Returning Thanks.

Here is a story of a colonel who was much addicted to traveling and who once reached home when the house was He is trampling out the vintage where the full of his son's guests and stayed to dinner. One of the company, a notori- He has loosed the fateful lightning of his ter ous drawer of the long bow, told a story of his being off the Cape of Good Hope in an Indiaman, when a floating I have seen him in the watchfires of a hundred object was discovered which proved to be a cask, whereon a mau was seated clinging to a small staff in the bunghole.

"Come on board," retorted the ocean waif when hailed. "No, thank you. I'm very comfortable here. I am bound for the cape. Can I take letters there for you? Don't bother about me. I'm all right."

Then, amid the silence which followed this incredible yarn, Colonel G. arose and gravely addressed the narrator.

"Sir." he said. "for years I have been trying to find any one belonging to that ship to return thanks for the great courtesy shown me on that occasion. At last I am enabled to do so, sir. I was the man on the cask."-Tid-Bits.

SERVED IN TWO WARS.

THE GRIP ALMOST WON WHERE THE BULLET FAILED.

Our Sympathies Always Enlisted in the Infirmities of the Veteran.

From Woodstock, Va., Herald. There is an old soldier in Woodstock. Va., who served in the war with Mexico and in the war of the rebellion. Mr. Levi McInturff. He passed through both these wars without a serious wound. The hardships, however, told seriously on him, for when the grip attacked him four years ago it nearly killed him. Who can look on the infirmitles of a veteran without a feeling of the deepest sympathy? His townspeople saw him confined to his house so prostrated with great nervousness that he could not hold a knife and fork at the table, scarcely able to walk too, and as he attempted it, he often stumbled and fell. They saw him treated by the best talent to be hadbut still he suffered on for four years, and gave up finally in despair. One day, however, he was struck by the account of a cure which had been effected by the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. He immediately ordered a box and commenced taking them. He says he was greatly relieved within three days time. The blood found its way to his fingers and his hands which had been palsied assumed a natural color, and he was soon enabled to use his knife and fork at the table. He has recovered his strength to such an extent that he is able to chop wood, shock corn and do his regular work about his home. He now says he can not only walk to Woodstock, but can walk across the mountains. He is able to lift a fifty-two pound weight with one hand and says he does not know what Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have done for others, but knows that they have done a great work for him. He was in town last Monday, court day, and was loud in his praises of the medicine that had given him so great relief. Mr. McInturf is willing to make affidavit to these facts.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills were used for many years by an eminent practitioner who produced the most wonderful results with them, curing all forms of weakness arising from watery blood or shattered nerves, two causes of almost every in to which flesh is heir. The pills are also a specific for the troubles peculiar to females, such as suppressions, all forms of weakness, chronic constipation, bearing down pains, etc., and in the case of men will gire speedy relief and effect a permanent cure in all cases arising from mental worry, overwork, or excesses of whatever nature. They are entirely harmless and can be given to weak and sickly children with the greatest good. Pink Pills are sold by all dealers, or will be sent post paid on receipt of price, (50 cents a box, or six boxes for $2.50—by addressing Dr. Williams' Medicine Company, Schenectady, N. Y.

Wealth With a J.

The St. Louis Republic asks: "Is the homely little crooked letter 'J' really a mascot, or is it only a coincidence that it is to be found in the given or Christian names of so many millionaires? The recent death of 'J.' G. Fair has suggested the following compilation of millionaires' names which contain the luck bestowing letter: J. D. Rockefeller, J. J. Astor, Jay Gould, John M. Sears, J. S. Morgan, J. P. Morgan, J. B. Haggin, J. W. Garret, J. G. Fair, John Wanamaker, J. W. Mackay, J. G. Flood, J. M. Constable, John T. Martin and John Arbuckle. None of the above is rated at less than $10,000,000, and several at from six to ten times that

One of the First Printed Bibles.

If I have not been misled by printed statements, the only perfect copy of the Mazarian or Gutenberg Bible in this country is in Lenox Library, in New York City. It is the first book ever printed with movable types, and cost the trustees of that institution $25,000. Brayton Ives, also of New York City, owns an imperfect copy of the same edition, for which he paid the sum of $15,000.

