PEOULIAR MARRIAGE CEREMO-NY IN WASHINGTON.

Youth Who Had Taken Her Name-The the substitute measure. Groom Wears White Broadcloth-A Spiritualist Officiates.

A Theosophical Wedding.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 31 .- An extraordinary ceremony was performed here last night. Theosophy was the medium which joined in the bonds of matrimony a "new woman" and a "new man." Adelaide Johnson, the abeth Cady Stanton, Lucretia Mott, silver demonetization. Susan B. Anthony and Dr. Caroline Winslow occupied a central position in the Woman's building at the world's fair, was the heroine of the novel affair. Miss Johnson invited twenty friends to a "white evening" at her home. No hint was given of the nature of the occasion. The guests, including Mrs. Richardson of Boston, Susan B. Anthony, Clara B. Colby and Colonel Charles, arrayed themselves in white, as requested, and arrived promptly at the appointed hour. They found the drawing room draped in snowy cheese cloth, while curtains hid the windows and doorways. White silk cushioned the chairs and covered the tables, on which crystal bowls of calla lilies were placed. A bust of General Logan, on a pedestal in one corner, gazed sternly on the marble likeness of Lueretia Mott with Quaker cap and folded handkerchief.

The suspicion of the guests was first aroused by the sight of a white satin ribbon which enclosed a sort of chancel containing a sofa upholstered in white and made comfortable by a half dozen white ruffled pillows.

Curiosity was set at rest at 9 o'clock by the announcement that the wedding of Adelaide Johnson to Alexander Frederick Johnson was about to take place. Cora L. V. Richmond, the spiritualist, passed behind the ribbonattended by the groom who wore a suit of white broadcloth and a white silk tie. Mrs. John Vance Cheney, wife of the poet, entered immediately after and read a poem on "Music," the last stanza of which was accompanied by the strains of Lohengrin's wedding chorus, played softly by Susan Oldberg. The bride soon appeared, gowned in white tulle heavily embroidered with pearls and made over white satin. She was escorted by her brother, Charles G. Johnson, of Chicago. Cora L. V. Richmond performed the marriage ceremony, "under inspiration." A week ago the groom, by power of law, changed his name of Alexander Frederick Jenkins for Alexander Frederick Johnson, that his talented wife should not forfeit the name by which she is known to the world. He is a slight young fellow, not 20 years old yet, light hair and penetrating dark eyes. He was born in England and has traveled over America. He spent nine months alone on an Arizona ranch and now lives in New York. That is all that is known of him here, except that, like his bride, who is twelve years his senior, he is thoroughly imbued with the beliefs of Christian science and theosophy and is a vegetarian as well.

He asserted that the purchasing power of silver in all silver using countries was as great to-day as ever before and that goods were prepared for market in those countries at just one-half what it costs to produce the same article in the gold standard, gold using countries, and sold without trenching on profits, for just one-half the price in gold they would have been compelled to sell for if bimetallism had been maintained, and the destruction of the parity value between the sculptor, whose portrait busts of Eliz- two moneys had been brought out by

Regarding the bond bill as it came from the House, Senator Mitchell said: "I decline to give further authority to the Secretary of the Treasury to issue additional bonds in time of peace, first, because I deny the necessity for any such additional issue; second, because I am opposed to a further increase of our interest bearing public debt: third, because in encouraging additional bond issues at any rate of interest, I believe we are hastening the rapid approach of national bankruptey; and fourth, because I am a Republican | gold. and every Republican State convention which has convened in the last year has condemned in emphatic terms the present administration for issuing bonds and thus increasing the pational indebtedness.

"I am unwilling under any plea of necessity to aid the party to which I it has most emphatically condemned in others."

Standard Policy. WASHINGTON, Jan. 30. -At 2 o'clock the silver bond bill was taken up and, after some skirmishing between Hill and Chandler and Jones of Arkansas, in a vain effort of the last named to have Thursday at 2 p. m. fixed for a vote, Mr. Jones said: "Then I give notice that on Thursday I will ask the Senate to remain in session until this bill is disposed of, and I ask all Senators to come prepared on Thursday for such action.'

Mr. Voorhees, Democrat, of Indiana, rose for a "short talk," he said. " He has seldom spoken of late and received close attention. He said the country was now in the midst of a revolution brought on by those plotting against silver. It was this class which brought on panies, destroying the parity of the metals. The men who demonetized silver in 1873 were, said Mr. Voorhees, "revolutionists." They sought to overcome the constitution, the laws and the policy of a century. After tracing the constant use of silver since the government began, the senator declared that the token of "sound money" applied to gold money was a fraud. Silver was as much sound money as gold. It would effectually stop the raids on the gold reserve if the demands on the treasury were met by silver payments as well as

WAS IT A DECOY?

Report That Official Attention Was Purposely Drawn to the J. W. Hawkins. WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.-Reports received here seem to fully confirm the report of the sinking Monday of the steamer J. W. Hawkins, which left New York Sunday night with a Cuban filibustering expedition of 100 men and ammunition on board.

There is a curious rumor affoat here to the effect that the true story has not yet been told as to the alleged and ammunition to Cuba. Some people close to the revolutionists say the whole thing is a "decoy," and that the Spanish minister and the United States authorities have been cleverly fooled. For some reason that cannot be definitely traced, there is a belief that the arms supposed to be on the Hawkins were either transhipped at sea or else were sent out secretly in some other vessel, and suspicion intentionally directed against the Hawkins for the purpose of throwing the Spanish spies and the United States revenue authorities off the track.

The Voice from on High-A Father's Daring Feat - The Devil's Name -What Ond Boy Knew-A New Game for Little Folk.

HEAR Thy voice, dear Lord. I hear it by the stormy sea, When winter nights are black and wild, And when, affright, I call to Thee; It calms my fears and whispers

"Sleep well, my child."

I hear Thy voice, dear Lord! In singing winds and falling snow, The curfew chimes, the midnight bell, "Sleep well, my child," it murmurs low; 'The guardian angels come and go-O child, sleep well!"

Speak on-speak on, dear Lord! And when the last dread night is near, With doubts and fears and terrors

A Father's Daring Feat. A curious lion story which recently appeared in an English journal runs as

An English missionary in Africa was sitting in his tent door when he saw a party of natives approaching. They were bringing to him a boy, whose head was covered with a piece of calico, on removing which the missionary saw two deep furrows, one on each side of the scalp. The wound had been made by a lion a few evenings before. The boy had been brought to the Englishman for treatment, and while he did pensioning the widow of General | what he could for the sufferer, the men related the following tale:

To Have a Sweet Breath.

Don't expect to have clean teeth or a sweet breath while there is a tinge of white on the tongue. It is an unmistakable evidence of indigestion. Drink sour lemonade, eat ripe fruit and green vegetables for purgatives; exercise freely; use plenty of water internally ment until the mouth is clean, healthy and red. Various things are suggested to counteract an unpleasant breath, resulting from a bad tooth, or garlicscented dishes. Cinnamon, mint, creams, orris root, cloves, mastic-resin and spruce gum will disguise some odors. Ten drops of tincture of myrrh in a glass of water will sweeten and refresh the mouth; a teaspoonful of spirits of camphor or peppermint in the same gargle is among the best antiseptics, and a few drops of myrrh and camphor in the water are recommended in case of cold, throat trouble or any slight indisposition which may affect the breath.
