Castoria.

"Castoria is an excellent medicine for children. Mothers have repeatedly told me of its good effect upon their children."
Dr. G. C. Osceola,
Lowell, Mass.

"Castoria is the best remedy for children of which I am acquainted. I hope the day is not far distant when mothers will consider the real interest of their children, and use Castoria instead of the various quack nostrums which are destroying their loved ones, by forcing opium, morphine, soothing syrup and other hurtful agents down their throats, thereby sending them to premature graves."
Dr. J. F. Kinceloe,
Conway, Ark.

Castoria.

"Castoria is so well adapted to children that I recommend it as superior to any prescription known to me."
H. A. Archer, M. D.,
111 So. Oxford St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

"Our physicians in the children's department have spoken highly of their experience in their outside practice with Castoria, and although we only have among our medical supplies what is known as regular products, yet we are free to confess that the merits of Castoria has won us to look with favor upon it."

DO YOU WANT TO STOP TOBACCO? YOU CAN BE CURED WHILE USING IT.

The habit of using tobacco grows on a man until grave diseased conditions are produced. Tobacco causes cancer of the mouth and stomach; dyspepsia; loss of memory; nervous affections; congestion of the retina and wasting of the optic nerve, even to the extent of blindness; dizziness or vertigo; tobacco asthma; nightly suffocation; dull pain in the region of the heart, followed later by sharp pains; palpitation and weakened pulse; resulting in fatal heart disease. It also causes loss of vitality.

QUIT BEFORE TOO LATE.
To quit suddenly is too severe a shock to the system, as tobacco—to an inveterate user, becomes a stimulant that his system continually craves. "BACCO-CURO" is a scientific and reliable vegetable remedy, guaranteed to be perfectly harmless, and which has been in use for the last 23 years, having cured thousands of tobacco users—smokers, chewers and snuff-dippers.

You can use all the tobacco you want while taking "BACCO-CURO." It will notify you when to stop. We give a written guarantee to permanently cure any case with three boxes, or refund the money with 10 per cent. interest.
"BACCO-CURO" is not a substitute, but a reliable and scientific cure—which absolutely destroys the craving for tobacco without the aid of will power, and with no inconvenience. It leaves the system as pure and free from nicotine as the day you took your first chew or smoke.
Sold by all druggists, at $1.00 per box, three boxes (thirty days' treatment) and GUARANTEED CURE, $2.50, or sent direct on receipt of price. Send six two-cent stamps for sample box, booklet and proofs free. Eureka Chemical & Manufacturing Company, Manufacturing Chemists, LaCrosse, Wisconsin.

A VALUABLE FIND.
After years of study and labor, there has at last been discovered a sure and never-failing remedy. It has been tested on patients who have despaired of ever being cured, and the results have been in every case wonderful. Goff's rheumatic cure is unequalled as a positive remedy in all cases of chronic and acute inflammatory rheumatism, gout, lumbago, sciatica and neuralgia; especially ovarian neuralgia; dysmenorrhoea and all kindred affections. It is also a valuable blood purifier, being especially useful in eczema, psoriasis, scrofula, all glandular enlargements and diseases of the liver and kidneys. It is absolutely free from all narcotics. Severe attacks are relieved in from one to two, three days and a positive cure effected in from five to eighteen days. For sale by McConnell & Co., 329-331.

HER LITTLE FLOWER.

And She Sank to Rest Clutching the Tiny Treasure to Her Breast.

She found the tiny, tender plant when first it showed its trembling head above the travel worn slabs of granite that paved the narrow alleyway which was her only playground. She gave a cry of delight when she saw the delicate shoot peeping out from between the cold gray stones, and from that moment it filled a part of her life that heretofore had been empty. She nourished it with water and jealously guarded it from the onslaught of roaming boys and the too near approach of cart wheels that came crunching through the alley, and often did her violet eyes tremble with suppressed tears as she saw the ponderous wheels rolling so close to her treasure.

Under her care and watchful attention it steadily grew, and when delicate leaves unfolded themselves and disclosed to her delighted eyes a blossom of sweetness her happiness was complete, and she sank beside it and feasted her vision on loveliness she had never seen before.

One day she did not come at her usual hour to moisten the thirsty plant, and it would doubtless have perished but for a gentle shower that came to kiss the drooping head. The next day she did not come, and the lonely plant got its only help from the leaking of a passing water cart. Far up in one of the narrow rooms she lay on a little cot panting for breath. Her once rosy cheeks were now pale and white, and the soft blue eyes shone with a sparkling glow. Her heart tossed restlessly from side to side, and loud moans of pain crept from the drawn lips.

Occasional words broke from her, but of such an incoherent nature that none understood her until a boy came softly into the room and gazed at the suffering face curiously. "She wants her flower," he said as she moaned again, and like a flash he sped from the room, to return in a few moments bearing an almost withered plant in his hand. As he held it aloft the lustrous eyes saw it, and two tiny wasted hands arose from the cover and were outstretched to receive her treasure. She lifted it to her lips and rained kisses on the dust covered blossom, which seemed to answer her caress in a gleam of returning freshness.

She sank to sleep, still clutching the flower to her bosom, and awoke later with a calm look of contentment covering her features.

As the hours wore on she grew weaker and weaker until, when the shafts of morning's golden light first found their way into the quiet room, they fell aslant the cold, still form of a little girl, at whose cheek nestled a faded and withered flower, mingling itself in the faint smile that lingered yet around the perfect mouth. —Lingera Constitution.

Washington's "Finest."

Here and there in the halls and corridors of the capitol the sturdy guardians of the public peace, clad in immaculate uniforms sit, silent and indifferent, ruminating, to judge from the slow and regular action of their jaws, upon the destinies of the nation, though caring for none of these things. Fine specimens most of them are, too—broad shouldered, healthy skinned, fair, quiet men, whose solid nerves nothing could surprise, whose firm but gentle mastication no political convulsion could retard. They are of a very different type from the burly New York policeman.

One can hardly believe that they are really colleagues of the colored functionary in similar blue cloth and brass buttons, who stands in all his glory at the corner of Pennsylvania avenue, monarch of all he surveys, whose slightest gesture could stop even a cable car and whose lofty stature and speckled clothes call forth the admiration of the colored nursery maid and can impose good behavior even upon fair haired little boys and make the soggy faced, blue eyed "toughs" look a little less as though they had bought the pavement for their own convenience and would refuse to let it even at a high price.—Marion Crawford in Century.

Climbing Higher.

A New York girl, Miss Lillie J. Martin, has gone to Germany to enter the University of Gottingen as a student. She is a Vassar graduate of the class of 1880 and has been a teacher, occupying responsible positions since she left college. To go abroad and perfect herself in higher branches of science, to which study she is specially devoted, she resigned the vice principalship of the girls' high school at San Francisco, a position she has filled for several years. She hopes to enter the department of experimental psychology.—New York News.

Lamb and the Scotchman.

Charles Lamb said he never could impress a Scotchman with any new truth; that they all required it to be spelled and explained away in old equivalent and familiar words and phrases. He said he had spoken to a Scotchman who sat next to him at dinner of a healthy book.

"Healthy, sir. Healthy, did you say?"
"Yes, healthy."
"I dinna comprehend. I have heard of a healthy man and of a healthy morning, but never of a healthy book."