Winter Tourist Tickets Via the Wabash Railroad

Are now on sale to all the winter resorts of the South, good returning until June 1st, Also Harvest Excursion Tickets to all points south on excursion dates. In addition to above. Railroad and Steamship tickets to all points in the UNITED STATES and EUROPE, at lowest rates. For rates, tickets, excursion dates and full information or a copy of the Home Seekers Guide, call at Watash Office, 1502 Farnam street,

G. N. CLAYTON, N. W. P. Agt, Omaha. Neb.

Getting It Mixed.

"When I came down here because I couldn't stand the climate up north,' said the North Dakota man who was shivering in a Georgia winter resort, "I seem to have jumped out of the frying pan into the-er-into the icebox." -Chicago Tribune.

To Teachers and Others.

For the meeting of the National Educational Association at Denver, Colo., in July, next, the Western trunk lines have named a rate of one standard fare, plus two dollars for the round trip. Variable routes will be permitted. Special side trips at reduced rates will be arranged for from Denver to all principal points of interest throughout Colorade, and those desiring to extend the trip to California, Oregon and Washington, will be accommodated at satisfactory rates. Teachers and others that desire, or intend attending this meeting or of making a western trip this summer, will find this their opportunity. The Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railway (first-class in every respect) will run through cars Chicago to Denver. For full particulars write to or call on Geo. H. Heafford, General Passenger and Ticket Agent, Chicago, Ill.

REPUBLIC BATTLE HYMN.

Mine eyes have seen the glory of the comin of the Lord grapes of wrath are stored:

rible swift sword His truth goes marchin; on.

circling camps: They have builded him an altar in the evening dews and damps I can read his righteous sentence by the dim and flaring lamps:

His day is marchin; on. I have read a flery gospel, writ in burni med rows of steel

'As ye deal with my contemners, so with you my grace shall deal; Let the hero, born of woman, crush the ser pent with his heel.

He has sounded forth the trumpet that shall never call retreat He is siftin out the hearts of men before his judgment seat:

Since God is marching on "

Oh, be swift, my soul, to answer Him! Be jubilant my feet! Our God is marching on

In the beauty of the lilles Christ was born across the sea. With a glory in his bosom that transfigures you and me: As He died to make men holy, let us die to make men free, While God is marchin; on

Lady Latimer's Escape. BY CHARLOTTS M. BRAEME.

CHAPTER IV-CONTINUED. life when I was a child, was to live somewhere near a river, or great tioned it to me- "my home was in as from a young one. the Midlands, the green heart of the I love in this world more than another it is that—the sound of falling water. | had uttered them. I think it is the sweetest and most musical of all sounds." We stood side for a few minutes. by side for some minutes watching the not make it out. There are times and again, I wonder that people care to live. Do you know what has occurred to me this morning?" "No," I answered, for I could not her beautiful face to mine. "Audrey,"

follow her thoughts. "I am quite sure," she continued, what is it? It is the want of it, the | wants and desires." desire of it, the longing for it that op- "It is sad," I answered. "But, to blame. My aunt thought that I presses me."

I knew what the thing she missed in not say so to her.

"It seems to me," she continued, thing which I miss."

And I knew that was true. The birds loved one another, and were give." happy in their leafy nests, and the trees loved the flowers, but the butterflies loved the sweet white lilies, in whose deep white cups they lingered.

had money, rank, title; she was misshe had dresses and costly laces, and one who does not." everything a woman's heart could and without it life is like the Dead sea fruit, fair without and bitter within. found it to be so.

The birds sang to one another, the sixty?

CHAPTER V.

her husband; she never omitted any am the daughter of a ruined gentleman habitat of the most diminutive species of the duties he expected from her; farmer. Would you have guessed of variety of the genus bos now she answered his letters; she saw that | that?" all his papers were cut and prepared for him to read; she was solicitous if | word ruin to be connected with you in | tian cattle seldom exceed 200 pounds, he seemed ill; she seldom retorted if any way," I answered. he was impatient or angry, which happened very frequently; but she never used any loving words to him, and would sooner have thought of flying | bless him!-was considered a rich man. | taller than a merino sheep. The than of kissing him. They were not He rented a large farm called Fern- dwarf cattle are nearly all of the same even on such affectionate terms as hills, and his landlord was my husband, color-reddish mouse color, marked father and daughter, or uncle and Lord Latimer. niece, and I soon saw that it was want have been blithe and gay.

ried and very much in love with each | in it. saw even the color of her face change on visiting terms with all the ladies tracks.

her life.

and I both heard him.

away together. kisses you, and cannot live without had every comfort during my whole you. How beautiful!"

