To California in a Tourist Sleeper.

The Burlington Route personally conducted once-a-week excursions to Colorado, Utah and California are just the things for people of moderate means.

Cheap, respectable, comfortable, expeditious. They leave Omaha every Thursday and go through, without change, to San Francisco and Los Angeles. The tourist sleepers in which excursionists travel are carpeted, upholstered in ratan and have spring seats, spring backs, mattresses, blankets, curtains, pillows, etc. Only $5 for a double berth, wide enough and big enough for two. The route lies through Denver, Colorado Springs, the wonderful canyons and peaks of the Rockies, Salt Lake and Sacramento. For rates and also for illustrated folder giving full information, call on the nearest agent of the Burlington Route or write to J. Francis, G. P. & T. A., Omaha, Neb.

All Good Republicans

Should make a point of attending the national convention, to be held at St. Louis, Tuesday, June 16th. The expense is not great—if you take the Burlington. On the 13th, 14th and 15th of June you can purchase a round trip ticket to St. Louis at THE ONE WAY RATE. Think—isn't it worth a few dollars, a few days time to see the next president nominated.

Full information on application to any agent of the B. & M. R. R. or by addressing J. Francis, General Passenger Agent, Burlington Route, Omaha, Neb.

Denver, Colorado.

One fare plus $2.00 for round trip, tickets on sale June 14th and 15th; limited for return, leaving Denver not earlier than June 20 and not later than June 25, except by depositing ticket with joint agent before June 20 extension of return limit may be obtained up to and including July 15.

Chautauqua Assembly

At Orleans, Neb., June 1-27. One fare for the round trip from points within 150 miles of Orleans; tickets on sale June 1st, 2d, 6th, 7th, 9th, 13th, 16th, 18th, 19th, 20th, 23d and 27. Good for return until and including June 28th, 1896.

An Eye Witness.

J. M. Stroud, a son of A. J. Stroud of our city, is a resident of St. Louis, and writes the homefolks a letter concerning the recent cyclone which destroyed more than 500 lives and many millions of dollars of property. The letter is in response to a telegram from his people here. He writes:

"I received your telegram yesterday forenoon and answered at once, but my letter reached you before the telegram. I should have wired you at once but the wires were down so we had no communication with the outside world. Telegrams came into the city so fast that the telegraph companies could not deliver them, and a great many are being sent by mail, except in down town business portion of the city. Since writing you I find the severe portion of the storm was not in our section, but in the southern part of the city, though several people were killed within four or five blocks of our place of business.

The papers now claim that the loss of life and property was somewhat exaggerated, but the awfulness of the storm's path cannot be pictured. You may hear the most excitable person tell of the devastation and when you see it you realize that he has not done it justice. The severe part of the storm was between Chouteau avenue on the north, the river on the east, 2,400 south, and 2,800 west, and this does not include hundreds of unroofed houses and others entirely destroyed outside of this district. The above district embraces 392 blocks and a street distance of 27 miles. And in that territory I don't think there is one undamaged house. There was a park in that section, but not a tree is now standing. Some of the finest three-story stone mansions have been blown down to the foundations.

We had another scare yesterday. Policemen notified residents on their beats to look out for a cyclone that afternoon or night. The symptoms were most alarming, but happily the clouds dissipated and the overwrought people were relieved."

To Subscribers of The Tribune.

Readers of THE TRIBUNE will please remember that cash is an essential in the publication of a paper. The publisher has been very lenient during the past few years, on account of crop failures and hard times, and as a consequence many hundreds of dollars are due on subscriptions. We are now compelled to request all who can to call and make settlement in full or in part. In view of the facts, our subscribers must feel the justice and urgency of this request.

C. L. DEGROFF & CO.

McCook Mercantile Company.

McCook, Nebraska, May 22, 1896.

To the Citizens and Farmers of McCook
and vicinity:

Dear Friends and Patrons: THE Mc-COOK MERCANTILE CO. has moved into the two large store rooms belonging to Babcock and Morlan, between the First National bank and the postoffice.

We feel very grateful for all the generous patronage we have received from the farmers and citizens of McCook and vicinity, and will endeavor in every way in our power to merit their entire confidence and future patronage.

Come and see us in our new quarters!
They are large and commodious, and enable us to show our large stock to advantage, which it has been impossible for us to do before. We will soon have large shipments of new goods
in all lines, and in future we will always endeavor to give our patrons the opportunity of patronizing their home store, and of helping their own town and us, and not compel them
to go outside to make purchases of any kind, because their wants could not be supplied in their own town.

If at any time we should not have what you want, ask for it, and we will get it. Our object will be to please our customers, sell our goods at a living profit, and treat everyone alike, so that we will always merit their confidence and patronage.

Claiming everyone as our friend, and bidding you all welcome, we are always,
Your obedient servants,
McCOOK MERCANTILE CO.
