

The McCook Tribune.

By F. M. KIMMELL.

$1.50 A YEAR IN ADVANCE.

The Republicans of Red Willow county have decided whom they will serve. And the verdict is in unmistakable language. It is emphatically against A. P. A. control or dictation, which on last Tuesday cost the party the defeat of its ticket—a ticket for the most part composed of capable and clever citizens. Secret society proscription and corrupt primary and convention management have robbed the Republican party of success. The voters of the county have repudiated those leaders and fearlessly frowned down the un-Republican, un-American and unconstitutional methods they have used. THE TRIBUNE wants this truth to burn itself indelibly into the recollection of the Republicans of this county. The American Protective Association was too heavy a load for the Republican party to carry. The rule or ruin policy and the mismanagement of the leaders was too rank for the people to ratify or swallow. The ostracism of life-long Republicans from the party councils and the brazen disregard of those who have always been closely identified with Republican success in this county, all conducted to bring about the defeat, which THE TRIBUNE warned the party would overwhelm it. The lesson must not go unlearned or unheeded. The duty of the Republican party for the future is plain: Its management must forever be separated from the A.P.A. Its party leaders must be more fair and conciliatory and just in their methods. The lesson taught has been a severe one—the expression of an intense party fealty which holds party honor and integrity above success. It has been costly and the results should not be wasted or lost in vain regrets or idle threats. Close up the ranks. Line up. Raise aloft the banner of pure Republicanism. Avoid side issues and dark lantern entanglements. Keep in the middle of the road. Go straight ahead and its only a matter of the majority in Red Willow county.

DURANT, the condemned murderer, of San Francisco, will be sentenced today.

In the Douglas county encounter, Tuesday, the Bee was defeated, and Rosewater downed temporarily.

G. W. NORRIS carried his own county—Furnas—by 489 majority, and the judicial district by about 100. We believe and confidently expect that G. W. Norris will make the Fourteenth district an able and upright judge.

THERE is nothing mean or selfish about THE TRIBUNE. We are perfectly willing to welcome back into the party those misguided Republicans who have strayed from the straight and narrow path into the A. P. A. fold. There is only one requirement: They must be and act like Republicans—and quit their meanness. It is not likely that the genuine Republicans of the party throughout the county will object to seeing the prodigals return on such grounds.

If the Republicans who have been misled into the A. P. A. by specious promises and misrepresentations will now return to the party fold, the party will soon be in line for a great victory in 1896. The few individuals who are working the order for the patronage and pull there is in it will soon be statesmen and patriots out of a job. Without the patronage and pull in sight, such patriots will quickly abandon the self-imposed duty of saving the county.

INDIANOLA.
Miss Angie Quick entertained the members of the Loyal Legion, recently, in a happy style.

THE TRIBUNE is a "live wire" in the language of the street. It was in great demand here, last week.
Mrs. C. B. Hoag went up to the metropolis, Sunday night, on a visit to her daughter, Mrs. C. B. Gray.

C. F. Babcock, H. W. Cole and C. J. Ryan were down from the metropolis, Wednesday, on election business.

Fred Beardslee played in the Pythian orchestra at McCook, Wednesday evening, during the performance of "Caste."

Mrs. C. W. Barnes and baby accompanied him home, Sunday evening, after quite a long visit with the grandparents.

Eight young ladies of our town held a unique Hallowe'en party at the home of Miss Lillie Welborn, Thursday evening.

The Episcopal friends held an enjoyable and quite successful social in the court room of the court house, last Saturday evening.

Arthur Douglass and Chas. McManigal of McCook took in the dance in Beardslee's hall, last Friday evening, given by the R.T.O.

J. J. Lamborn came up from Wilcox, Saturday night, to vote the ticket straight as usual. He made a flying trip to McCook on Monday evening.

Will Brown, Charlie McManigal and Arthur Douglass dropped down from the metropolis, Saturday evening, on one of their frequent visits to some of our fairest.

The Courier may congratulate itself that Jim Hupp doesn't hold a mortgage on it. That "old soldier and cripples" reference in last week's Courier ruffled Jim's feathers considerably.

BARTLEY.

A. Deitsch's youngest child has been very sick, this week.

James Hamilton moved into the M. G. Bash house, Wednesday.

R. S. Baker and wife visited with Tyrone friends, first of the week.

Dr. J. W. Brown is building a frame house on his farm northwest of town.

J. Sentance moved into R. C. Fidler's house on the west side of town, this week.

A. S. Cook is moving, this week, into the new house built by A. G. Keys on his farm west of town.

William and James Hamilton came up from Oxford to vote, Tuesday, returning on No. 4 in the evening.

Miss Kate Smith, one of the teachers in the schools here, spent Saturday and Sunday with friends in Wilsonville.

F. G. Stilgebouer and wife were called to Danbury on Sunday by the serious illness of Mrs. Stilgebouer's youngest brother.

E. L. Dennis spent the first day of the week with friends at Arapahoe. By the way, there seems to be quite an attraction at that place for Mr. Dennis.

Mrs. Rowe left on Thursday evening of last week to visit with a son and daughter at Blairstown and Cedar Rapids, Iowa. Her son S. B. accompanied her as far as Edison.

A number of the Odd Fellows of this place accepted an invitation of the Cambridge lodge to spend Wednesday evening with them. The supper was not the least inducement offered.

J. W. Epperly and family arrived, Sunday evening, from Colony, Kansas, where they have been the past year. The younger members of the family are expected to enter school here.

About thirty-five young people gave the Misses Rena and Myrtle Epperly a pleasant reception in the way of a surprise visit on Tuesday evening. An enjoyable evening is reported.

James Madison returned from Omaha, Friday morning of last week, and brought encouraging news as to Mrs. Madison's condition. The latest reports indicate that she is in a fair way to recover.

A. G. Keys and Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Keys were at New Windsor, Colorado, first of the week, attending the funeral of Mrs. J. W. Keys. A. G. returned, Tuesday morning, but C. W. and wife may remain there a few weeks.

Considerable interest was manifested in the election here. A hard fight was made on the candidate for county superintendent, Smith carrying the precinct by seven votes. On the state ticket the precinct was decidedly Republican. The vote was about even on the candidates for district judge, and also on most of the nominees for county offices. The Republican precinct ticket was elected with the exception of the nominees for assessor and justice of the peace. Populist nominees for these offices were elected by good majorities.