"All husbands love their wives, do have given my life to have saved him, they not?" I asked, secure in my su- but I was powerless. perior knowledge.

"No. Mine does not love me," she answered, quickly.

"I do not agree with you," I said. or he would not have married you-he | rents paid; but my poor father was did not marry you for money; it must | beyond that, he was so greatly in have been for love."

that kind. He has given me diamonds there was a grand meeting of all the and pearls enough for a queen, but he tenantry. There were plenty of loving words to me. I do not know was lauded to the skies. But my that I should be pleased father came from it pale and tremif he did. I do not bling; he would have tosell all that he "How fair it is!" she said. Do you believe that Lord Felton ever forgest had in the world, and then leave Fernknow, Audrey, the one dream of my his wife for one moment; he is like her hills. He said little, but he wore the shadow."

I answered that it was impossible to me that on the day following, Lord fountain or the sea. My home-" it expect from an old man like Lord Lat- Latimer was coming himself to look was the first time she had ever men- imer the same attention and devotion over Fernhills.

land, and I longed to live near water Lord Felton does," I added, "it would with me. He was pleased to tell my all my life. If there is one thing that be as absurd as Cupid wearing a wig."

falling spray. Suddenly she raised should have been much happier with a by the floods, and to restock the farm. young husband-one who would have That was the price paid for me, and she said, "is life worth living? I can laughed, and talked, and sung with when I come to think of it, it was me, who would have given me flowers | much like selling me. when it seems to me full of interest; and kissed me. Do you not think so?" "Yes," I answered, most decidedly; at it in that light. They thought such

"I know it is. It is very sad, after could be a possibility of my refusing. all," she continued, dreamily, "to I do not know that I thought so myhave a husband so old and tired of life | self. I do not remember that I made "that I have missed something in my that he has forgotten all about love the least effort to save myself. I was life. I cannot tell what it is. I have and forgotten what it is like to be blind; one thought only filled my missed something that others have; young, and forgotten what youth mind, and it was that I should save

Lady Latimer, did you marry for love?" her life was. It was love-but I did | that it was not possible. She looked | believed that the very powers of at me with the utmost surprise.

"that even the birds and the flowers, do not know that the word love was visit to Hillside had been a very forand the butterflies have this some- mentioned over my marriage at all." "Then," I said, "you should not expect to receive that which you do not

> She thought over the words for a few minutes, then she said:

must not think that I am complaining. | me the height of human happiness. I That was the secret of what was I have not thought much about the had not reached the knowledge then amiss in her life-it lacked love. She matter, but since I have known Lord that I have now-that love is the Felton I have thought to myself how crown of life, and that no life is com- Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. For the tress of one of the finest mansions in very much better it is to have a young plete without it. England; she had jewels fit for a queen; husband who loves you, than an old

And I knew in my heart it was a wish or desire; but she had not love great pity that she had found that out. wiser, who knew more of life than I my marriage to any one," she said; have told me that I could not live and the time had come when she had "but I must tell you, Audrey; then without love. We were married quime!-I begin to understand what it is | -Lord Latimer would not have any butterflies kissed the sweet roses, the that I have missed in life. I have fuss—and directly the ceremony was bees clung to the sweet honey-flowers; missed that which Lady Felton has over we went away to the continent. but she, in the springtide of her youth found. I will tell you all about my We stayed there for a year and a half, and beauty, had cut herself adrift marriage, Audrey," she continued. I then came home here to Lorton's Cray, from love; for how could smiling May was a stranger here, and I came and here I am, just beginning to unlove grim December, and how could among you as Lady Latimer, of Lor- derstand the mysteries, the wants, the sweet eighteen love grim and somber | ton's Cray. No one knows who I am | wishes and the pains of human life." or anything about me; most people suppose that I belong to some great family. My dear Audrey, I am a nat-Lady Latimer was very attentive to ural product of these troubled times, I

