NEBRASKA.

Corn husking is now going forward vigorously.

Bank robbers appear to be in evidence in many parts of the state.

From now until November 3 business will have to stand aside for politics.

Senator Foraker of Ohio made a political address at Fairbury last week.

Buffalo Bill of Nebraska fame, gave his Wild West show in Omaha last week.

Hard coal has again gone up, the railroads having increased the hauling rates.

Everybody who can make a political speech is called into service in Nebraska this year.

In no part of the state was the corn caught by frost, and the crop is everywhere great.

The National beekeepers association convention in Lincoln last week was well attended.

Cass county's fair was well attended and there was a splendid array of Nebraska products.

Thomas Reed, Speaker of the house, is coming to Nebraska to make two or three political speeches.

Robert Kunath, an Omaha butcher, was found dead in bed last week, having expired from apoplexy.

Footpads attempted to hold up R. S. Haskall of Fremont, but he made a vigorous fight, thereby saving the money in his jeans.

Word was received at Ashland that Frank Enlow, formerly a member of the Ashland high school and foot ball team, had met death suddenly at Quincy, Ill.

Mrs. M. J. Sibley of Nebraska City, aged 70 years, suffered a stroke of paralysis from the effects of which she died soon after. She leaves a son, Horace, who is a missionary in China.

The 11-months-old baby of R. Nesbet, a farmer living south of Fullerton, swallowed a quarter of a grain of morphine, which had fallen from the top of a table. The little one's life was finally saved.

A small boy, son of A. C. Wall, a farmer, living near Albion, died last week from burns he received by his clothing catching fire. This is the third death in the county within the week caused by burning.

Five or six of the latest potato digging machines are at work near North Loup on the potato fields and are turning them out at a rapid rate, although the yield is not as good as last year. About 50,000 bushels are awaiting buyers.

The two men who stole W. T. Hsieh's team at Tecumseh, were captured at Maitland, Mo., and Sheriff W. H. Woolsey brought them back. When captured the men had traded off a portion of the stolen property. The Maitland authorities will get the $50 reward offered by Johnson county commissioners for the apprehension of the culprits.

There was a large attendance at the funeral of John D. Neligh in West Point. Mr. Neligh was the founder of that town, also that of Neligh City. He was six times mayor of West Point, member of the legislature and delegate to the constitutional convention. He was also one of Nebraska's delegates to the national republican convention which nominated General Grant for president.

One of the most important transactions effected by the North American Beekeepers association at Lincoln on the closing day of its annual session, was the adoption section by section of the constitution of the National Beekeepers' union, whose headquarters is San Diego, Cal. This consolidation will give to every North American honey raiser legal protection in all disputes ending in the courts.

The office of county commissioner of the second district of Johnson county is now vacant. The vacancy is caused by the death of J. T. Hedrick. Had his death occurred a week ago the vacancy could have been filled at the forthcoming election according to law. As it is the successor will have to be appointed and the appointive power is vested in a board composed of the county clerk, county treasurer and county judge.

The United States civil service commission will hold an examination at the postoffice in Lincoln, commencing at 9 a. m., October 21, to fill a vacancy in the position of firemen, in the custodian's service in that city at a salary of $720 per annum. Those desiring to be examined for this position should write to the civil service commission, Washington, D. C., for an application blank and information in regard to the examination.

Buffalo Bill (W. F. Cody) was given a great send-off at North Platte his home. The attendance at the after-noon performance was 15,000 and at the evening 5,000. The bringing of the class of people which Buffalo Bill has with him to town caused a reproduction in North Platte of the scenes of the '60s and '70s. The American and Mexican cowboys were present, as well as big American Indians. The Indians swarmed through town and the cowboys got full and rode their ponies into the crowded saloons. Col. Cody "set 'em up" to the town and everybody drank to his health as a royal good fellow.

Rev. James Lisie, for the past two years the resident pastor of the M. E. church at North Loup, preached his closing sermon last Sunday and will retire temporarily from the ministry. He left to join his family in Brown county and intends engaging, for the next year, in secular pursuits.

