Church influence has its effect, as was fully demonstrated, last Tuesday, when Miss Eunice Brown came boldly out, and took a firm stand for, and with heart and hand joined the church.

Arthur Church and Eunice Brown were married, last Tuesday week, at the home of the bride's parents. A long and happy life to you here, and an eternal home on the "ever-green shore".

The Rev. H. L. Preston of McCook preached five nights last week at the Coleman school house. Two came out boldly and took a stand for Jesus, and quite a number are thinking seriously of taking the same step.

Henry Mitchell and Minnie Simmerman were united in marriage on Thursday of last week. The ceremony took place at the home of the bride's parents in this town. We wish these young people a long, prosperous and happy life here and a grand future beyond.

On last Sunday week, Miss Viola Corner got a clove down her wind pipe and it is now in her right lung and is causing considerable pain at times. She had to give up her school on account of it. We sincerely trust that no very serious results may come from it.

Over sixty were present at the meeting of the Y. P. S. C. E. at the Coleman school house, last Sabbath night. Its membership numbers thirty-six now. The following members were elected to attend the county meeting at McCook, March 14 and 15. Messrs. H. K. Bixler and Wm. Prentice, and Misses Viola Corner and Edith Coleman.

There will be preaching at the Coleman school house every two weeks, regularly, at 11 a. m. sharp, fast time. Sabbath, March 8th, is the regular day. These services are becoming so very interesting that the house is well filled at every appointment. Young people meeting every Sabbath evening at 7:30 fast time. The house is full every Sabbath evening.

On Monday morning Miss Lydia Brinton was returning home from Wm. Nicklas' and at the canyon, near the home of H. B. Wales, her pony got away from her and started homeward on the run. Miss Lydia returned to Mr. Wales' and Bert took his pony and started after the truant and soon returned with pony and cart all right. It seems that Miss Brinton was so frightened, that, to quiet her nerves, she rode home in the seat with Bert Wales, while Frank Coleman drove her pony and cart home.
