C. W. Britt went down to Plattsmouth Saturday night, to minister unto his father, who is quite ill.

Mrs. C. W. Bronson arrived home, first of the week, from a visit of a few weeks with her mother in Iowa.

Miss Josie Mullin went in to Omaha, last Friday night, returning home on Tuesday night of this week.

Mrs. Sarah Haley arrived home, Sunday night, from a visit to Holdrege friends, the family of Peter Smith.

Frank Harris is having his house painted and other improvements made upon his premises on upper Main avenue.

Mrs. William Lambert arrived from Sheridan, Wyoming, last Friday evening, and is visiting old time McCook friends.

C. T. Watson's mother arrived from Lafayette, Indiana, last Friday evening on No. 3, and under her care he is getting along nicely.

The pay car made its usual monthly visitation here, Friday and Saturday evenings of last week. It is a great event in McCook's commercial life.

Sam Gilcrest and family spent last week visiting his parents in Akron. Mrs. Gilcrest made final proof on her homestead in that section while there.

Mrs. Margaret Oyster and the little children attended the damage trial against the company at Holdrege, Monday, returning home, the same night.

His many friends here will be pleased to know that Assistant Master Mechanic James Ritchie of Sheridan, who has been long very ill, resumed work on Monday of last week.

Wednesday morning, a little son of Lewis Casten was struck on the head by a hoe by a young playmate sustaining an ugly gash about three inches long, which the surgeon had to repair.

The recent supreme court decision touching the inter-state commerce commission is said to seriously effect the pass question, confining the issuance of passes alone to railroad employes and to them only when on company business.

The Massachusetts supreme court has decided that school teachers have no right to require scholars to "peach" on each other. The decision is in the interest of morality and will improve the esprit de corps of the average Yankee kidlet, no doubt.

On the recent trip of the president of France two of the private cars were lighted by acetylene gas. The experiment succeeded perfectly and the Paris-Lyons-Mediterranean railroad will probably supply most of its coaches with the apparatus. The new gas is coming into use slowly but surely. After the speculative period is over there will be a time of genuine development. Then we may look for substantial reductions in the cost of the illuminating fluid.

SUNFLOWER SILHOUETTES.

Stock extra to Oberlin, Monday, Conductor Wolff.

Trainmaster Kenyon was a branch visitor, Monday, returning on Tuesday.

Agent Bardon went to Riverton, Tuesday, to attend the funeral of his mother.

Section Foreman Ben Hutchins with his family and H. H. G.'s moved from Franklin to Oberlin on Wednesday.

DIED—"Skinny", first, last and only water spaniel, belonging to L. W. Wright, on Saturday a. m., of an ineffectual effort to sustain life on Kansas air. He made a heroic effort, but was finally obliged to succumb. Funeral obsequies were duly observed, Col. Stickley officiating. All prominent dogs are in mourning. L. W.'s grief is somewhat assuaged, however, by the fact that there was an increase of six in the swine department.

TYRONE.

John Walton is now running a pedler's wagon.

Ona Richmond commenced a three months term in the Tyrone school, last Monday.

A fine new monument has been erected in Tyrone cemetery at the grave of Lida Borkman.

Elder Hale is expected to be present at the quarterly meeting at the church, next Saturday and Sunday.

Those who attended "Uncle Tom's Cabin", at Wilsonville, on the evening of the 10th, pronounce it very good.