The store of McKillop & Mumau at Tobias was robbed last week. It appears that the thieves entered by way of a rear door, which had been left unlocked. The store presented a very untidy appearance, clothing, hats, caps, boots and shoes were thrown about promiscuously. No estimate can be made of the amount stolen.

Ex-Senator Paddock and C. S. Smith of the First national bank of Beatrice, says a Washington dispatch, called on Comptroller Eckles with reference to the closed institution. They explained to him that they were on their way east for the purpose of floating $50,000 worth of stock of the bank, which present holders have agreed to part with. Comptroller Eckles has agreed to extend to the bank all facilities in his power in order that it may reopen.

The two men who were arrested in Wahoo a few days ago and who were thought to have cracked a safe at Brainard, and robbed the bank of Shelby, were taken to Lincoln, in order that parties might come there from Clytonia who could possibly identify them as the men who robbed the bank at that place a short time ago. Up to date there is no proof of sufficient character to convict them, and it is thought probable that the officers are on the wrong trail.

A patient at the Hastings hospital for the chronic insane, met with an accident which resulted in death while attempting to escape at midnight. She has always been troublesome, having previously made attempts to escape. She was confined in a room by herself and the window was guarded by iron gratings. She pulled the bolts from the door hinges and took the door out of the frame. Then in attempting to let herself down she fell with the result before stated.

Rev. L. B. Turman, the venerable M. E. minister who lived three miles north-east of Table Rock, on a farm, died last week at the advanced age of 77 years, 5 months and 10 days. He was one of the first ministers in the state, having located at Rock Bluffs, Cass county, in 1854. He afterward located for a time on Salt creek, near the present city of Lincoln, long before that city was dreamed of. He made a tour of seven counties, preaching in sixteen different places.

Sheriff John E. Runchev of Webster county last week brought C. W. Drake to the penitentiary. Drake was sent up for four years for rape. He adopted a young girl before he had any children, and an illicit intercourse was carried on from the time she was 9 years of age. She was finally married to a respectable young man. Her sister learned of her debauchery and had Drake arrested and prosecuted. Drake is a man well along in years and has a wife and family of five children.

Burglars effected an entrance into the bank of Brainard by forcing open the front doors. They then inserted nitro-glycerine into the outer doors of the large fire and burglar proof safe. It was exploded and tore the large doors from their hinges, hurling them across the room. Another charge was then placed in the inner burglar-proof chest, and another fuse was lighted. The first explosion awakened the cashier and as he appeared the robbers escaped without securing any booty.

Washington dispatch: The superintendent of buildings of the treasury department, has opened bids for the supplying of furniture for the new public building at Sioux City. There were twelve proposals submitted, of which that of the East Omaha Manufacturing company of Omaha was the lowest, at $4,554. The same company was also the lowest bidder for supplying the furniture for the new public building at Fargo, N. D., at $2,770, in competition with the same number of bidders. The company will probably be awarded both contracts.

A bold and successful highway robbery was made in Stanton county. Louis Mick and Joe Carmon, two thrifty farmers, living about nine miles northwest of Clarkson, were at that place each with a load of hogs. Having received their money, they started home. Mick was overtaken by three men and asked for a ride. Later they held him up, getting all his money. He made a hard fight but was overpowered and robbed, but not until he had torn the mask from one of the robbers and identified him as one of the men who had been following him. Three men, supposed to be the guilty parties, are under arrest.

As an exhibition of the products of western Nebraska, the North Platte irrigation fair is said to have been equal to any of the fairs of larger reputation. The displays in the agricultural, horticultural, poultry, fish, art, stock, irrigation and machinery departments were first-class in every department. Col. Cody had on exhibition at the grounds a herd of thirteen buffaloes. The leader of the herd is the bull that killed one of Cody's Indians at Antwerp, and had to be left out of the show because of its viciousness. Cody also has on exhibition the Texas steer which fell off the boat in Mobile bay and swam ten miles across the bay to the shore.

