To Subscribers of The Tribune.

Readers of THE TRIBUNE will please remember that cash is an essential in the publication of a paper. The publisher has been very lenient during the past few years, on account of crop failures and hard times, and as a consequence many hundreds of dollars are due on subscriptions. We are now compelled to request all who can to call and make settlement in full or in part. In view of the facts, our subscribers must feel the justice and urgency of this request.

THE PUBLISHER.

The Best of its Class.

An Illinois friend in squaring up his subscription to THE TRIBUNE says: "I can say that your paper is the best of its class that I have ever read. I am satisfied with its policy and sentiments." So you see the editor's path has a few roses among the thorns, and his life is not utterly without its compensation.

Reminds the Colonel.

Some of the country papers are twitting editor Kimmel because the Nebraska Independent lists the TRIBUNE as a Populist paper. This is all very much like a bull pup barking at an elephant.—Indianola Reporter.
