THE Fremont Fish Protective associa-WILDE tion was organized last week with over sixty members. The object of the association is to enforce the laws in regard to the protection of fish and to attend to the matter of stocking the lakes in that vicinity with fish. On Wednesday morning, June 12, will be held the commencement exercises of the State university at a local theater in Lincoln. The orator of the day will be Bishop Vincent. and the baccalaureate address will be delivered by Rev. Gunsalus of Chicago on Sunday evening, June 9.

THE conductor on the B. & M. No. 2 placed a man on the train in charge of the city marshal of Holdrege. He was crazy and tried several times to jump off the train. Papers on his person indicated that his name is John Dungan, and that he lives in San Jose, Cal. He has a ticket from that place to Dubuqe, Ia.

THERE will be a member of the state fish commission to be appointed by the governor before the end of the month. The present members are W. S. May and James B. Melkle of Omaha and R. H. Oakley of Lincoln. May's term expires June 1. There are several applicants who have filed their claims with the governor.

THE son of Ed Vest of Shelby was bitten by a mad dog last week. Al Starkey was chased from his back yard into the house by the animal. He closed the door as the animal reached his porch. A neighbor shot the dog with a rifle, the ball passing into the house. Nest's child went to Lincoln to have a mad stone applied.

THE preliminary hearing of Charles Broaden was before the probate court at Falls City. He was bound over to the district court without bail on the charge of murder in the first degree. His mother, who was the principal cause of the shooting, and who testified against him at the coroner's inquest, testified in his favor on this occasion, claiming he shot Powell in self-defense.

THE Lincoln Journal says it will soon be time for proprietors of hotels, restaurants and boarding houses to hang up big placards bearing in plain black Roman letters, not less than an inch in length and one-half inch in width, the words "Oleomargarine Used Here" or "Imitation Cheese Used Here," as the case may be. It will not be necessary for some of them to put up the sign "Imitation Coffee Used Here." as the average boarder knows too well.

RAILROAD men report the line of the Union Pacific thick with tramps, and farmers west of North Platte complain of a great deal of annoyance from the passing nomads. Several towns have tried the experiment of arresting and fining them and compelling them to work out their fines on irrigation ditches. The experiment has not been portant place in the market. Taylor Also Gets Two Years -Sir Francis Lockwood Vigorously Scores the Prisoner, but the Judge Favors Him-End of a Sensational Case.

London, May 27 .- Oscar Wilde, guilty erstwhile apostle of estheticism was erstwhile apostle of testheticism was sentenced to two years' imprisonment. Alfred Taylor, Wilde's associate, was also sentenced to two years' imprisonment. Both the prisoners' terms are to be worked out at hard labor.

The courtroom was crowded with spectators when Sir Francis Lockwood. solicitor general, resumed his address to the jury. He severely commented on the prisoner's intimacy with Lord Frederick Douglas and the exhibition of the younger man by the elder one at hotels and public places in and about London. Referring to the much-commented-on letters which Wilde wrote to Lord Alfred Douglas, counsel said that the jury had been told they were too low to appreciate such poetry, and he thanked God it was so, as it showed they were above the level of beasts. (Applause, which the judge promptly suppressed.)

Sir Edward Clarke, being counsel for Wilde, here interposed objections to such appeals as the one just made by Sir Francis Lockwood, which counsel claimed, should not be allowed. When Sir Francis Lockwood continued his speech he warned the jury to render a verdict which would prevent "such a detestable and abominable vice from rearing its head unblushingly in this country."

Justice Wills began summing up at 1:30. The general tenor of his address to the jury was favorable to Wilde. The jury retired at 3:30 and reported its verdict at 5:30.

MARKETS FOR AMERICA.

Consular Reports on Avenues for Extending the United States' Trade. Washington, May 27 .- The bureau of statistics of the state department has just published reports from consular officers upon the oriental market for dairy products and fruit. Consul Hunt, at Hong Kong sums up the subject for that part of China as follows:

Effort to Be Made to Reconsider the Boycott of Union Seminary.

Pittsburg, Pa., May 27 .- The ninth Many fields of wheat which were day's session of the 107th general assembly attracted more than the ordinary number of commissioners for this late day. The word had been passed to the conservative leaders that the liberals were moving toward the repeal of their pet measure, the boycotting of the students of Union seminary. To this end Moderator Booth has been besieged by some of the influential friends of the seminary, and it is understood the plan is to reconsider the vote of Wednesday which placed the ban upon that insti-

How Fred Taylor, of the Gallant 189th -N. Y. V. L. Finally Found What He Sought.

AFTERTHIRTY YEARS.