The twenty-fourth annual convention of the Nebraska synod convened in the Lutheran church of Stella, of which Rev. W. C. McCool is pastor, last week. The opening sermon was delivered by Rev. Luther P. Ludden of Lincoln. Horace Martin extended the synod a welcome on behalf of the church, the homes and the town, which was responded to in a most happy vein by Rev. Dr. Kuhus of Omaha. The election of officers resulted: President, Rev. Ludden, Lincoln; Secretary, Rev. Kuhus, Omaha; treasurer S. C. Crouse, Lincoln; statistical secretary, Rev. Wolfe, Surprise. The retiring president, Rev. McCool of Stella, presented his final report, showing gratifying progress during the year.

Mrs. Pinkava, the Bohemian woman whose husband so brutally assaulted her near Adams, is still alive, but no hopes are entertained for her recovery.

A special election was held at Falls City to vote bonds to extend and improve the electric light system. Considerable opposition existed to issuing more bonds, but the proposition carried by a small majority.

The first shipment of beets to the Norfolk sugar factory from that vicinity was made last week. F. F. Brown has a force of men at work digging beets and will get theirs out as soon as possible. Other beet growers are also preparing to ship. The crop is well matured, and it is thought the most of them will meet the test of 12 per cent saccharine content and 80 per cent coefficient purity.

TYNAN AS A PROPHET.

RELEASED DYNAMITER PREDICTS DISASTER.

STILL FIGHTING ENGLAND.

He Prophecies the Early Downfall of the British Empire—Russia and France Said to Be Conspiring Against Her—The Phoenix Park Murders Discussed Very Passionately.

NEW YORK, Oct. 19.—A special to the Herald from Boulogne-Sur-Mer says: P. J. Tynan is a free man. His release was unconditional. He will go to Paris at once and will sail for New York by the next steamer. In an interview he said: "Whatever the nature of my mission to Europe was it has been more than successful. I look for the establishment in the near future of an independent Irish republic. The object of my visit was not as attributed to it by the press. There never was any idea of a plot against the czar, and there never was any idea of doing any injury to the queen of Great Britain, poor old lady. That's an absurdity. We Irishmen have nothing to do with things of that kind. As for the czar, I would myself stand between him and danger as I would between danger and my own son.

"I believe in dynamite as a weapon of war, and we Irish Nationalists are at war with Great Britain. The Irish people in America proved their Union in Chicago last October, when I was a delegate to the convention there, by establishing an Irish national alliance, a public organization for the establishment of an Irish republic. The object of the alliance is plainly stated, and it means to attain that object, it is equally plainly stated, by force. I include dynamite and every other method of warfare in force, just as the United States government includes the Zolinski gun."

Then Tynan spoke for a considerable time on the subject of the hour. A twenty-mile ditch, he said, alone was between England and an invasion by a French army, and 100,000 men would sweep the country. The British army, he asserted, is composed of the riff-raff of the cities, while its inefficiency is the laughing stock of the experts of continental Europe. Russia, he said, is moving on India, and the downfall of the British empire with Macaulay's prophecy of the New Zealanders on the ruins of London bridge, would undoubtedly be realized within the present generation.

In the course of the talk Tynan was asked point blank what was his connection with the Phoenix park murders. Tynan begged the question, saying the deed done in Dublin on May 6, 1882, was not the act of one man or two men or a small body of men, but of the whole Irish National party. The blows that struck down Cavendish and Burke were struck by the Irish race. What he was charged with was one of the phases of that cruel war waged for centuries between Ireland and England. Englishmen speak of May 6, 1882, but conveniently forget the assassinations of the night previous, when boys in the Ballinarr were stabbed and shot by British hired assassins—when one little fellow 12 years old fell down littering in his blood, and expired in the presence of his agonized father.