She laughed. "It is true," she continued. "When I was a little girl, my father-Heaven

of interest in her life-want of love- small gold mine, when the fields were and their horns are of exceptional that made her sad and thoughtful, filled with golden grain, and the length. tired and wearied, when she ought to cattle were the finest in the county, when everything prospered, and my It so happened that among father was reckoned a rich man. He the guests staying that July at hunted and rode; he joined in all the Lorton's Cray were Lord and Lady sports; he was considered one of the Felton, two young people lately mar- most generous and hospitable men other still. Lord Felton was deeply .. My mother died when I was very in love with his pretty wife; and it little, and my father's sister, Rose was pleasant to see his devotion to Clifford, kept house for us. Fernhills her, and her smiling, blushing ac- was a large, old-fashioned, comfortceptance of it. I saw that Lady Lati- able house. We lived well; my father mer watched these two incessantly; I gave good dinners; my aunt Rose was when Lord Felton took his wife for a in the neighborhood. We had a moonlight stroll, when he brought her pretty little carriage and ponies. flowers, when he spoke to her in a You know what kind of a home it den. Isle of Man, holds morning sercaressing tone of voice, when he was, Audrey-no luxuries, no magnifi- vice in the churchyard instead of the looked at her as though he thought cence, but the ideal of warmth, com- church. The beautiful scenery, with her the loveliest woman in the world; fort, and hospitality. Lord Latimer the foreground of tombstones and Ely's Cream Balm dropping then Lady Latimer would grew pale was our landlord; he owns almost euriously carved Runic crosses and and sigh, and the shadow of great half the county of Daleshire. He has the brilliant dresses of the visitors and hearing have greatly weariness would come over her face, a large mansion there, called Hillside who drive over from Douglas make a Att'y at Law, Monmouth III. and the shadow in her eyes would Towers, but he seldom or never goes picturesque spectacle and attract tell that something was missing in there. He owns hundreds of acres of many worshipers who would otherland, and it is all let out in farms. One morning-a lovely July morn- Our farm. Fernhills, was by far the ing-when to live and to breathe was largest and best, and my father was a luxury in itself, the whole party had on his way to moderate fortune, when gone out together to look at some all at once the bad seasons began. wonderful Gloire de Dijon roses; they The floods came down and the were roses brought to the very highest | meadows were flooded with water, the point of perfection. I remember the crops failed, the cattle died of disease. on yer own responsibility or on the regroups round the tree discussing them. All my father's savings had to be sponsibility of yer mistress?" and I Lord Felton gathered one and gave it spent, and when they were gone he said on my mistress, for sure it's fell into debt. The rent of the farm not me wud be doing anything on my "The sweetest rose to the sweetest was enormous, and the time came own responsibility."

wife," he whispered; but Lady Latimer | when he was called upon to pay it, with all arrears. Of course he could I saw how suddenly she grew serious not comply. Bare, black, utter ruin and lost her smiles, and stood for some stared him in the face. He was in minutes in thoughtful silence, then despair; there seemed to be no help, drew my arm in hers, and we walked no hope; everything must be sold, the dear old home broken up, and "Audrey," she said, "what a strange | the world begun afresh-not a thing it must be for a husband to be very bright prospect. I could not in love with his wife like Lord Felton | tell you my father's grief. In those is! How strange, but how beautiful! few days he grew thin and pale, the Fancy living always with some one very ghost of his old kindly, genial who loves you so well, who cares self. It was pitiful to hear him. 'I whether you are tired or not, whether am a ruined man,' he would say to you are happy or not, whether you me. It is the forces of heaven and are too cold or too warm, with some not of earth that are arraved against one who gives you sweet words and me. It is the rain from the skies, the sweet flowers, who praises you, and floods, the epidemics. I, who have life long-I am ruined now.' I would

"Then a rumor spread in the country that Lord Latimer was coming to Hillside, and that he would be very generous to his tenants, and would "Your husband must have loved you, return so much percentage of the arrears. The end of it was, Lord "But he never does anything of Latimer came to Hillside Towers, and never gave me a rose or whispered speeches and cheers; Lord Latimer look of a heartbroken man. He told

"Audrey, what happened was this: "If Lord Latimer were to behave as | Lord Latimer came and fell in love father that I was the loveliest girl he I repented the words the moment I had ever seen in his life, and that if I would be his wife, my father should She smiled then, but she stood silent | not only have Fernhills for his life, but he would give him sufficient "Audrey," she said, suddenly, "I capital to repair all the damage done

