-Justice Field lebrate his thirtyilversary of his entering upon the duties of a member of the United States Supreme court.

He was appointed to the office on March 10, 1863, by President Lincoln, but did not assume the duties of the position until the 20th of May following. He was at the time of his appointment chief justice of the Supreme court of the state of California, and he desired to finish the business which had been begun in that court before transferring tis labors to a new field. The eightysecond anniversary of his father's birth also fell on the 20th of May, which was another reason for selecting that date for beginning his services in the national Supreme court.

Counting from the date of his appointment only three justices have been longer on the Supreme bench than Mr. Field. They were Justice Marshall, Justice Storey and Justice Wayne. Chief Justice Marshall's term covered thirtyfour years, five months and five days; Justice Storey's thirty-three years and nine months, and Justice Wayne's thirty-three years and five months.

TO RESUME SPECIE PAYMENTS.

Chile's Conversion Act Goes Into Effect in Iwo Weeks.

Washington, May 18.-The text of Chile's currency conversion bill as passed by both houses of congress has been received here. It provides for specie payment from June 1, 1895-two weeks hence—and as both metals are to be utilized, the change promises to have an important effect upon the world's supply of the metals. The president of Chile is empowered for the term of three years to coin $10,-$00,000 of silver. All of the proceeds from the sale of nitrate beds shall be devoted exclusively to the purchase and coinage of silver. Three gold coins of $20, $10 and $5 are also provided for. The silver dollar is to weigh 120 grains, and it is to be 83.100 fine. Silver is not a legal tender above $50, except to the government, where it is received as gold. The government mint is also directed to exchange for gold the silver dollar presented to it with that object. The act also provides a system of bank currency, guaranteed by the government and redeemable by the governmennt if the banks fails.

CLOSING THE BOND DEAL.

Development of Foreign Investment Wil Prevent Large Gold Shipments.

New York, May 18 .- A Wall street news agency says: "Evidence points to a cleaning up process having been begun by the bond syndicate. The recent return to the members of 40 per cent of their subscription money was a first step in this direction. It is uncertain when the balance will be returned, but there are those who think it will be in a short time. The calling up from a number of the syndicate members of the extra gold is another step in the same direction. There is authority for the statement that the progress of events in the desired direction has been a good deal faster than the syndicate expected or even hoped would be the case. The development of foreign investment buying on a large scale, which has been so noticeable in the last month, has practically assured the country against any large demand for gold for a good many months to come. Most of the syndicate's preparations were made against this danger."

Is the Money of the People.

Terre Haute, Ind., May 18 .- Senator Voorhees said last night: "I have always been the friend of silver, and it will always remain the money of the common people, while gold will be the money of the rich. This country fought the war of 1812, the Mexican war, and the war of the rebellion under silver The opposition to it is knavish, speculative. By pronouncing against silver and driving it out as a currency the purchasing power of gold, which is in the hands of the rich, is increased and that is what they are after."

Release American Sailors.

Washington, May 18 .- A dispatch reeeived by Acting Secretary of State Uhl from United States Consul Hyatt, at Santiago, Cuba, announces the satisfactory termination of the cases of Bolton and Richlieu, two American sailors found adrift in a small boat off the eastern coast of Cuba and arrested and confined on a charge of being implicated in the rebellion. The men have been released, but no indemnity will be Wheat Scarce in Southwest.

Kansas City, Mo., May 18.-Wheat sold here yesterday at 75 cents a bushel, an advance of nearly 30 cents from the extreme low price reached last fall. So scarce has wheat become in the southwest, and so high have prices gotten, that wheat was bought in Chicago for shipment to this city. A special rate of 131/2 cents a hundred-weight has been made for the purpose, and it is expected a good deal of wheat will be brought here from Chicago.

EVIDENCE AGAINST DURANT.

Absence of Blood on His Clothes Accounted For if the Story is True. San Francisco, Cal., May 18.-The pofice are said to have a witness among those in reserve against Durrant who will add material testimony to show his conduct toward women members of the Emanuel church was improper. The story is that some time before the murder of Miss Lamont this lady asked Durrant for a book which was in the church library. He escorted her thither to get the volume. Durrant left the lady in the room and stepped out for a few minutes. He returned entirely divested of his clothing. It was with difficulty that the lady escaped from the room and the church. She said nothing about the occurrence until after Durrant's connection with the murders became known. Similar conduct in the case of Minnie Williams would explain the abscence of blood stains on Durrant's clothing.

