THE CAMPAIGN WORK.

BRYAN AND M'KINLEY BOTH MAKE SPEECHES.

The Former Talks to the People of North Carolina and the Latter to Workmen From Pennsylvania-Silver Discussed by the Democratic Candidate-Protection Lauded by the Republican Standard Bearer-Big Crowds and Much Enthusiasm.

Bryan on Silver Union.

GOLDSBORO, N. C., Sept. 19 .- This morning Mr. Bryan spoke to hundreds of people here, opening as follows: "In this campaign those who believe in the free coinage of silver have joined together, regardless of differences of opinion upon other subjects. Democrats who believe in tariff reform and Republicans who believe in protection are able to unite when both recognize that the money question is superior to the tariff question. A Populist leader in this state well expressed the idea when he said that while he believed in Populist doctrines, yet he was willing to lay some of them aside until he could get others. For instance, he said that while he believed in the government ownership of railroads he did not want the government to own the railroads as long as the Rothschilds owned the government. It is this willingness to lay aside minor differences in hours of danger that characterizes our people and gives the surest proof that they are able to rise to the requirements of any emergency.

Sometimes they accuse us of raising a sectional issue. One of the best evidences that the platform adopted at Chicago does not raise a sectional issue is found in the language of the platform adopted yesterday in New York. Let me read it to you. After unreservedly indorsing the platform and the candidates of the Chicago convention, the New York platform declares as its deliberate judgment that never in the history of the Democratic party has a platform been written which embodies more completely the interests of the whole people as distinguished from those who seek legislation for private benefits than that given to the country by the National Democratic convention of 1896. There within the shadow of Wall street, against the combined opposition of those once leading Democrats of New York who have left the Democratic party and either gone over entirely to the Republicans or stopped for a moment at a half way house, the Democracy of New York declares the platform adopted at Chicago is the most Democratic platform ever put before the country by a Democratic convention. In the state of Connecticut they have also indorsed our platform, and likewise in Pennsylvania and New Jersev. In other Eastern states the Democracy is beginning to realize that the Chicago platform presents to the American people those great issues around which the people must cluster if they are going to retain a government of, by and for the people. "The three parties which have joined in my nomination agree that while there are other issues before the American people aside from the money question, yet the money question rises paramount to them all and must be settled first. Other questions can wait, the money question cannot. It has been forced upon publie attention. It has been brought before the people and we have to decide whether we shall continue the present financial system wherein a few men have undertaken to run the government or shall put the financial policy of the American people in the hands of the American people to be framed by them and form them now.

LONDON BADLY SCARED.

Dynamite Attacks on Famous Bailding Feared.

LONDON, Nept. 19. -As a result, of the disclosures said to have been made in documents found tn the rooms in a Glasgow hotel occupied by Edward J. Ivory, alias Edward Bell of New York, who has been brought here from Glasgow on the charge of being concerned in the dynamite conspiracy, the number of policemen on duty in plain clothes at the houses of Parliament, the Mansion house, the Royal exchange, the British museum, St. Paul's cathedral, Westminster abbey and other public places, have been doubled.

The war office has also taken additional precautions here, besides doubling the force of police and sentinels who are guarding the powder magazines at Woolwich.

The Irish home office took the necessary steps yesterday to secure the extradition of Tynan.

M. Bossu, the deputy public prosecutor of Boulogne-sur-Mer in charge of the case against Tynan, received a violent letter to-day informing him, in the name of a committee of Invincibles and the Anarchist brotherhood. that unless Tynan should be released within twenty-four hours he, M. Bossu, would be blown up with dynamite. The letter was written with a red fluid, believed to be blood, was dated Thursday, September 17, and was posted at Laon, capital of the department of Aisne, about eighty-six miles from Paris.

