FIFTEENTH YEAR

McCOOK, RED WILLOW COUNTY, NEBRASKA, FRIDAY EVENING, OCTOBER 9, 1896.

NUMBER 21

MILLINERY OPENING

A Motion for a Review of a Somewhat Famous Land Case Denied.

BIG POPULIST BLOW-OUT ANNOUNCED

Valentine at Stratton--Selfridge and Heartley--Another Lie Nailed--Freedom is Beaten Again Etc., Etc.

Last Saturday afternoon and evening, Mrs. M. E. Barger held her fall opening of millinery, and her establishment was visited by many lady callers of the city during the event, which was auspicious and satisfactory, to both callers and proprietress. The display of trimmed hats was numerous, attractive and stylish, and elicited many exclamations of surprise and pleasure from those present.

The display of millinery and novelties was unusually large; of feathers, ribbons, flowers, etc., there was a large and pretty variety.

In the dressmaking department were shown a number of evidences of the tastefulness and skill of Mrs. Rittenhouse, who is in charge of that department.

Altogether the display was highly creditable and attractive.

Mrs. Barger presented her callers with a souvenir, and artificial rose buttonhole bouquet, upon which were stamped the likenesses of the principal national candidates.

Motion for Review Refused.

Secretary Francis, Saturday last, rendered a number of land decisions, his first since assuming office. The cause of the United States against Thomas Cooper, William J. Gillen and Kit Carson Cattle company, from the McCook district of Nebraska, was finally disposed of by the secretary's refusing to entertain a motion filed by the defendants for a review of the departmental decision refusing to reinstate the McGillen homestead entry. It was held that the cattle company was not an innocent purchaser within the meaning of the act of March 3, 1891.

Attracted Much Attention.

P. F. McKenna recently bought the Joe McKeever dwelling in West McCook, together with two lots, for $200. The building was on Wednesday afternoon, moved over onto South Monmouth street. J. S. McBrayer did the moving, using Joseph Snyder's traction engine for motive power, which attracted considerable attention by the ease with which it pulled the heavy load on trucks.

Valentine at Stratton.

Supt. Valentine of the McCook public schools addressed a large audience in the opera hall at Stratton, last Saturday afternoon, in his most convincing language. The glee club composed of Messrs. E. E. Magee, Roy Smith, Ray McCarl and Bert Beyrer and the McKinley martial band accompanied him and added a large element of enthusiasm to the occasion. The band appeared to add in new uniforms.

Selfridge--Heartley.

At the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Nettleton, near Sedalia, Colo., Miss Alice M. Heartley to Mr. William O. Selfridge of Sterling, Rice county, Kansas, Rev. J. H. Beitel officiating. The best wishes of her many monument friends will follow the bride as she goes with her husband to their home in Kansas where Mr. Selfridge has a fine farm.—Monument (Colo.) Messenger.

Another Lie Nailed.

We violate no confidence in pronouncing as absolutely false the rumor that Jasper S. Phillips of the Indianola Reporter carries his lunch with him and sleeps under the blue vault when he comes to McCook, to avoid buying anything in or of McCook. Jasper puts up with Mine Host O'Leary like the real, royal nabob he is.

A Big Populist Blowout.

THE TRIBUNE understands that the Populists are arranging for a big blowout in our city, Saturday, the occasion of J. R. Sutherland's speech. There is to be a torchlight procession with brass bands, martial bands, cavalry and footmen galore, and embracing delegations from all over the county. They expect to eclipse all previous efforts.

Freedom Loses Again.

Quite an interesting ball game was that played on the local grounds, last Friday afternoon, between the McCook and Freedom clubs. At one time the Freedom boys seemed to have a fair show to succeed, but the opportunity was lost, and McCook won the game by a score of 24 to 17.

McConnell's Balsam cures coughs.

OLMSTEAD'S SCHOOL OF FINANCE.

A Big Torchlight Procession Preceded the Instruction in Finance.

McCook indulged in another successful Republican demonstration, last Friday evening. There was a big torchlight procession, headed by the McKinley martial band in their new uniforms of duck pants, red coats and blue caps, with enthusiasm to match. After indulging in some marching the column separated and the speaker of the evening, F. P. Olmstead of Hastings, was escorted between the lines to the opera house, where the school of finance was held. It is regarded by many that Mr. Olmstead's school was one of the most convincing arguments of the campaign. The figures and arguments of the gentleman carried force with them and were received with earnestness and enthusiasm. It was one of the successful rallies of the fall.

Caldwell of Lincoln Speaks.

J. L. Caldwell of Lincoln addressed a good sized audience in the opera house, Saturday afternoon last. Mr. Caldwell is a speaker of force and discussed the issues of the campaign from the Republican point of view with most satisfactory clearness and skill, and his efforts were well received.

There were a few narrow escapes, but no casualties. Floyd Berry was driving James McAdams' horse out east on Dennison street and had to do some quick moving to keep out of the way of the runaways.

An incipient blaze at the Cottage Grove resort of ill-fame was controlled by the bucket brigade, last Friday evening, without calling upon the fire department. We understand that the fire was on the outside of the building, and incendiaryism is suggested.

There will be a stupendous torchlight procession with large marching clubs from the towns of McCook, Bartley, Lebanon, Indianola, Danbury, Arapahoe and Cambridge. A number of brass and martial bands will participate in the parade and for numbers and enthusiasm the event is expected to eclipse anything in the political line ever attempted in Southwestern Nebraska.

The pupils of the public schools were much disappointed at not hearing and seeing Governor Holcomb on Thursday. By some misarrangement the Governor stopped off at Indianola on Wednesday night, and did not arrive in our city till last evening. The disappointment was not confined to teachers and pupils, as quite a few visitors hoped to have the same pleasure.

GOVERNOR HOLCOMB TALKS.

Addressed a Large Audience in the Opera House, Last Evening.

A large audience greeted Governor Silas A. Holcomb in the Menard opera house, last evening, the people of the city and vicinity irrespective of politics attending the meeting and listening to his speech.

He spoke on the issues of the day from the conservative Populistic point of view briefly, and devoted some time to a discussion of state affairs.

It is but fair to state that the governor made no unpleasant impression in this city, if he made no converts to his cause and ticket. The state has few reasons to be ashamed of Governor Holcomb, if it does not agree with his vagaries of politics.

Epworth League Rally.

The Epworth Leagues of McCook, Box Elder and Culbertson indulged in a rally in this place, last Sunday afternoon and evening. The afternoon session was presided over by E. L.