FOREST FIRE IN WASHINGTON

Town of Buckley Is Threatened with

Destruction-Farms Swept. Tacoma, Wash., May 18.-For a radius of fifteen miles in the neighborhood of Buckley the fir forest is afire and here at Tacoma, thirty-six miles away, the atmosphere is heavy with smoke. Superintendent J. McCabe of the Pacific division of the Northern Pacific says nothing short of a heavy rain will check the flames. A special train was held at Buckley to carry away the inhabitants in case the fire should close in about that town. About 900 persons reside there. At Lester several buildings have been burned and the fire is spreading in all directions. Ranches to the number of nine have been burned and the inhabitants compelled to fiee for

Says Rebels Will Win.

New York, May 18.-James Purman, who for seven months has been connected with the Das Hermanos sugar mills in Cuba, has just returned from that belligerent little island. He said: "Everything points to the ultimate success of the uprising. This month ushers in the dread yellow fever, and its ravages will severely deplete the ranks of regular troops, who are unaccustomed to the climate. who are a dissolute, careless lot of men. Then the sugar factories will be closed and the thousands of idle Cubans will naturally drift into the army. The sentiment in favor of the rebellion is growing steadily and the insurgent leaders will be stoutly supported."

Wheat at 70 Cents.

Chicago, May 18 .- Country specula tors took possession of the Chicago board of trade this morning and ran away with the market. The professional operators in the wheat pit were overwhelmed by the flood of orders from outside. The great firms which have een engaged for years in grain dealing and have amassed tremendous fortunes in the business considered the price of wheat too high, and thought it should rule lower. The country speculators thought wheat was scarce and would be scarcer and that the price should go higher. It was forced up to 70 cents, but almost immediately weakened, and later went down to 681/2c, but closed 701/4 C.

Little Business Done.

Springfield, Ill., May 18.-Little business was transacted by the house today and the senate adjourned without doing anything.

In the senate the teacher's pension bill was advanced to a third reading. Merriam called it up and Lecrone's motion to strike out the enacting clause was voted down. Curley called up his bill providing that convict-made goods shall be stamped as such and it was advanced to a third reading.

Great Britain and Hawait.

Washington, May 18.-There is reason to believe Great Britain is preparing to repeat in the Hawaiian Islands the salient features of what is now known as the Nicaraguan incident. Lord Kimberley's declaration establishing the British citizenship of Walker and Rickard is said to be only the first step toward more vigorous measures. The state department is lookig into the merits of the case.

DR. RUSSELL BOOTH.

Anti-Briggs Man Elected Moderator by

Presbyterians. Pittsburg, Pa., May 18.-Rev. Dr. Robert Russell Booth, of New York, a strong anti-Briggs man, was yesterday elected moderator of the general assembly of the Presbyterian church. There were two other candidates. Rev. Dr. Page, of Leavenworth, Kan., and Rev. R. M. Adams, of Minnesota. The vote stood: Booth, 300; Page, 105; and Ad-

The retiring moderator, Rev. Samuel A. Mutchmore, D. D., LL. D., of Philadelphia, delivered his annual sermon in the morning. His subject was the labor, sentiment and signal services of the Presbyterian church. The first order of the day to-day is the presentation of the report of the assembly committee on conference with theological seminaries. This is one of the most important questions to come before the assembly, and the report of the committee on Sunday observance will also be presented. A unique feature of the sessions of the general assembly of the two leading branches of the Presbyterian church is that both bodies will discuss the question of control of the theological seminaries conducted under their auspices. A big fight is expected on this question

Minnesota Bank Closes.

Redwood Falls, Minn., May 18 .- The Citizens' bank has closed its doors with assets of $150,000 and liabilities of $100,-000. Recently there was a reorganization and assessments on the stock. Some of the holders refused to pay, hence the suspension.

REPORT ON SCHOOLS.

Presbyterian General Assembly Settles

Lown to Work. Pittsburg, Pa., May 18.-The general assembly of the Presbyterian church opened its session with divine services, and the first business meeting was largely attended in anticipation of the report of the committee on control of seminaries, which is one of the principal subjects to come before the assembly. Dr. W. L. McEwan of Pittsburg, for the committee on arrangements, delivered an address of welcome. He then presented the moderator with the gavel made from wood from the Holy Land. Moderator Booth responded, accepting the gavel with a pleasing address. The report of the committee on seminary control was read by the clerk. The committee has held conferences with the following seminaries: Two with the Princeton boards, two with the McCormick boards, and one with each of the following: Auburn, Western, Lane, Danville, San Francisco, Newark and Lincoln university. Immediately after the meeting of the committee at Saratoga it addressed a letter, through its chairman, to each of the boards of the seminaries, and the answers received are appended to the report.

