Judge of the 14th District,
HON. G. W. NORRIS of Furnas.

THERE are a few unwise Republican politicians in Red Willow county who seem to be more anxious to drive people out of the party who do not suit them, than they are for Republican success. Suppose, for argument's sake, that these short-sighted leaders who are drifting the party dangerously near the shoals, succeed in driving out of the party all those they are unable to wheedle or bulldoze into their course of action, what will it profit the party, or them either?

IN surrendering itself to the A. P. A., the Republican party of Red Willow county has undoubtedly placed the success of its candidates in jeopardy. The success of the secret order has temporarily driven enough Republicans from the party to make the success of the ticket a matter of considerable apprehension and reasonable doubt. But it may be the making of the dog. As for this paper it favors now and evermore shall the Republican party's running itself—or going out of business.

THE impression is gradually prevailing that the Indianola Reporter has entered the employ of the Populist county central committee; and, although that committee indignantly deny that they have made any overtures to that result, the energetic work the Reporter has been performing for the Populist county ticket during the past week or two, gives strong color to that impression. The methods that the Colonel is now pursuing make him a veritable Jonah for the Republican party in this campaign. And like the farmer's fool calf there is no stopping him.

IN 1893 the Indianola Reporter had this to say about the A. P. A.: "Some of the candidates are having an uphill time of it trying to explain away their relations to, or sympathy with, a disreputable organization known as the A. P. A. The object of the association is to defeat the constitutional guarantee that there shall be religious test for office holding in this country, by politically, socially and in business, ostracizing all members of the Roman Catholic church. It is not only un-American in its doctrines, but also revolutionary in its tendencies, and should be frowned down by every patriotic citizen of our country, and no better opportunity to do so is offered than at the ballot box." This was in 1893 mind you, when it was imagined that one candidate on the Republican ticket was a member or in sympathy with the A. P. A. Now in 1895, when every man on the ticket was nominated by the order, the Indianola Reporter is in favor of quartering every man who does not break into the campaign and support a ticket they had no voice in nominating. Was Col. Bishop in earnest in 1893? Does he mean what he says in 1895? Was he mistaken in 1893? Is he right in 1895? We leave the case with the reader. There is a common error some where. If the A. P. A. "should be frowned down" in 1893 for "unconstitutionality, un-Americanism, and revolutionary tendencies", why is the Colonel so anxious to elevate it on high in 1895? After all, Colonel, would it not be better for the Republican party to resume business at the old stand, on its own hook?

INDIANOLA.

J. W. Dolan drove to Oberlin on Saturday last.

J. W. Dolan is in Iowa on business, this week.

J. C. Benedict of Culbertson was in town, Sunday.

P. A. Wells of McCook was in town, Wednesday.

Dennis Fitzgerald spent Sunday here with his family.

Mrs. C. H. Oman of Danbury was in town, Saturday.

Marion Powell was in McCook, Friday last, on business.

H. E. Waugh of Lebanon was a McCook visitor, Saturday.

George Burt was in McCook on land business, Tuesday.

The Misses Holland shopped in the county metropolis, Saturday.

I. N. Smith took a squint at politics in McCook, Monday evening.

Floyd Welborn arrived from Denver, Saturday morning, on a visit to relatives.

L. A. Carnahan, the Republican nominee for superintendent, was in town, Monday.

There will be temperance services at the Congregational church, next Sunday evening.

G. C. Boatman, the Populist candidate for clerk of district court, was in town, Tuesday and Wednesday.

Supt. Bayston returned from the west end, Monday evening, from looking after some school work.

Supt. J. H. Bayston took the train for Denver, Tuesday night, to take in the "festival of mountain and plain".

Publisher Barnes of the McCook Times-Democrat spent Sunday with the wife and baby now visiting his parents here.

Heavens to Kate! But isn't Bishop a red-hot pup after Pops! Oh, mama! But the doughty, fire-eating Colonel will be wiser, by and by.

Some of the gold-bearing sand from near Milford was sent here to Prof. Bartlett for analysis, and he reports it as containing gold at the rate of $3.92 per ton.

Mrs. Dennis Fitzgerald, Mrs. James McClung and John McClung arrived home, last Friday evening, from their trip east. Mrs. John McClung remained.

Cal Underwood was over from Danbury, Friday evening. He brought his mother-in-law, Mrs. A. S. Kinsloe, to take the train for her home in Sycamore, Illinois. Little Homer Underwood returned with her.

The fact that one of the Republican county newspapers has already added over a hundred dollars to his bank account, while Bishop has not seen the color of a penny, for all his "work", has quite distracted the fire-eating Colonel. Verily the laborer is worthy of his hire. "Ain't it."

Indianola Republicans do not exactly agree with THE TRIBUNE as touching the deputyship supposed to be promised the editor of the Reporter. It is the current idea that the Colonel is being "worked" into his "fine frenzies" against the Pops. That he is angling, but has nothing definitely hooked; and is not likely to succeed.

That was an amusing incident which took place here, a few days since: Hearing a stalwart Republican roast a recent convert to Republicanism for swill, on account of the convert's puny efforts of late to read the only Republican paper in Red Willow county—THE MCCOOK TRIBUNE—out of the Republican party. It was amusing for all but the convert.

INDIANOLA CONTINUED.

S. L. Green was down from McCook, Monday.

J. L. Holland and John McClung went to Denver, Wednesday night.

W. H. Wadsworth, R. W. White and E. R. Banks attended Frontier county fair at Stockville, last week.

The school boy nine beat the Danbury boys on the home ground last Saturday. They expect to play at Cambridge, Saturday next.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Smith came home from a six weeks' visit in Missouri, Wednesday morning. Mr. Smith declares that the best country on earth.

Indianola begins to be effected a little by the Schlatter nonsense. R. L. Beckwith went out to Denver on Friday night with the expectation of seeing the side-show, among the other attractions of the city.

The Reporter continues to work harm to the Republican ticket by its wholesale abuse of Meserve. The Populists smile knowingly among themselves, and advise that Bishop be let alone to carry on the good work he is unconsciously doing. He never dreams that he's a "Pop", and why should any one tell him?

THE Republican party of Red Willow county is in the same attitude with respect to the A. P. A., as the lady was with the tiger—inside. It seems as though there are only a few Republicans left. And they are not needed or wanted for the ticket.

THE many friends of H. H. Berry will doubtless emphatically resent the extraordinary and irregular methods by which the elder was euchred out of an opportunity to become a nominee for justice of the peace on the Republican ticket. The old soldiers especially properly feel the keenness of the fact that the elder was turned down in such an unprecedented manner.

WHEN the Republican party of Red Willow county went bodily into the A. P. A. camp, it gave official notice to every Roman Catholic within the party to vacate at once. And to all other Republicans not in sympathy and action with the order to take a back seat. When these proscribed elements of the party obey the mandate, this fall, wherein will the Republican party be the gainer?

WE are just a little sensitive about this rubbing in process. A steady diet of dirt is annoying enough. THE TRIBUNE is not a common vehicle on which all the political renegades of the party may ride at pleasure.

THE state board of irrigation is an expensive fake. Practically all the costly work they are doing will have to be overhauled by the courts.

OUR next district judge's initials are George W. Norris. He is a thoroughly capable man for the position.

WE are just in receipt of a new supply of tablets and box papers, memorandums, etc.