MR. PUGSLEY EXONERATED

The Warrensburg Preacher Vindicated by the Conference-Deering Denounced. NEVADA, Mo., Sept. 19 .- The committee appointed by the Methodist Episcopal church, South, to hear the charges preferred against the Rev. Neil Pugsley of Warrensburg by Miss Eva Mullins of Columbia, Mo., made its report this morning as follows:

"After having carefully and prayerfully heard, weighed and considered all the evidence bearing on the case, we find the specifications not proven and the charge not sustained. A. G. Dinwiddie, L. B. Ellis. W. M. Bowley, W. F. Briggs, J. Y. Busby, W.B. Cobb, J. W. Howell, J. J. Reed, Jacob Shoot, M. M. Pugh, chairman; Charles W. Moore, secretary."

The committee was in session until 2 o'clock this morning. The woman who preferred the charges did not appear to prosecute.

Yesterday afternoon a resolution was introduced and passed unanimously, after some sharp remarks by Presiding Elder Briggs and other members, denouncing Evangelist Ben Deering as not a member of the church for years and protesting against recognition and support of him by Southern Methodists.

THE MAINE ELECTION.

REPUBLICANS SUCCESSFUL BY INCREASED MAJORITIES.

Congressmen Reed, Boutelle, Milliken and Dingley Returned by a Flattering Vote-The Home of Mr. Sewall Gives an Increased Republican Vote-Views of the Democratic State Chairman.

The Result in Maine.

AUGUSTA, Me., Sept. 16 .- Maine has given the Republican state ticket a plurality of between 40,000 and 50,000. Hon. T. B. Reed is re-elected to the house by over 10,000 plurality. The returns show a majority of about 12,-000 for Mr. Dingley for congressman from the Second district; over 12,000 for Mr. Milliken in the Third district. and practically the same for Mr. Boutelle in the Fourth district.

In the state legislature the Democrats will apparently have less than half a dozen of the representatives in the house and not one in the senate.

The Populist and the Prohibitionist votes have been received from only a few towns, but it is evident that neither party polled as large a vote as two years ago.

Everywhere the most remarkable gains are shown over two and four years ago. Not only has the Republican vote made great gains, but the Democratic vote has fallen off, even though the Democrats received great accessions from the Populists, who cast a light vote this year, preferring to aid the Democrats rather than vote their own ticket. In many towns more than a third of the former Demcratic vote was cast for the Republican ticket.

Two hundred towns give Powers 52,950; Frank, 24,830; Republican plurality, 28,620. The plurality of 375 for Powers, Republican, for governor, at Bath, is the largest plurality ever given there. For Congress Dingley gained 254 over his 1892 plurality. Bath is the home of Arthur Sewall, Demorratic candidate for vice president.

MAINE RETURNS.

the Republican Plurality Will Be Over 48,000-Estimates of the Total Vote. PORTLAND, Maine, Sept. 15.-Returns from remote towns and plantations are coming in slowly, but it is almost beyond question that the Republican plurality will be over 48,000 and it may reach 50,000. This is at least 10,-000 over the before phenomenal pluralit= of 38,978 of 1894.

In overv county of the state the Reoublican ticket was successful, and almost every town showed a Repiblican gain. The Democratic vote is about forty per cent less than in 1892.

 Dr. Talmage's Sermon. ***********

Washington, Sept. 20, 1896 .- If the clarion note of this sermon, delivered at the national capital, could sound through Christendom, it would give everything good a new start. Dr. Talmage's text was Romans, 13:12: "The day is at hand."