"Neither my father nor aunt looked but it is too late now to think of a piece of fortune perfectly magical; they never seemed to think there my father. You see, there is no one was the happiest and most fortunate I knew before I asked the question | girl in the world; my father almost heaven had interfered to save him "I?" she said. "Oh, no, Audrey, I from ruin; Lord Latimer said that his tunate thing for him. There was no one to save me, and I had not the sense to save myself. I had been so happy in my simple home life that I had never thought or troubled about lovers or marriage; to live always at "No, you are right, Audrey; but you Fernhills with my father, seemed to

"I know that Audrey, now; I did not then. I make no complaint, but I think the three who were older and "I had never intended to speak of did, might have warned me, might you will understand; for I begin-ah, etly enough in the church at Hillside

TO BE CONTINUED.

The Pigmy Cattle of Samoa. The Samoan islands are the natural known to the naturalist. The average "I should never have guessed the weight of the males of these lilliputhe average being not greater than 150 pounds. The females usually average about 100 pounds larger, are very "stocky" built, seldom being with white. They have very large "Time was when Fernhills was a heads as compared with their bodies,

A City Horse Scared to Death.

A dealer in horses recently took to Clyde, N. Y., a lot of horses that had been in use on a New York street railroad. E. H. Cady purchased one. He was driving it home when a traction engine, which horses native to Clyde do not notice any more than they would a sheep, met them in the road. The city horse stopped, looked wildly at the strange thing for a moment, gave a shudder and fell dead in its

In the First Church. In summer the vicar of Kirk Bradwise not go to church.

A Servant Who Knew Her Place. "Did you tell her I was out?"

"Yes'm." "What did she say?" "She sez, sez she, 'Do you say that Highest of all in Leavening Power.-Latest U.S. Gov't Report

ABSOLUTELY PURE

Widows of the Revolutionary War. On June 30, 1894, the date of the last eport of the Commissioner of Pensions, soldiers of the American Revolution on the soldiers of the great War of Independence, together with their ages and postoffice address, is given in the annexed table:

Residence. Name and Age. Mary Brown, 89.... Nancy Cloud, 81... .Knoxville, TennChum, Va Esther Damon, 8),... .Jonesboro, Tenn. Newbern, Va. .East Bethel, Vt. Manchester, N Sena Turner, 85..... Mary Snead, 78...... Parksley, Va Nancy Weatherman,..... Lineback, Tenn.

King Lear, Driven Forth Into the cold and rain, had no Hostetter's Stomach Bitters to counteract their effect. But the modern traveler in inclement weather can baffle its hurtful influence with this genial protector. Chills and fever, rheuma-tism, neural la, colds are forestalled by this warming medicinal stimulant and safeguard. Take a wineglassful immediately before and after exposure. Use it, too, for dyspepsia, billousness and constipation.

So Feminine.

Evil is most dangerous when it looks like righteousness. Coe's Cough Balsam Is the oldest and best. It will break up a Cold quick-er than anything else. It is always reliable. Try it.

Defeat to a man of pluck is a stepping tone to something better.

I have found Piso's Cure for Consumption an unfailing medicine.—F. R. Lotz, 1305 Scott St., Covington, Ky., Oct. 1, 1894.

First love your enemy, and you will be First love your enemy, and you will be great to treat him right.

atime, forms, with theated, allow, which cannot be included and is practically vious ad. We talked of the way of all substration of what we redestructible. In our preprince of one wind mills, illustration of what we redestruction of what we redestructi tion an unfailing medicine.—F. R. Lotz, 1305 Scott St., Covington, Ky., Oct. 1, 1894.

"Hanson's Magic Corn Salve." :Warranted to cure or money refunded. Ask your druggist for it. Price 15 cents.