The committee presented the following propositions to the seminaries:

1. That the seminaries should amend their charters with a clause declaring that they held their property in trust for the general assembly of the Presbyterian church.

2. That no election of trustees, directors, or other governing officers of seminaries should take effect until approved by the general assembly.

3. That the election, appointment or transfer of professors should be submitted to the approval of the general asembly.

4. That the seminaries change their charters with a clause declaring that in the event of the misuse or diversion of the funds or the property the general asembly should have power to provide against such abuse by appealing to the civil courts. In view of the answers of the semiaaries the committee reported that Omaha and Dubuq e have adopted all of the recommendations of the general assembly.

The directors and trustees of Princeton do not favor the propositions. The board of directors of the Western seminary at Allegheny sees no reason to ask any change in existing relations to the assembly. The board of directors of Danville has resolved to adopt the reccommendations as to by-laws and as a part of their constitution.

The report of the committee on Lane minary at Cincinnati was The committee reported that additional teachers are needed. They found the have a right to ask those who have had sible. It has already ruined the bodboard of trustees ready to do all in their power to bring the seminary into closer relations with the church. The recommendations of the committee were that the board be urged to continue, and that additional teachers be employed and thus bring the seminary the support of the Presbyterian clients. This report was received and will be discussed later.

The report of the committee on Sabbath observance was read by William R. Worrall and adopted. Among other things it said: "We heartily commend all Sunday legislation designed to protect the Christian Sabbath as a day of rest and worship."

Dr. Johnson, of Chicago, recommended a day of prayer every year for Sunday observance. Dr. Kneeland, of Boston, spoke on the topic, especially condemning Sunday newspapers and their readers and advertisers.

Dr. Hubbard, of the committee on the Assembly Herald, submitted his report. The expenses for the first ten months of the paper's existence, when over a million copies were issued, were $11,904. The income was $19,774. The monthly circulation will soon be 400,000

The last weekly prayer-meeting in October was, by general consent, set aside as the yearly prayer-meeting on Sabbath observance.

Those six young men, I suppose, represent innumerable young men who are about undertaking the battles of life, and who have more interrogation points in their mind than any printer's case ever contained, or printer's fingers ever set up. But few people who have passed fifty years of age are capable of giving advice to young men. Too many begin their counsel by forgetting they ever were young men themselves. November snows do not understand Maytime blossom week. The East wind never did understand the South wind. Autumnal golden-rod makes a poor fist at lecturing about early violets. Generally, after a man has rheumatism in his right foot, he is not competent to discuss juvenile elasticity. Not one man out of a hundred can enlist and keep the attention of the young after there is a bald spot on the cranium. I attended a large meeting in Philadelphia, assembled to discuss how the Young Men's Christian association of that city might be made more attractive for young people, when a man arose and made some suggestions with such lugubrious tone of voice, and a manner that seemed to deplore that everything was going to ruin, when an | no confidence in the preventive we purold friend of mine, at seventy-five years as young in feeling as anyone at twenty, arose and said: "That good brother who has just addressed you will excuse me for saying that a young man would no sooner go and spend an evening among such funereal tones of voice and funereal ideas of religion which that rel Hill Cemetery." gers he ought to shun. Attention, young First: Get your soul right. You see, that is the most valuable part of you. It is the most important room in your house. It is the parlor of your entire nature. Put the best pictures on its walls. Put the best music under its arches. It is important to have the kitchen right, and the dining room right, and the cellar right, and all other rooms of your nature right; but, Oh! the parlor of the soul! Be particular about the guests who enter it. Shut its doors in the faces of those who would despoil and pollute it. There are princes and kings who would like to come into it, while there are assassins who would like to come out from behind its curtains, and with silent foot attempt the desperate and murderous. Let the King come in. He is now at the door. Let me be the usher to announce his arrival, and introduce the King of this world; the King of all worlds, the King eternal, immortal, invisible, Make room. Stand back. Clear the way. Bow. kneel, worship the King. Have him once for your guest, and it does not make much difference who comes or goes. Would you have a warrantee

