J. F. GANSCHOW,
THE OLD RELIABLE
FEET FITTER
McCOOK, NEBRASKA.

McCook Mercantile Company.

McCook, Nebraska, May 22, 1896.

To the Citizens and Farmers of McCook and vicinity:

Dear Friends and Patrons: THE McCOOK MERCANTILE CO. has moved into the two large store rooms belonging to Babcock and Morlan, between the First National bank and the postoffice.

We feel very grateful for all the generous patronage we have received from the farmers and citizens of McCook and vicinity, and will endeavor in every way in our power to merit their entire confidence and future patronage.

Come and see us in our new quarters! They are large and commodious, and enable us to show our large stock to advantage, which it has been impossible for us to do before. We will soon have large shipments of new goods in all lines, and in future we will always endeavor to give our patrons the opportunity of patronizing their home store, and of helping their own town and us, and not compel them to go outside to make purchases of any kind, because their wants could not be supplied in their own town.

If at any time we should not have what you want, ask for it, and we will get it. Our object will be to please our customers, sell our goods at a living profit, and treat everyone alike, so that we will always merit their confidence and patronage.

Claiming everyone as our friend, and bidding you all welcome, we are always,

Your obedient servants,
McCOOK MERCANTILE CO.

To California in a Tourist Sleeper.

The Burlington Route personally conducted once-a-week excursions to Colorado, Utah and California are just the things for people of moderate means. Cheap, respectable, comfortable, expeditious. They leave Omaha every Thursday and go through, without change, to San Francisco and Los Angeles. The tourist sleepers in which excursionists travel are carpeted, upholstered in ratan and have spring seats, spring backs, mattresses, blankets, curtains, pillows, etc. Only $5 for a double berth, wide enough and big enough for two. The route lies through Denver, Colorado Springs, the wonderful canyons and peaks of the Rockies, Salt Lake and Sacramento. For rates and also for illustrated folder giving full information, call on the nearest agent of the Burlington Route or write to J. Francis, G. P. & T. A., Omaha, Neb.

All Good Republicans

Should make a point of attending the national convention, to be held at St. Louis, Tuesday, June 16th. The expense is not great—if you take the Burlington. On the 13th, 14th and 15th of June you can purchase a round trip ticket to St. Louis at 75c ONE WAY RATE. Think— isn't it worth a few dollars, a few days time to see the next president nominated.

Full information on application to any agent of the B. & M. R. R. or by addressing J. Francis, General Passenger Agent, Burlington Route, Omaha, Neb.

A Fractured Arm.

Little Jessie, daughter of Conductor and Mrs. C. E. Pope, had the misfortune to fall from her bicycle, last Saturday evening, and fracture both bones of her left arm below the elbow. It is not known what caused her to fall, and the little girl does not know herself. She had not been well all day, and it is thought that she fainted, fell from the wheel and was thus injured.