Back from the mountains and the seaside, and the springs, and the farmhouse, your cheeks bronzed and your spirits lighted, I hail you home again with the words of Gehazi to the Shunammite: "Is it well with thee? is it well with thy husband? is it well with the child?" On some faces I see the mark of recent grief, but all along the track of tears I see the story of resurrection and reunion when all tears are done; the deep ploughing of the keel, followed by the flash of the phosphorescence. Now that I have asked you in regard to your welfare, you naturally ask how I am. Very well, thank you. Whether it was the bracing air of the mountains, or a bath in the surf of Long Island beach, or whether it is the joy of standing in this great group of warm-hearted friends, or whether it is a new appreciation of the goodness of God, I cannot tell. I simply know I am happy. It was said that John Moffatt, the great Methodist preacher, occasionally got fast in his sermon, and to extricate himself would cry "Hallelujah!" I am in no such predicament to-day, but I am full of the same rhapsodic ejaculation. Starting out this morning on a new ecclesiastical year. I want to give you the keynote of my next twelve months' ministry. I want to set it to the tunes of "Antioch," "Ariel," and "Coronation." I want to put a new trumpet stop into my sermons. We do wrong if we allow our personal sorrows to interfere with the glorious fact that the kingdom is coming. We are wicked if we allow apprehension of national disaster to put down our faith in God and in the mission of our American people. The God who hath been on the side of this nation since the Fourth of July, 1776. will see to it that this nation shall not commit suicide on November 3d, 1896. By the time the unparalleled harvests of this summer get down to the seaboard we shall be standing in a sunburst of national prosperity that will paralyze the pessimists who by their evil prophecies are blaspheming the God who hath blest this nation as he hath blest no other.

In all our Christian work you and I want more of the element of gladness. No man had a right to say that Christ never laughed. Do you suppose that he was glum at the wedding in Cana of Galilee? Do you suppose that Christ was uaresponsive when the children clambered over his knee and shoulder at his own invitation? Do you suppose that the Evangelist meant nothing when he said of Christ: "He rejoiced in spirit?" Do you believe that the Divine Christ who pours all the waters over the rocks at Vernal Falls, Yosemite, does not believe in the sparkle and gallop and tumultuous joy and rusing raptures of human life? I believe not only that the morning laughs, and that the mountains laugh, and that the seas laugh, and that the cascades laugh, but that Christ laughed. Moreover, take a laugh and a tear into an alembic, and assay them, and test them, and analyze them, and you will often find as much of the pure gold of religion in a laugh as in a tear. Deep spiritual joy always shows itself in facial illumination. John Wesley said he was sure of a good religious impression being produced because of what he calls the great gladness he saw among the people. Godless merriment is blasphemy anywhere, but expression

I find another ray of dawn in the compression of the world's distances. What a slow, snail-like, almost impossible thing would have been the world's rectification with fourteen hundred millions of population and no facile means of communication; but now. through telegraphy for the eye and telephonic intimacy for the ear, and through steamboating and railroading. the twenty-five thousand miles of the world's circumference are shriveling up into insignificant brevity! Hong Kong is nearer to New York than a few years ago New Haven was; Bombay, Moscow, Madras, Melbourne within speaking distance. Purchase a telegraphic chart, and by blue lines see the telegraphs of the land, and by the red lines the cables under the ocean. You see what opportunity this is going to give for the final movements of Chris-