(From the Ashtabula, Ohio, Beacon.) Mr. Fred Taylor was born and brought up near Elmira, N. Y., and from there enlisted in the 189th regiment, N. Y., V. I., with which he went through the war, and saw much hard service. Owing to exposure and hardships during the service, Mr. Taylor contracted chronic diarrhoea from which he has suffered now over 30 years, with absolutely no help from physicians. By nature he was a wonderfully vigorous man. Had he not been his disease and the experiments of the doctors had killed him long ago. Laudanum was the only thing which afforded him relief. He had terrible headaches, his nerves were shattered, he could not sleep an hour a day on an average, and he was reduced to a skeleton. A year ago, he and his wife sought relief in a change of climate and removed to Geneva, Ohio; but the change in health came not. Finally on the recommendation of F. J. Hoffner, the leading druggist of Geneva, who was cognizant of similar cases which Pink Pills had cured, Mr. Taylor was persuaded to try a box. "As a drowning man grasps a straw so I took the pills," says Mr. Taylor, "but with no more hope of rescue. But after thirty years of suffering and fruitless search for relief I at last found it in Dr. Willlams' Pink Pills. The day after I took the first pills I commenced to feel better and when I had taken the first box I was in fact a new man." That was two months ago. Mr. Taylor has since taken more of the pills and his progress is steady and he has the utmost confidence in them. He has regained full control of his nerves and sleeps as well as in his youth. Color is coming back to his parched veins and he is gaining flesh and strength rapidly. He is now able to do considerable outdoor work.

As he concluded narrating his sufferings, experience and cure to a Beacon reporter Mrs. Taylor said she wished to add her testimony in favor of Pink Pills. "To the pills alone is due the credit of raising Mr. Taylor from a helpless invalid to the man he is to-day," said Mrs. Taylor. Both Mr. and Mrs. Taylor can not find words to express the gratitude they feel or recommend too highly Pink Pills to suffering humanity. Any inquiries addressed to them at Geneva, Oh'o, regarding Mr. Taylor's case they will cheerfully answer as they are anxious that the whole world shall know what Pink Pills have done for them.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills contain all the elements necessary to give new life and richness to the blood and restore shattered nerves. They are for sale by all druggists, or may be had by mail from Dr. Williams' Medicine company, Schenectady, N. Y., for 50 cents per box, or six boxes for $2.50.

London's Infernal Machine.

A most interesting case is devoted entirely to infernal machines found in ondon. Some of them have simply been robbed of their explosives and are in appearance just as they were when in the hands of the anarchists. A few having exploded are represented only by packages of torn and twisted fragments. The most ingenious of the former is made so that it exactly resembles a large chunk of coal. That which was found in the house of the duke of Bedford is, externally, merely a tin can. The only really amusing thing in the whole museum is in this case. It is a queer shaped affair with a curving neck, and was found in front of the house of a very exalted person. Dismay was general, for it was taken for granted that it was a bomb. Subsequent investigation, however, developed the fact that it was a model for a baby's feeding bottle.

New York Court Sends a Special Commissioner to Washington.

Port Townsend, Wash., May 23 .- The death and identity of Ansel White, the lost heir to the $4,000,000 estate, has been fully established by a special court commission sent to this coast by the probate court of Utica, N. Y. It appears a period of fifty years elapsed from the time White hurridly left his home in company with another man's wife until his heirs learned of his death near Port Angeles.

White and the woman went to Illinois, where they separated and he went out west to California and ultimately settled on a lonely ranch in the Olympic mountains, where thirty years later he died. His will bequeathing all his worldly possessions to Preston M. Troy is pronounced worthless so far as it applies to the eastern estate.

FRANK STORTZ, a 45-year-old citizen of Newman Grove, hanged himself because he had a $1,200 mortgage on his place. He owned $2,000 worth of unencumbered property.

JAMES F. BARRIS, 79 years of age, of Lincoln, committed suicide by shooting himself with a revolver. He was the father of C. F. Barras, a well known contractor in Lincoln.

THE brewery at Wahoo owned by W. C. Caley was set on fire by some miscreant and totally destroyed. The loss will probably aggregate $7,000 or $8,000. Insurance about half.

THE Grand Island sugar fectory has contracted for an acreage of beets large enough with a fair crop to insure a five month's run. Hundreds of farmers applying for seed were turned away.

MRS. WARD, living six miles north of Butte, while suffering from mental derangement, attempted to poison her husband by placing aconite in his coffee. An emetic brought him out all right.

RECEIVER DOOLITTLE has about finished paying out checks for 20 per cent of the claims against the North Platte National Bank. This is the first payment made on the claims against the bank.