ful suggestions as to what theories of life one ought to adopt, and what dan-

He is over seventy, anl alert and vigorous, and very prominent in the law. His answer is, "I am living on the capital of a well-spent youth." On the contrary, there are hundreds of thousands of good people who are suffering the regives one a new heart, but not a new body. David, the Psalmist, had to cry out, "Remember not the sins of my youth." Let a young man make his body a wine-closet, or a rum jug, or a whisky cask ,or a beer barrel, and smoke poisoned cigarettes until his hand trembles, and he is black under the eyes, and his cheeks fall in, and then at some church seek and find religion; yet, all the praying he can do will not hinder the physical consequences of natural law fractured. You six young men of Ohio, and all the young men, take care of your eyes, those windows of the soul. Take care of your ears, and listen to nothing that depraves. Take care of your lips, and see that they utter no profanities. Take care of your nerves by enough sleep and avoiding unhealthy excitements, and by taking out-door exercise, whether by ball, or skate, or by horseback, lawntennis, or exhilarating bicycle, if you sit upright and do not join that throng of several hundred thousands who by the wheel are cultivating crooked backs, and cramped chests, and deformed bodies, rapidly coming down toward all-fours, and the attitude of the beasts that perish. Here comes a whole perdiresenting almost tion ce printed abomination, dumped on the breakfast table, and tea table, profession in life. and parlor table. The greatest reporters' columns mostly occupied with helpful intelligence, announcing marriages and deaths and reformatory and religious assemblages, and charities be- at twenty; Pitt at twenty-two; Whitestowed, and the doings of good people, and giving but little place to nasty dilike cobras, sting those that touch them. Oh, for more newspapers that put virtue in what is called great primer type, and vice in nonpareil or agate! You have all seen the photographer's negative. He took a picture from it ten or twenty years ago. You ask him now for | it up. There is no such thing as good a picture from that same negative. He opens the great chest containing the black negatives of 1885 or 1875, and he reproduces the picture. Young men, your memory is made up of the negatives of an immortal photography. All that you see or hear goes into your soul to make pictures for the future. You will have with you till the Judgment Day the negatives of all the bad pictures you have ever looked at, and of all the debauched scenes you have read about. Show me the newspapers you take and the books you read, and I will have quit. Unless you are willing sometell you what are your prospects for well-being in this life, and what will be your residence a million years after the star on which we now live shall have dropped out of the constellation. I never travel on Sunday unless it be a to pass on earth. Less than your finger case of necessity or mercy. But last | nail compared with your whole body is autumn I was in India in a city plague struck. By the hundreds the people were down with fearful illness. We went to the apothecary's to get some preventive of the fever, and the place was crowded with invalids, and we had chased from the Hindoos. The mail train was to start Sabbath evening. I said, "Frank, I think the Lord will excuse us if we get out of this place with the first train;" and we took it, not feeling quite comfortable till we were hundreds of miles away. I felt we were right in flying from the plague. Well, brother seems to have adopted, than he | the air in many of our cities is struck would go and spend the evening in Lau- through with a worse plague-the lague of corrupt and damnable literature. Get away from it as soon as posies, minds and souls of a multitude which, if stood in solid column, would reach from New York battery to Golden

Horn. The plague! The plague! . Word the next: Never go to any place where you would be ashamed to die. Adopt that plan, and you will found in compromising surroundings, How many startling cases within the out of this world, and the newspapers surprised us when they mentioned the locality and the companionship. To put it on the least important ground, you ought not to go to any such forbidden place, because if you depart this life in such circumstances, you put officiating ministers in great embarrassment. You know that some of the ministers believe that all who leave this life go straight to heaven, however they have acted in this world, or whatever they have believed. To get you through from such surroundings is an appalling theological undertaking. One of the most arduous and besweating efforts of that kind that I ever knew of was at the obsequies of a man who was found dead in a snow bank with his rum-jug close beside him. But the minister did the work of happy transference as well as possible, although it did seem a little inappropriate when he read, "Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord. They rest from their labors, and their works do follow them." If you have no mercy upon yourself, have mercy upon the minister who may be called to officiate after your demise. Die at home, or in some place of honest business, or where the laughter is clean, or amid companionships pure and elevating. Remember that any place we go to may become our starting point for the next world. When we enter the harbor of heaven, and the Officer of Light comes aboard, let us be able to show that our clearing papers were dated at the right port. Word the next: As soon as you can, by industry and economy, have a home of your own. What do I mean by a home? I mean two rooms and the blessing of God on both of them; one room for slumber, one for food, its preparation and the partaking thereof. Mark you, I would like you to have a home with thirty rooms, all upholstered, pictured and statuetted, but I am putting it down at the minimum. A husband and wife who cannot be happy with a home made up of two rooms would not be happy in heaven if they got there. He who wins, and keeps the affection of a good, practical woman has done gloriously. What do I mean by a good woman? I mean one who loved God before she loved you. What do I mean by a practical woman? I mean one who can help you to earn a living, for a time comes in almost every man's life when he is flung of hard misfortune, and you do not want a weakling going around the house whining and sniffling about how she had it before you married her. The simple reason why thousands of men never get on in the world is because they married nonentities and never got over it. The only thing that Job's wife proposed for his boils was a warm poultice of profanity, saying, "Curse God est delight by the stock growers and tors to make you well. Stay well. Read and die." It adds to our admiration of months, and it is hailed with the great- John Todd's Manual, and Coomb's John Wesley the manner in which he conquered domestic unhappiness. If you rate yourself too high, the world will say, "Come six men of Ohio will need all possible down." It is a bad thing when a man gets so exaggerated an idea of himself possible muscular development before as did the Earl of Buchan, whose speech Ballantyne, the Edinburgh printer, could not set up for publication because he had not enough capital I's among his type. Remember that the world got along without you near six thousand years before you were born, and unless some meteor collides with us, or some internal explosion occurs, the world will probably last several thousand years after you are dead.