OMEN'S FACES -like flowers, fade and wither with time; the bloom of the rose is only known to the healthy woman's cheeks. The nervous strain caused by the ailments and pains peculiar to the sex, and the labor

and worry of rearing

a family, can often be traced by the lines in the woman's face. Dull eyes, the sallow or wrinkled face and 'feelings of weakness" have their rise in the derangements and irregularities peculiar to women. The functional derangements, painful disorders, and chronic weaknesses of women, can be cured with young girl just entering womanhood, for the mother and those about to become mothers, and later in "the change of life," the "Prescription" is just what they need it aids nature in preparing the system for the change. It's a medicine prescribed for thirty years, in the diseases of women, by Dr. R. V. Pierce, chief consulting physician to the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, at Buffalo, N. Y. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription will cure the chronic inflammation of the lining membranes which cause such exhausting drains upon the system. It cures nervous prostration, sleeplessness, faintness, nervous debility and all disorders arising from derangement of the female organs and functions. Mrs. JENNIE WILLIAMS, of Mohawk. Lane Co., Oregon, writes: "I was sick for over three years with blind dizzy spells, palpitation of the heart, pain in the back and head, and at times would have such a weak tired feeling when I first got up in the morning, and at times nervous The physicians differed as to what my disease was, but none of them did me any good. As soon as I commenced taking Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, I began to get better; could sleep MRS. WILLIAMS. well nights, and that bad, nervous feeling and the pain in my back soon left me. I can walk several miles without getting tired. I took in all three bottles of 'Prescription' and two of 'Discovery.'

ER BAKER & CO. The Largest Manufacturers of PURE, HIGH GRADE COCOAS AND CHOCOLATES On this Continent, have received HIGHEST AWARDS from the great

SOLD BY GROCERS EVERYWHERE. WALTER BAKER & CO. DORCHESTER, MASS.

Catarrh caused hoarseness and difficulty in speaking. I also to a great extent lost hearing. By the use of MANTEVER OF of mucus has ceased, voice

ELY'S CREAM BALM opens and cleanses the Nasal Passages, Allays Pain and Inflammation, Heals the Sores, protects the Membrane from Colds, Re-stores the Senses of Taste and Smell. The Ealm is quickly absorbed and gives relief at once. A particle is applied into each nostril and is agreeable. Price Meaning the property ELY BROTHERS, 56 Warren St., New York

PAY FOR PLEASANT WORK easily secured through an early application for Local Agency to sell the DAVIS CREAM SEPARATORS to Farmers and Dairymen. One style was shown in last number of this journal. Another will soon be pleating out. red out. Meanwhile, write for Handson trated Book Free. DAVIS & RANKIN BLDG. AND MFG. CO., Sole Manufacturers, 240 W. Lake St., Chicago.

"Leave No Stone Unturned." The origin of the expression "Leave no stone unturned" is thus accounted there were still nine living widows of for by authorities on the many obscure expressions used: After the battle of the rolls. The names of these relicts of Platea, Mardonius, the aid of Xerxes, buried a vast amount of treasure on the field. Polycrates, consulting the oracle at Delphi as to the best means of securing the same, received the answer.

> No matter what kind of a house truth builds, it always puts it on rock.

"Turn every stone."

HUNDREDS OF THOUSANDS OF DOLLARS doing galvanizing, for which we made no extra charge, had there not been merit in it. Galvanizing consists in coating the strong but most perishable (in thin sheets) metal, steel, with the almost indestructible (even when very thin) metals, zing and aluminum. If there were not great merit in galvanizing, no one would pay 14 more for galvanized barbed wire or sheet no one would pay 14 more for galvanized barbed wire of fron than ungalvanized costs. If we were making a windmills to-day, we should furnish an

8Ft. for $15

BETAL GALVANIZED BEFORE BEING PUT TOGETHER, IN OU WOLLD PAY IS DOUBLE PRICE FOR IT. We build the best we know, and knowing that pointed thin sheets are practically worthless, we have nothing to do with them. The practically worthless, we have nothing to do with them. The well on a large scale, deters others. SOME BLY GALVANIZED SHEETS AND PUNCH AND SHEAR AND BLEET AND PUNCH AND SHEAR AND ARE THEN LY AFTERWARD WHEELS OR VANES MADE OF GALVANIZED THEETS AND PUNCH AND SHEAR AND ARE THEN LY AFTERWARD WHEELS OR VANES MADE OF GALVANIZED THE RIVERS, AND ARE, THEREFORE, NOT SO GOOD AS PAINTED ONES. How any concern can get our prices for painted windmills and painted towers, or those made up of galvanized windmills and painted towers, or those made up of galvanized windmills and painted towers, or those made up of galvanized windmills and painted towers, or those made up of galvanized windmills and painted towers, or those made up of galvanized windmills and painted towers, or those made up of galvanized windmills and painted towers, or those made up of galvanized windmills and painted towers, or those made up of galvanized windmills and painted towers, or those made up of galvanized windmills and painted towers, or those made up of galvanized windmills and painted towers, or those made up of galvanized windmills and painted towers, or those made up of galvanized windmills and painted towers, or those made up of galvanized windmills and painted towers, or those made up of galvanized. We have any concern can get our painted to the value of galvanized. We have a section of the value of galvanized. We have a section of an Aermotov Wheel is all the most approached and channed of rust and impurised, and aluminum and left the painted the most made a success of the whole 23 section becomes soldered and section of the whole 23 section becomes soldered and section of the whole 23 section becomes pieces composing the soldered and welded

