Two doors south in Lowman store room Knipple is located.

George Beck spent a day or two, front of the week, fishing at Red Cloud.
Mrs. L. B. Stiles is suffering seriously with an abscess on her face, this week.
Dr. E. H. Waters is having an addition built to his north Main avenue residence.
The laws of New York and Ohio require the railroads to carry bicycles as baggage.
Conductor C. E. Pope entertained his brother-in-law, Mr. Lee of Oxford, close of last week.
Mrs. C. E. Pope has been entertaining her mother from Lincoln since Thursday of last week.
Mrs. H. E. Guy, wife of the agent at Wauneta, was here, Monday, on a little shopping excursion.
W. P. Foreman came down from Denver, Wednesday evening, on an auditing trip to this station.
C. T. Watson, local manager for the Western Union, will resume his position on next Monday morning.

Mrs. S. L. Moench attended the district Endeavor convention at Alma, last of past week, as a delegate from the McCook society.
Misses Ora Whitman and Mamie Tomlinson of Oxford were guests of W. S. Tomlinson, this week, coming up on Monday evening.
Mrs. J. W. Holliday was down from Lyons, Colorado, close of the past week, looking after some improvements to be made on their north Main avenue residence.
Deputy State Auditor P. O. Hedlund visited with F. G. Westland, last Sunday. Mr. Hedlund is one of the candidates for state auditor in the coming convention.
Count Hulaniski, formerly the genial Burlington agent at this station, is now living in Ouray, Colorado, where he has a brother in the newspaper business, publisher of the Silverite Plaindealer.
Station Agent Morrissey is making an effort to start a Star of Jupiter lodge at this place. The order is a young one but very substantial, being composed of the most solid business men of McCook.—Holbrook Herald.

A wreck occurred on the southern division of the Burlington, near Liberty in Gage county, Monday morning, in which Engineer Brennan and Conductor Wilson were both killed. A heavy rain had undermined the culvert and when the engine reached the point it was thrown off the track, the dead men being caught and pinioned under the locomotive. The fireman escaped by jumping from the locomotive.

To California in a Tourist Sleeper.

The Burlington Route personally conducted once-a-week excursions to Colorado, Utah and California are just the things for people of moderate means. Cheap, respectable, comfortable, expeditious. They leave Omaha every Thursday and go through, without change, to San Francisco and Los Angeles. The tourist sleepers in which excursionists travel are carpeted, upholstered in raton and have spring seats, spring backs, mattresses, blankets, curtains, pillows, etc. Only $5 for a double berth, wide enough and big enough for two. The route lies through Denver, Colorado Springs, the wonderful canyons and peaks of the Rockies, Salt Lake and Sacramento. For rates and also for illustrated folder giving full information, call on the nearest agent of the Burlington Route or write to J. Francis, G. P. & T. A., Omaha, Neb.

Plenty of Farms for Rent.
A number of good farms for rent. Call early and get your choice. Apply to P. A. WELLS, over Citizens bank.

Hail Insurance in first class company. Written by C. J. RYAN.

AMERICA needs less "patriotism" and "jingoism" and more good hard business sense—if anybody asks you.

WITH postal savings banks in operation millions of dollars would have been saved to the poor of the country during the present hard times and numerous bank failures over the land. What better argument need there be for the establishment of such banks by the government.

Good Pasture for Stock.

I have good pasture for a large number of cattle or horses. Plenty of water and shade and good fencing. Rates reasonable. Call at the Stewart ranch on Dry creek or address, J. A. RESH, Manager.

$2,500.00 Cash.

For sale. The two-story and basement steam heated building known as the Frees & Hocknell building, at the foot of Main street, for $2,500.00, spot cash. Write to or inquire of

M. BALDRIDGE, Pomona, Calif., or First National Bank of McCook.

For Sale Very Cheap.

A wind mill, tower, tank and pump, with 210 feet of pipe. Will sell altogether or separately, and very cheap.

ARTHUR WOOD.

Correspondence Wanted.

THE TRIBUNE wants correspondence from every precinct and town in Red Willow county. Terms readily given on request.

PROSPECT PARK.

We would not object to a good shower at any time.

Rev. J. M. Bell preached to a full house, Sunday.

B. C. Bowman and wife were in these parts, one day this week.

Mrs. Frank Albrecht and family visited at W. N. Cratty's, Sunday.

Len Stevens had to take up his well pipes, Tuesday of this week.

J. E. Logue was up to see the blacksmith, one evening, this week.

J. H. Wade and wife spent Saturday evening at Charles Boatman's.

W. A. Holbrook and wife ate Sunday dinner with Eugene Dunham's family.

Charles Boatman and wife and Katie Holbrook visited at W. S. Hartman's, Sunday.

The prayer meeting at Charles Boatman's, last Thursday evening, was well attended.

Willie Barnes is working for Charles Boatman instead of Nellie Barnes, as stated in our last.

Eugene Dunham, a broncho and saddle got badly mixed up, one day last week. Dunham struck the ground with more force than elegance, and the saddle was badly used up. The broncho came out of the wreck all right.

BOX ELDER.

Several windmills were blown down, this week.

Corn planting is nearly finished.

Thomas Pinkerton is overhauling Matt Stuart's windmill wreck.

Quarterly meeting for this circuit will be held at Red Willow on Saturday and Sunday.
