several resolutions against the passage of the bill to permanently locate the state fair at Lincoln, and two or three against the amendment to the oleomargarine bill were read and referred to the committee on mutual insurance companies to charge a policy fee on policies issued, was passed. House roll 10, providing for feed grain surplus pre-empt bond funds left on hand after bonds are paid off, was passed.

SENATE.—In the senate on the 11th several resolutions against the passage of the bill to permanently locate the state fair at Lincoln, and two or three against the amendment to the oleomargarine bill were read and referred to the committee on mutual insurance companies to charge a policy fee on policies issued, was passed. House roll 10, providing for feed grain surplus pre-empt bond funds left on hand after bonds are paid off, was passed.

Under the rule of the senate it requires a two-thirds majority to take a bill from its place on general file and advance it to the assembly.

Under the rule of the senate it requires a two-thirds majority to take a bill from its place on general file and advance it to the assembly. The bill repealing the value policy insurance law, the matter recommended by the committee on mutual insurance companies to charge a policy fee on policies issued, was passed. House roll 10, providing for feed grain surplus pre-empt bond funds left on hand after bonds are paid off, was passed.

Under the rule of the senate it requires a two-thirds majority to take a bill from its place on general file and advance it to the assembly. The bill repealing the value policy insurance law, the matter recommended by the committee on mutual insurance companies to charge a policy fee on policies issued, was passed. House roll 10, providing for feed grain surplus pre-empt bond funds left on hand after bonds are paid off, was passed.

Under the rule of the senate it requires a two-thirds majority to take a bill from its place on general file and advance it to the assembly. The bill repealing the value policy insurance law, the matter recommended by the committee on mutual insurance companies to charge a policy fee on policies issued, was passed. House roll 10, providing for feed grain surplus pre-empt bond funds left on hand after bonds are paid off, was passed.

Under the rule of the senate it requires a two-thirds majority to take a bill from its place on general file and advance it to the assembly. The bill repealing the value policy insurance law, the matter recommended by the committee on mutual insurance companies to charge a policy fee on policies issued, was passed. House roll 10, providing for feed grain surplus pre-empt bond funds left on hand after bonds are paid off, was passed.

Under the rule of the senate it requires a two-thirds majority to take a bill from its place on general file and advance it to the assembly. The bill repealing the value policy insurance law, the matter recommended by the committee on mutual insurance companies to charge a policy fee on policies issued, was passed. House roll 10, providing for feed grain surplus pre-empt bond funds left on hand after bonds are paid off, was passed.

Under the rule of the senate it requires a two-thirds majority to take a bill from its place on general file and advance it to the assembly. The