WYMORE was thirteen years old on the 21st, and the occasion was celebrated in a very fitting manner by the fire department and business men. The whole affair wound up with a dance in the evening.

THE residence of Carl Farney of Aurora was entered by housebreakers while the family was at church and two gold watches, a diamond ring and and several other articles of jewelry taken, valued at $150.

THE Tecumseh cemetery seems to be badly in need of an overseer. Trespassing has been going on, plants and flowers stolen, and in some instances monuments defaced. An effort will be made to work a change for the better.

CHARLES WILSON thoughtlessly induced Peter Moody's wife to elope with him from Daykin. They were arrested at Minden. Moody forgave his wife, but there was no one to forgive Wilson, consequently he is in jail.

THE house of Prof. Thomas of St. Paul was damaged to the extent of $600 by fire. Prof. Thomas lost a valuable library and most of his household goods. His loss will amount to at least $600, and he had no insurance.

AUDITOR MOORE has revised his figures given out recently in connection with the total appropriations of the last session of the legislature, and the total amount now stands $2,784,930.60, only a little less than the first estimate.

To Get Old Soldiers Listed.

Assistant Adjutant General Gage of the Grand Army of the Republic has issued the following circular to the various posts of the state, advising them to assist county clerks in preparing correct reports of soldiers and sailors in the war of the rebellion, now residents of Nebraska:

"LINCOLN, May 18, 1895 .- The law makes it the duty of the assessors of the state to make a true and correct report of all soldiers and sailors of the late war of the rebellion in their townships and districts to the county clerks. and they to the secretary of state, and he to have the same published. This makes a very valuable work if it is correctly done. In the past this has been so carelessly performed by many of the assessors and county clerks as to make the record of little value. First, many names omitted: second, the companies and regiments incorrectly stated; third, so poorly written that it could not be read by the printer.

"I therefore ask the commander of the posts at the county seats to see that | cer from Chicago to take him east. one of the members of the post corrects the county clerk's report before it is sent to the secretary of state.

"I believe that every county clerk will be glad to receive this assistance. It is at this time very important that we have the roster of the soldiers and sailors correct.

"The state generously pays for this work and it is our duty to see that it is correctly compiled.

FIGHT OVER SILVER.

Free-Coinage Resolutions Tabled by Iowa Federation of Labor.

Ottumwa, Iowa, May 23 .-- The State Federation of Labor closed its session in this city yesterday after a red-hot fight on silver, non-union mines, and the socialistic plank adopted by the national federation at Denver. The resolution in favor of the free coinage of silver at the ratio of 16 to 1, was laid on the table and the question referred back to the various unions for settlement. The socialistic plank met the same fate. The date of holding the next convention was changed from the third Monday in May to the second Monday in December. The Union Standard, of Des Moines, was made the offiparts of the pit at every fractional cial organ of the federation. Among the resolutions was one suggesting a change in the Australian ballot, making it posall their feet and stamped prices down sible for the voter to express an opinion on matters of public interest for the guidance of legislators and officials; Then the bulls began to toss their and one denouncing cheap labor in the guise of charity. BROAD TIRE WAGONS.

There Is No Reason Why They Should

Not Be Used Everywhere. While the subject of good roads is being agitated in every part of the country those most interested in the subject are doing their best to make bad roads still worse by using narrow tires on their wagons. Heavy loads are drawn over our mud roads on these narrowtired wagons and deep ruts cut into them, that in wet weather make them almost, and sometimes entirely, impassable. I have a sort of a pity for a man who urges his team along a muddy road, all the time grumbling about the badness of it, when he might reduce the labor of his team from onethird to one-half by using wide tires at very little additional cost to himself and to the great saving of team and temper. It is to be hoped that the first legislation looking to the improvement of the roads of the country will be in the way of encouraging the use of wide tires, for one narrow-tired wagon will do more damage than a dozen with wide tires if the roads are at all soft. No one disputes the philosophy of wide tires, and no one seems to have any good reason to offer why they should not be used. Our farmers simply follow precedent and go on using narrow tires because their fatners did before them. Lumbermen and freighters use wide tires almost universally and save money by doing so, but it seems that farmers do not care to economize in this direction. The condition of our reads costs us more than any other single item of waste in this country, and the common use of wide tires would reduce this waste of energy to a large extent.-American Farmer and Farm News.

Moses, the great lawgiver and author of the first five books of our old Bible, is said to have died on the anniversary of his birth, being exactly 120 years old. The process of toasting is said to induce a peculiar chemical change in the bread, giving it a more appetizing flavor, as well as certain valuable properties.