UNCLE SAM'S CONDITIONPOWDER

Is the best medicine for Horses, Cattle, Hogs ease and cures Coughs, Colds Colle, Hidebound. Worms, Distemper, etc. Nothing equals it for Hog Cholera. Honest and reliable, in honest 25 and 50 cent packages; used and warranted for over twenty years. Every one owning a horse or cattle should give it a trial. Made by EMMERT PROPRIETARY Co., Chicago, Ill.

Uncle Sam's Nerve and Bone Liniment for Sprains, Bruises, Rheumatism, Stiff Joints, etc. Goes right to the spot of pain. Nothing else so good for Man and Animal. Try it.

Patents, Trade-Marks.

These patterns retail in fashion bazaars and stores for 25 to 40 cents each, but in order to increase the demand among strangers we offer them to the lady readers of this paper for the remarkably low price of only.

ers of this paper for the remarkably low price of only:

10 cents ench. Postage one cent extra.

The patterns are all of the very latest New York styles and are unequaled for style, accuracy of fit, simplicity and economy. For twenty-four years these patterns have been used the country over. Full descriptions and directions—as the number of yards of material required, the number and names of the different pieces in the pattern, how to cut and fit and put the grangest together—are sent with each pattern, the garment together—are sent with each pattern, with a picture of the garment to go by. These patterns are complete in every particular, there being a separate pattern for every single piece of the dress, Your order will be filled the same day it is received. Every pattern guaranteed to be perfect fronts are becomingly ar-ranged in a center box and two side plaits on each front, closing in center with studs or buttons, or invisibly, if preferred. The back dis-plays the three fashionable single box plaits drawn together at the waist line, the under arm gore giving a smooth adjustment at the sides. The rolling collar is attached to a neck band, and can be made separately, if desired, some ladies preferring to have several col-iars to match their cotton waists. The sleeves are the newest mode for waists of the kind, being quite fall at the top and narrowing at the lower edge, where they are slashed at the back, faced and slightly gathered into cuffs that close with studs or buttons and button-

The retail price of pattern is 25 cents. Missus' Shirt Waist. Pattern No. 6250 is cut in four sires, viz.: 19, 12, 14 and 16 years. Pink and white striped pertle made this comfortable and stylish shirt walst.

A black satin necktie is worn under the turn down collar, a smooth belt to match encircling the waist. The fronts are disposed in pretty fullness by gathering on each side of the box plait in center. This plait laps over the left front and closes with study or buttons and button drawn in at the waist line ander the skirt as here shown The back is plain across the shoulders, being supplied with a pointed yoke portion that is smoothly stitched on; and obviates discoloration at this point. A cluster of gathers in the center adjust the back portion at the waist line. A rolling collar, with pointed, flaring ends, inishes the neck.

The full shirt sleeves fit closely at the wrists, being apleted by cuffs that close with studs in the hard Wash silks and all kinds of cotton wash fabrics are snitable for waists of this kind, the most fashiomble being cheviot. Oxford shirting, chambrey, gingham

The retail price of pattern is 25 cents. be only 10 cents for each pattern. One cent for ostage. Order by number and give size in inches They are glove fitting. To get BUST and

way around the body, ove the arms. Address COUPON PATTERN CO., Lock Box 747, New York, N. Y. THOSE WHO HAVE OLAIMS against the Government OLAIMS will write to NATHAN BICKFORD, Pension & Patent Att'y, 914 F St.,
Washington, D.C., they will receive a prompt reply.

