The Quigley children are nearly well now. Tuesday morning, Miss Lillie Miller departed for Missouri.
 Alonzo Miller Miller and wife started for Missouri, Tuesday.
 Rev. Morris and his good wife took Sunday dinner with Wm. Byfield's family.
 A number of our young people attended the Y. P. S. C. E. convention at Indianola. They report a profitable time.
 Wonder if we could not scare up enough Republicans in this precinct for a McKinley club. The free silver folks have it all their own way now and we feel sorter bad about it.
 There is a report, which we believe to be false, that Mrs. Taylor's bulldog Bob was too short legged to protect her melon patch. We really think Mrs. Taylor expects too much of that dog.
 The schools began Monday with the usual attendance. Miss Lucy Peake teaches the Willow school. Miss Olive Rittenhouse the south end of district 72. Miss Peake will board with Mrs. Taylor.
 Oh! to be able to write poetry like that literary artist from Coleman. We would not ask any higher salary. No, no, the public should enjoy and profit by our genius, and our name should live in the hearts of our countrymen for quite a spell after they had done reading our poems. There would be no end of items done in verse then.

To Subscribers of The Tribune.
 Readers of THE TRIBUNE will please remember that cash is an essential in the publication of a paper. The publisher has been very lenient during the past few years, on account of crop failures and hard times, and as a consequence many hundreds of dollars are due on subscriptions. We are now compelled to request all who can to call and make settlement in full or in part. In view of the facts, our subscribers must feel the justice and urgency of this request.
 THE PUBLISHER.
