A Red Hot Campaign.

The present campaign will be the most exciting one fought on since the war. There will not be a day when something of unusual interest will not transpire. The State Journal has made up its mind to surpass all its former efforts in the direction of news-giving, and will give its readers the most complete details of the campaign, giving all the news from an unbiased standpoint. Republicans will want The Journal because of its staunch Republican principles, it being recognized as the standard-bearer of the great Republican party of Nebraska. Populists and Democrats should read it for the news it gives. The Semi Weekly Journal will go to thousands of new homes during the campaign. You should subscribe, as it will only cost you 25 cents from now until November 15. Two papers every week, making it almost as good as a daily. Subscribe through your postmaster or send your order to The State Journal, Lincoln, Nebraska.

To Subscribers of The Tribune.

Readers of THE TRIBUNE will please remember that cash is an essential in the publication of a paper. The publisher has been very lenient during the past few years, on account of crop failures and hard times, and as a consequence many hundreds of dollars are due on subscriptions. We are now compelled to request all who can to call and make settlement in full or in part. In view of the facts, our subscribers must feel the justice and urgency of this request.

She then sent me to see if I had anything that would help her. I sent her a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and the first dose relieved her. Another of our neighbors had been sick for about a week and had tried different remedies for diarrhoea but kept getting worse. I sent him the same remedy. Only four doses of it were required to cure him. He says he owes his recovery to this wonderful remedy.—Mrs. Mary Sibley, Sidney, Mich. For sale by McConnell & Co., Druggists.

PLEASANT RIDGE.

Bessie Endsley will teach our school coming term.

Where were all seven of you on last Monday night, boys? Please don't all answer at once.

Master Orle Eller is suffering with a sore hand, caused by the bite of a cat, some time in July.

Mrs. Herbert Clute and brother were guests of Mrs. James Harris on Tuesday afternoon of this week.

There is a conservative gentleman in this neighborhood, but he can talk McKinley at rate of a mile a minute.

J. W. Jones, C. T. Eller and Carl Watkins are on the road to Colorado, and others of our neighbors expect to start soon in the same direction.

Mrs. E. C. Goehring is canning tomatoes, being one of the few in this neighborhood who is fortunate enough to have raised them on the farm.

Our people are not concerning themselves much about politics. The great question of importance to most of us is, what will we do for something to live on this winter.

Two young men of this vicinity were up bright and early, Wednesday morning, (something unusual for them), brushing hats and coats and making great preparations for something. We thought those boys had been employed to make speeches in the coming campaign. They appeared so energetic, we slipped up near enough to hear a part of their conversation. Do you suppose they were talking about McKinley or Bryan? Not at all. They were speaking about their girls. But when they returned at eventide they were very quiet. I fear they met with a disappointment.

Farewell, oh fields of waving corn,
Farewell, to castles in the air,
We thought not to feel sad and forlorn,
When you were planted there.

Farewell to hopes of dresses fine,
Farewell to hopes of dimes and pines,
But now we sigh and weep and pine,
And don't know what to do.

The farmers all will emigrate
And we will lonely be.
In this poor old Nebraska state,
Where the Indians ought to be.

But thank goodness, this is leap year,
And if we know our mind,
If the farmers all leave here,
We won't be left behind.

For in the language of the poet,
We will say to some farmer,
Oh give me a home,
Oh a home for me,
Where the lofty boughs of the old oak tree,
Are swung by the winds in the dear wildwood,
Where he dwells in his sombre solitude,
Oh take me away from the cornfields brown,
Make a canoe and we'll float down,
Away to the south, where we'll happy be;
And find us a nook by the old oak tree,
And the farmer will smile and go on his way rejoicing—and we will smile, too.

RBD WILLOW.

Alonzo Miller is contemplating a trip to Missouri.

Harvey Woodworth and George Baker, last week, departed for greener pastures.

Whooping cough has made its appearance at the Willow. J. F. Helm's family, the Meyers children, and the two youngest of the Quigley children are the victims.

A social at John F. Helm's is to be given by the Y. P. S. C. E., next Friday evening. Its success is assured. Mr. Helm kindly donates ice, the girls furnish the cakes, and the boys furnish the girls for the entertainment.

A great many of the neighbors are wondering if they had not better emigrate to some country where crops are surer. A few pieces of corn that were planted thin are still green. This fact ought to be noted and next year's corn planted accordingly.

Nathan Tubbs served his old neighbors a shabby trick by going off quietly and getting married. Never invited even the most interested. Then he gave it out cold that he was armed and there would be no charivari. Now when people wait until a man is nearly forty to see him married they are going to have some sort of doings after the wedding. Mr. Tubbs and his bride skipped off to Oberlin, Kas., for the wedding trip, but the boys and girls are willing to wait. He could not shoot in the presence of ladies, and beside that the charivari was of too quiet a sort to resort to violence; still there was music, whistles, tin cans, etc. The crowd took the water-melons with them and there was a general good time. Mr. Tubbs was rather bewildered and uncertain as to whether the neighbors approved his tardy matrimonial venture, or attributed it to dotting old age. It's all right, Nate, and we all wish you and Mrs. Tubbs the happiest of life's journeys together. Mr. Tubbs returned, Monday evening, and the happy couple are now at home to their friends at their home on the Holland farm.

Don't Stop Tobacco.
How to Cure Yourself While Using It.

The tobacco habit grows on a man until his nervous system is seriously affected, impairing health, comfort and happiness. To quit suddenly is to sever a shock to the system, as tobacco to an inveterate user becomes a stimulant that his system continually craves. "Bacco-Curo" is a scientific cure for the tobacco habit, in all its forms, carefully compounded after the formula of an eminent Berlin physician who has used it in his private practice since 1872, without a failure. It is purely vegetable and guaranteed perfectly harmless. You can use all the tobacco you want while taking "Bacco-Curo." It will notify you when to stop. We give a written guarantee to cure permanently any case, with three boxes, or refund the money with 10 per cent. interest. "Bacco-Curo" is not a substitute, but a scientific cure that cures without the aid of will power and with no inconvenience. It leaves the system as pure and free from nicotine as the day you took your first pipe or smoke.

Cured by Bacco-Curo and Gained Thirty Pounds.

From hundreds of testimonials, the originals of which are on file and open to inspection, the following is presented:

Clayton, Nevada Co., Ark., Jan. 28.
Eureka Chemical & Mfg. Co., La. Crosse, Wis.
Gentlemen: For forty years I used tobacco in all its forms. For twenty-five years of the habit I was a great sufferer from general debility and heart disease. For fifteen years I tried to quit, but couldn't. I took various remedies, among others, "No-To-Bac," "The Indian Tobacco Antidote," "Double Chloride of Gold," etc., etc., but none of them did me the least bit of good. Finally, however, I purchased a box of your "Bacco-Curo" and it has entirely cured me of the habit in all its forms, and I have increased thirty pounds in weight and am relieved of all the numerous aches and pains of body and mind. I could write a quire of paper up on my changed feelings and condition.

Yours respectfully,
P. H. MARRIAGE,
