W. L. Brown, the young operator here, had a narrow escape from serious injury and perhaps death, last Friday morning. While getting off the morning passenger train he slipped and fell on the rail beneath the moving train. By an extra effort he drew himself out of harm's way, but by-standers say that the wheels of the coach missed him by only an inch. This is just about as close as these things get without more serious results and he is fortunate to be alive at this writing.—Republican City Democrat.

To California in a Tourist Sleeper.

The Burlington Route personally conducted once-a-week excursions to Colorado, Utah and California are just the things for people of moderate means. Cheap, respectable, comfortable, expeditious. They leave Omaha every Thursday and go through, without change, to San Francisco and Los Angeles. The tourist sleepers in which excursionists travel are carpeted, upholstered in ratan and have spring seats, spring backs, mattresses, blankets, curtains, pillows, etc. Only $5 for a double berth, wide enough and big enough for two. The route lies through Denver, Colorado Springs, the wonderful canyons and peaks of the Rockies, Salt Lake and Sacramento. For rates and also for illustrated folder giving full information, call on the nearest agent of the Burlington Route or write to J. Francis, G. P. & T. A., Omaha, Neb.

A Lutheran Organ.

The Lutheran Herald is the name of a church publication which will be issued in Lincoln about April 10, and every alternate Thursday thereafter. Rev. C. A. Gearhardt, D. D., is to be the editor. There are four general bodies in the Lutheran church in America, but the Herald will be independent of all divisions and will advocate a closer union of all Lutherans. There are 415 Lutheran churches in Nebraska, and as no paper of this kind is published west of Saint Louis the Herald will have a large field. The first issue will be in the form of a twelve page folio with a straw colored cover bearing a picture of Martin Luther.—Lincoln Journal.
