Castoria.
"Castoria is an excellent medicine for children of which I am acquainted. I hope the day is not far distant when mothers will consider the real interest of their children, and use Castoria instead of the various quack nostrums which are destroying their loved ones, by forcing opium, morphine, soothing syrup and other hurtful agents down their throats, thereby sending them to premature graves."
DR. J. F. KINCHLOE,
Conway, Ark.

Castoria.
"Castoria is so well adapted to children that I recommend it as superior to any prescription known to me."
H. A. ARCHER, M. D.,
111 So. Oxford St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

"Our physicians in the children's department have spoken highly of their experience in their outside practice with Castoria, and although we only have among our medical supplies what is known as regular products, yet we are free to confess that the merits of Castoria has won us to look with favor upon it."

Sorry for the Girls.

When the women all wear bloomers and their skirts are laid away; when their legs no more are rumors, coyly hid from light of day; when the petticoat's forgotten, with its swishing, swishing swirls, and there's less demand for cotton, I'll be sorry for the girls. I'll be sorry for the lasses who in school are at their books, at the head or foot of classes I'll be sorry for their looks; for their ma's will make their trousers and good heavens! don't you know, who were boys but are not now, sirs, that they'll make a holy show! It is bad enough when Willie weareth pants his mamma made and it often knocks you silly just to see the youthful blade wearing pants that no man knoweth which is front or which is back; if he goeth or he cometh there is quite an equal "slack". But your Susie, Oh! 'tis galling; scalding tears will downward glance, when you hear some urchin calling, "Where did you get those pants"? You will see her glowing but by no established rule, can you tell if she is going or is coming home from school; there'll be trouble you'll allow sirs, there'll be anguish for the pa's, when the daughters all wear trousers that are just revamped from ma's. So I'm weeping as I'm writing, and my great tears fall like pearls; I scarce know what I'm inditing, for I'm sorry for the girls.—Exchange.