One more ray of the dawn I see in facts chronological and mathematical. Come now, do not let us do another stroke of work until we have settled one matter. What is going to be the final issue of this great contest between sin and righteousness? Which is going to prove himself the stronger, God or Diabolus? Is this world going to be all garden or all desert? Now let us have that matter settled. If we believe Isaiah, and Ezekiel and Hosea, and Micah, and Malachi, and John, and Peter, and Paul, and the Lord himself, we believe that it is going to be all garden. But let us have it settled. Let us know whether we are working on toward a success or toward a dead failure. If there is a child in your house sick, and you are sure he is going to get well, you sympathize with present pains, but all the foreboding is gone. If you are in a cyclone off the Florida coast, and the captain assures you the vessel is staunch and the winds are changing for a better quarter, and he is sure he will bring you safe into the harbor, you patiently submit to present distress with the thought of safe arrival. Now I want to know whether we are coming on toward dismay, darkness and defeat, or on toward light and blessedness. You and I believe the latter, and if so, every year we spend is one year subtracted from the world's woe, and every event that passes, whether bright or dark, brings us one event nearer a happy consummation, and by all that is inexorable in chronology and mathematics I commend you to good cheer and courage. If there is anything in arithmetic, if you subtract two from five and leave three, then by every rolling sun we are coming on teward a magnificent terminus. Then every winter passed is one severity less for our poor world. Then every summer gone by brings us nearer unfading arborescence. Put your algebra down on the top of your Bible and rejoice. If it is nearer morning at three o'clock than it is at two, if it is nearer morning at four o'clock than it is at three, then we are nearer the dawn of the world's deliverance. God's clock seems to go very slowly, but the pendulum swings, and the hands move, and it will yet strike noon. The sun and the moon stood still once; they will never stand still again until they stop forever. If you believe arithmetic as well as your Bible, you must believe we are nearer the dawn. "The day is at hand." Beloved people, I preach this sermon because I want you to toil with the sunlight in your faces. I want you old men to understand before you die that all the work you did for God while yet your ear was alert and your foot fleet is going to be counted up in the final victories. I want all these younger people to understand, that when they toil for God they always win the day; that all prayers are answered and all Christian work is in some way effectual, and that the tide is setting in the right direction, and that all heaven is on our side-saintly, cherubic, archangelic, omnipotent, chariot and throne, doxology and procession, principalities and dominion, he who hath the moon under his feet, and all the armies of heaven on white horses. Brother! brother! all I am afraid of is, not that Christ will lose the battle, but that you and I will not get into it quick enough to do something worthy of our blood-bought immortality. O Christ, how shall I meet thee, thou of the scarred brow and the scarred back and the scarred hand and the scarred foot and the scarred breast, if I have no scars or wounds gotten in thy service? It shall not be so. I step out to-day in front of the battle. Come on, ye foes of God, I dare you to the combat! Come on, with pens dipped in malignancy. Come on, with tongues forked and viperine. Come on with types soaked in the scum of the eternal pit. I defy you! Come on! I bare my brow, I uncover my heart. Strike! I cannot see my Lord until I have been hurt for Christ. If we do not suffer with him on earth, we cannot be glorified with him in heaven. Take good heart. On! On! On! See! the skies have brightened! See! the hour is about to come. Pick out all the

A Singular Form of Monomania.

There is a class of, people, rational enough in other respects, who are certainly monomaniacs in desing themselves. McKinley to Iron Men.

CANTON, O., Sept. 19 .- When he appeared before the 2,000 workmen from the Edgar Thompson Steel works of Braddock, Pa., yesterday, Mr. Mc-Kinley welcomed them briefly and then declared that a wise protective policy had made them happy and prosperous. He declared that old lines had been effaced and men heretofore opposed met on a common platform to sustain the country's honor. Restoration of public an private confidence was most necessary. This had been shaken especially by assaults made by allied political organizations upon the credit and currency of the country. This new menace would have to be averted before the people could hope to have any permanent prosperity.

"According to a census recently taken by a newspaper in New York it appears that in July, 1892, 577 employers of labor in the United States gave work to 114,231 hands. How was it in July, 1896? (Cries of "Not so good.") The same employers gave work to 73,700 hands; 35,531 men who had been employed in 1892 were thrown out of employment in 1896 and put in a state of idleness, resulting in a loss of more than 30 per cent to labor. In July, 1892, the wages paid to the 114,281 hands amounted to $3,927,000. In July, 1896, the earnings of the 78,700 hands amounced to only $2,469,712, a loss to labor in a single month in those establishments of SL-457,000, or 40 per cent. (A voice: "Pennsylvania knows it.")

"Yes, and Pennsylvania, like all the rest of the country, will vote this year with knowledge. (Cries of "Bight, right.")

"In 1892 the monthly average of wages paid in these establishments was $34.59, in 1896 only $31.