Word the next: Do not postpone too things have been done before forty years of age. Pascal at sixteen years of age; Grotius at seventeen; Romulus field at twenty-four; Bonaparte at twenty-seven; Ignatius Loyola at thirty; Raphael at thirty-seven, had made the world feel their virtue or their vice, and the biggest strokes you will probably make for the truth or against the truth will be before you reach the meridian of life. Do not wait for something to turn up. Go to work and turn luck. No man that ever lived has had a better time than I have had; yet I never had any good luck. But instead thereof, a kind Providence has crowned my life with mercies. You will never accomplish much as long as you go at your work on the minute you are expected, and stop at the first minute it is lawful to quit. The greatly useful and successful men of the next century will be those who began half an hour before they were required, and worked at least half an hour after they might times to work twelve hours of the day, you will remain on the low levels, and your life will be a prolonged humdrum.

Word the next: Remember that it is only a small part of our life that we are the life on earth when compared with the next life. I suppose there are not more than half a dozen people in this world a hundred years old. But a very few people in any country reach eighty. Word the next: Fill yourself with biographies of men who did gloriously

in the business, or occupation, or profession you are about to choose, or have already chosen. Going to be a merchant? Read up Peter Cooper, and Abbot Lawrence, and James Lenox, and William E. Dodge, and George Peabody. See how most of the merchants at the start munched their noonday luncheon made up of dry bread and a hunk of cheese, behind a counter or in a storeroom, as they started in a business which brought them to the top of influences which enabled them to bless the world with millions of dollars consecrated to hospitals, and schools, and churches, and private benefactions, where neither right hand nor left hand knew what the other hand did. Going to be a physician? Read up Harvey, and Grosse, and Sir Adam Clarke, and never go to any evil amusement, nor be James Y. Simpson, the discoverer of chloroform as an anaesthetic, and Leslie Keeley, who, notwithstanding all past few years of men called suddenly the damage done by his imitators, stands one of the greatest benefactors of the centuries; and all the other mighty physicians who have mended broken bones, and enthroned again deposed intellects, and given their lives to healing the long, deep gash of the world's agony. Going to be a mechanic? Read up the inventors of sewing machines, and cotton gins, and life-saving apparatus, and the men who as architects, and builders, and manufacturers, and day laborers have made a life of thirty years in this century worth more than the full one hundred years of any other century. You six young men of Ohio, and all the other young men-instead of wasting your time on dry essays as to how to do great things, go to the biographical alcove of your village or city library, and acquaint yourselves with men who in the sight of earth, and heaven, and hell, did the great things. Remember, the greatest things are yet to be done. If the Bible be true, or as I had better put it, since the Bible is beyond all controversy true, the greatest battle is yet to be fought, and compared with it Saragossa, and Gettysburg, and Sedan were child's play with toy pistols. We even know the name of the battle, though we are not certain as to where it will be fought. I refer to Armageddon. The greatest discoveries are yet to be made. A scientist has recently discovered in the air something which will yet rival electricity. The most of things have not yet been found out. An explorer has recently found in the valley of the Nile a whole fleet of ships buried ages ago where now there is no water. Only six out of the eight hundred grasses have been turned into food like the potato and the tomato. There are hundreds of other styles of food to be discovered. Aerial navigation will yet be made as safe as travel on the solid earth. Cancers, and consumption, and leprosies are to be transferred from the catalogue of incurable disease to the curable. Medical men are now successfully experimenting with modes of transferring diseases from weak constitutions which cannot throw them off, to stout constitutions which are able to throw them off. Worlds like Mars and the moon will be within hailing distance, and instead of confining our knowledge to their canals and their volcanoes, they will signal all styles of intelligence to them. Coming times will class our boasted nineteenth century with the dark ages, Under the power of Gospelization the world is going to be so improved that the sword and the musket of our time will be kept in museums as now we look at thumb-screws and ancient instruments of torture.
