COLEMAN.

H. B. Wales is breaking prairie. Bert Wales is helping Thomas Whitmer with his farm work. John Beach of Hayes county was in this town, Monday.

Will Foster of McCook drove out through this town, Tuesday.

Miss Laura Pickering was visiting her recent pupils in district 58, last week and first days of this.

Misses Grace and Alice Cole, Viola Corner and Mary Henan spent a few hours, Sunday, with Miss Hattie Wales.

The rain on Wednesday of last week washed out pasture fences and flood gates in the canyon that runs through the west part of this town.

On last Friday night the young people to the number of twenty-six met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Cole and kept things lively until two or three o'clock in the morning. Ice cream and other goodies were served in abundance.

Last Sabbath, while Mrs. Nicklas was descending the stairs, and still near the top, she made a misstep and was precipitated to the bottom. Fortunately no bones were broken. A few bruises and a severely sprained wrist was the extent of the damage. She will be all right again in a few days.

Died—At his home on Monday, May 7th, at 6 o'clock, p. m., of typhoid fever, Peter Groves. Mr. Groves was born in Germantown, Indiana, May 25th, 1839. He removed to Iowa and located in Jasper county in 1855. He was married in 1862. He was an old soldier, having served three years in the 40th regiment of Iowa boys. He was a member of J. K. Barnes Post of McCook. He was also a member of the order of Modern Woodmen of America. The funeral services were in charge of the G. A. R. post of McCook. The sermon was preached at his home by Rev. H. H. Berry of McCook. After the funeral sermon many returned to their homes, while a procession consisting of twenty-five teams accompanied the remains to Longview cemetery, near McCook, where they were tenderly laid away to rest. A brother, Andrew Groves of Des Moines, Iowa, was present at the funeral, also another brother, George, from Frontier county, this state. He leaves a wife and an adopted daughter to mourn his death. The friends extend sympathy.

A VALUABLE FIND.
After years of study and labor there has at last been discovered a sure and never-failing remedy. It has been tested on patients who have despaired of ever being cured, and the results have been in every case wonderful. Goff's rheumatic cure is unequalled as a positive remedy in all cases of chronic and acute inflammatory rheumatism, gout, lumbago, sciatica and neuralgia; especially ovarian neuralgia, dysmenorrhea and all kindred affections. It is also a valuable blood purifier, being especially useful in eczema, psoriasis, scrofula, all glandular enlargements and diseases of the liver and kidneys. It is absolutely free from all narcotics. Severe attacks are relieved in from one to three days and a positive cure effected in from five to eighteen days. For sale by McConnell & Co. 3-29-3m.

RED WILLOW.

Mrs. Longnecker is quite ill, the same complaint as last winter, neuralgia of the stomach. Miss Katie is so much better that she is able to be out again.

The wind storm of a week ago did much damage to Jacob Longnecker's and Willie Meyer's wheat, blowing some of it out of the ground and burying some of it so deep that it will never appear again.

Mrs. Mulford and mother came near having a serious accident while driving from their place to Mr. Slye's. Some of the harness became undone and the buggy ran forward onto the horse, and the ladies were thrown from the buggy.

The many friends of Eli Crookford, who have been in the habit of enjoying his jokes (both original and warmed over) will be sorry to learn that a dreadful accident happened to Eli's mouth. While playing ball he caught a foul we believe it is called, in his mouth, cutting open his lip and loosening his front teeth. He adjourned to McCook for repairs.

J. F. Black returned to his home, May 1st, having spent the entire winter in the east soliciting aid for this drouth stricken country. He was accompanied by Mr. Bethel, an Illinois gentleman who has greatly assisted Mr. Black in his work. On Monday evening a reception was held in honor of this gentleman, and many of the neighbors gathered at Mr. Black's home where a pleasant evening's conversation was concluded by a dainty supper of cakes and ice cream. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Blackfan of Bartley, Mr. and Mrs. Barber, Mr. and Mrs. Helm, Mr. and Mrs. Miller, the Randall brothers with their wives, Mr. and Mrs. Rinck, and many others. Mr. Bethel leaves for Denver on Wednesday night.

VAILTON.

Mr. Singer will view the Platte river country, next week.

David Carpenter will look after his home farm, this season.

Jas. Hoyt is just getting around after a short but not serious illness.

Neighbor A. W. Nettleton and family are with us once more. All look hearty after their mountain trip.

Hima Cooley and wife are taking in eastern scenes at present, Mr. Hieber taking care of the farm in their absence.

Mr. Hunter has been very liberal in the placing of supplies among his many friends. Surely generosity is not an unknown virtue.

We hope we may be flooded with abundant rains during the next three months, which will make business and traffic a little more brisk than in the past. We presume we are not alone in this.

We notice considerable wind-mill irrigation of late. It is well; once planting and a speedy growth in the matter of early gardening is thus bought about, and of course the true economic principle prevails.