"My countrymen. I am one of those Americans who believe that the American workshop should be protected so far as possible from foreign workshop, to the end that American workingmen may be constantly employed, and so protected, too, as to be employed at American wages. (Tremendous cheering and cries of "What's the matter with McKinley? He's all right ') Nor do I want products cheapened at the expense of American manhood. (Applause.) Nor do I think it is economy to buy goods cheaply abroad if thereby it enforces idleness at home. (Renewed applause.)

CANTON'S BIG OPENING.

Thousands of Republicans Present-Mc Kinley in the Parade.

CANTON, Ohio, Sept. 19-To-day the Republican campaign in the home city of the Republican presidential nominee was formally opened and streets were strung with streamers and banners and flags, arches with welcoming mottoes spanned the thoroughfares and buildings, public and private, were draped with flags and bunting, many shops and factories were closed for the day, and most of the business houses were open only during the morning.

Major McKinley, the visiting speakers, the officers of the day and guests of honor rode in open carriages at the head of the parade. A short line of march brought the paraders to a tent with accommodations for 20,000 people. The addresses were made by Senators Cullom of Illinois and Thurston of Nebraska.

England Is Unwilling to Act Alone to Aid Armenlans.

LONDON, Sept. 19.-The foreign office has given out the following semiofficial note:

"The outburst of the continental press against Great Britain, which is accused of selfish designs in the East, has astonished official circles. Nothing that is being done, or contemplated by the government, could give the slightest color to such assertions. If the powers cannot see their way to adopt means to co-operate to end the carnage, the only course open to Great Britain is to stand aside and to hope for a more satisfactory state of affairs.'

About half of this went to the Republican ticket and the stay-at-homes are responsible for the other half. The vote of the Populists and Probibitionists throughout the state showed a loss from 1892 of about twenty-six per cent

The vote from 300 out of 519 cities. towns and plantations is 66,921 for Powers and 27,143 for Frank. In the last election in 1894, when Cleaves was elected by the then unprecedented majority of 39,000, these towns gave the Republican ticket 56,409 and the Democratic 24,230, a Republican gain in plurality of 2,913 this year. Estimating the vote of the missing towns two years ago, if this proportion of gain is kept up, the total vote will be 124,000 in round numbers, of which the Republican total is placed at 83,-160; the Democratic at 34,340 and scattering at 6,500-a Republican plurality of 48,820. Anything more than a rough estimate of the plurality based on the figures of last year in missing towns is impossible.

DEMOCRATIC CHAIRMAN TALES.

He Declares That the Result Is Just What Everybody Expected.

BATH, Me., Sept. 16.-George E. Hughes, chairman of the Democratic State committee, said:

"The result is just what everybody expected. The only significant thing about it is the large vote given for the Democratic candidate and free silver after such a short campaign.

"The Republican managers have worked night and day, spent thousands of dollars and poured spellbinders from other States in upon us by the score in an effort to secure a majority that they could point to us and say: 'See what Maine has done; free silver is not wanted here. The majority shows that the people do not want i'. "The result indicates nothing definite. Before the campaign opened it was evident that it was absolutely impossib.a to carry the state, and it would have been the height of folly to have made the attempt. There is every reason to believe that the great advance which free silver has made in the state in the last few weeks will continue, and you may be sure that Maine will give a good account of herself in November."

of Christian joy is appropriate everywhere. Moreover, the outlook of the world ought to stir us to gladness. Astronomers disturbed many people by telling them that there was danger of stellar collision. We were told by these astronomers that there are worlds coming very near together, and that we shall have plagues, and wars, and tumults, and perhaps the world's destruction. Do not be scared. If you have ever stood at a railroad center, where ten, or twenty, or thirty rail tracks cross each other, and seen that by the movement of the switch one or two inches the train shoots this way and that, without colliding, then you may understand how fifty worlds may come within an inch of disaster, and that inch be as good as a million miles. If a human switch-tender can shoot the trains this way and that without harm. cannot the hand that for thousands of years has upheld the universe, keep our little world out of harm's way?
