

CASTORIA

for Infants and Children.

"Castoria is so well adapted to children that I recommend it as superior to any prescription known to me." H. A. ANCHUTZ, M. D., 111 So. Oxford St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

"The use of 'Castoria' is so universal and its merits so well known that it seems a work of supererogation to endorse it. Few are the intelligent families who do not keep Castoria within easy reach."

Hon. H. C. Corbett, state superintendent of public instruction, delivered an interesting lecture to all, last Saturday evening.
O. A. Everist and family will start for Oklahoma, this week. He expects to farm in that part of the country, next year.
C. B. Gray, candidate for clerk of the district court, was here over Sunday and Monday, looking over the political situation.
We will have another lecture from Dean Mc'Brien of Orleans; subject, "Chattanooga Convention and Battle Fields," some evening in the last week in October. We do not know the exact date.

TYRONE ITEMS.
Rev. R. H. Chrysler is our new minister.
Lida Borkman is very sick with typhoid fever.
G. W. Kimpton, our road boss, is doing some good work.
Dr. Frank Johnson of Wilsonville has been visiting the sick here.
C. S. Blair is getting his new house plastered and expects his family back from Iowa, soon, where they are visiting.
Florence Moore, after being near to death from typhoid fever, improved some, but is now suffering from a relapse and is very sick.
Fully nine-tenths of the Republicans here would endorse the views of the Box Elder correspondent in denouncing the use of liquor by candidates and others in order to influence voters. No good citizen of any party will cast his vote for such a candidate if he knows it.

PROSPECT PARK.
James Resh has fall listed nearly all of his stubble ground.
Eugene Dunham was rusting around on official business, Monday.
James Boatman and wife and L. A. Stephens and wife visited at Dr. Critser's, Sunday.
Mr. Burns was over from Ash Creek, Sunday. He came to bring his daughter over to her school in the Cain district.
Quite a party of young people called at the home of Frank Cain, Friday evening, and made things lively for a few hours.
Clifford Dunham had quite a misunderstanding with a vicious bull, Saturday, in which the animal came out second best.
G. C. Boatman says he will accept the challenge from his opponent on the Prohibition ticket to discuss the issues of the day, and fixes the time at any time in 1900, and place Chicago.

FREE MEDICAL BOOKS.
AN ILLUSTRATED BOOK ON HEALTH, DISEASE AND FAMILY MEDICINES.
A recently published book, packed full of valuable information for the masses, will be sent free for a time by the Pe-ru-na Drug Manufacturing Co. of Columbus, Ohio. This book contains numerous physiological and anatomical illustrations, conveying accurate and useful instruction. The book covers the whole list of diseases to which the human family is liable, and gives the treatment for each one. It is written in plain and chaste language, expressly for family use. It contains no reading or illustrations of an objectionable character. The author of the book is Dr. Hartman, whose long and extensive experience has enabled him to speak with authority on all medical subjects. This book should be in every family.
Another book, by the same author, Woman's Hand-book for Female Diseases, will be sent for a short time to ladies only. This book cannot fail to be of priceless value to afflicted women. It has led to the cure of thousands of suffering women. Those preferring Dr. Hartman's personal advice should write, giving age, symptoms, and duration of disease. Answer free.

Everybody takes Pe-ru-na for chronic malaria and all forms of nervous prostration and biliousness. It is the greatest of tonics and invigorators.

In Prescriptions

We use only the best of everything and take special care to fill them accurately and promptly, for which we charge a moderate price.
We want your prescription trade.

L. W. McConnell & Co.

Some handsome new box writing paper just received at our stationery department. Prices very reasonable.

The Darlington, Wis., Journal says editorially of a popular patent medicine: "We know from experience that Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy is all that is claimed for it, as on two occasions it stopped excruciating pains and possibly saved us from an untimely grave. We would not rest easy over night without it in the house." This remedy undoubtedly saves more pain and suffering than any other medicine in the world. Every family should keep it in the house, for it is sure to be needed sooner or later. For sale by McConnell & Co., druggists.

IF TROUBLED WITH RHEUMATISM READ THIS
ANNAPOLIS, Md., April 16, 1894.—I have used Chamberlain's Pain Balm for rheumatism and found it to be all that is claimed for it. I believe it to be the best preparation for rheumatism and deep seated muscular pains on the market and cheerfully recommend it to the public. JNO. C. BROOKS, dealer in boots, shoes, etc., No. 18 Main st.

If your children are subject to croup watch for the first symptom of the disease—hoarseness. If Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is given as soon as the child becomes hoarse it will prevent the attack. Even after the croupy cough has appeared the attack can always be prevented by giving this remedy. It is also invaluable for colds and whooping cough. For sale by McConnell & Co., druggists.