"They forget," he said, "the brutal assassination of Helen McDermott, a young girl in the bloom of womanhood, brutally stabbed to death by the knives of England's hired bravadoes. They forget the murder of Mary Dean, and her aged mother, assassinated by Buckshot Forster. All these infamous crimes are ignored by the British press and public. Coroners' juries in Ireland rendered verdicts of willful murder against the assassins, but England made no arrests. Instead of that she conferred honors and promotions on her wretched criminals. But the great and good God, who visits with punishment nations as well as individuals, will soon shower upon the head of this wicked nation fitting retribution for the many crimes already committed. The instruments of His vengeance are mustering their forces, and the present generation will witness the destruction of this modern Babylon, drunk with the blood of the people."

HAS BRITAIN YIELDED?

Report That She Has Consented to Arbitrate the Venezuela Matter.

CHICAGO, Oct. 19.—The Times-Herald prints the following dispatch from Washington: "President Cleveland, in his next annual message to Congress, will be able to state that a definite understanding has been reached with Great Britain for the amicable settlement of the long-pending Venezuelan boundary dispute by reference to a peaceful arbitration."

WILD ADVANCE IN WHEAT.

The Chicago Prices Advance Five Cents a Bushel.

CHICAGO, Oct. 19.—Wheat in Chicago went up almost four cents a bushel to-day during the regular session, and advanced a cent further on the curb, selling at 76½c for December and over 81c for May. The price was up nearly two cents at the start, and it hardly stopped advancing for a moment during the day. The foreign markets showed more strength than at any time yet. Over night offers of wheat by cable at what looked like extravagant prices were accepted and advanced bids made for more. Liverpool made an advance of three cents. At San Francisco wheat went up five cents. All the continental markets were correspondingly strong. There were more stories of famine in India and of the prospect of continued purchases of wheat for that country.

WATSON TO MEET JONES.

A Private Conference Arranged for Monday—A Marked Change Possible.

THOMPSON, Ga., Oct. 19.—Major J. W. Robertson and Judge John J. Hunt, Democratic leaders, arrived here last night and were immediately driven to the house of Thomas E. Watson and remained in consultation with him until a late hour. As a result, it can be stated authoritatively that Mr. Watson will meet Senator Jones, chairman of the Democratic national committee, in Atlanta next Monday to talk over the campaign. It is said that it is likely that in a short time Mr. Watson will be actively stumping Kansas for Mr. Bryan.

HANNA'S FLAG DAY IDEA.

October 31 Suggested for a General Display by All Republicans.

CHICAGO, Oct. 19.—Chairman Hanna of the Republican national committee promulgated the following to-day as "a suggestion to good citizens": "The American flag has been in the present campaign the emblem or insignia of national honor. I therefore suggest that on Saturday, October 31, all who intend to vote on November 3 for the preservation of our national honor, display the national colors at their homes, their places of business and wherever they may be seen."

HIS STEALINGS CROWING.

The Shortages of Banker Rambusch of Juneau, Wis., Very Heavy.

JUNEAU, Wis., Oct. 19.—The amount of stealings of W. T. Rambusch, the fugitive banker, keeps on growing and it is now estimated that the total will reach $300,000, while Sheriff Binte places the figures at $500,000. Nothing has been heard from Rambusch since the letter to his wife received Thursday. It is believed that he is on the ocean bound for Norway.

THOMPSON, Ga., Oct. 19.—Thomas E. Watson yesterday forwarded papers to Kansas notifying the secretary of state to take his name as nominee for vice president from the head of the Breidenthal Populist ticket. The necessary affidavit, in due form, authorizing the withdrawal from that ticket, accompanied the other papers.

Denver Train Robbers Caught.

CHICAGO, Oct. 19.—After a search of two years the police have arrested Frank Murray and James Bartlett, who are said to be wanted in Denver for alleged connection with the wrecking of a train on the Santa Fe railway and the robbery of some of the passengers. The supposed identification was brought about by a circular sent out by Sheriff Burchinell and Leonard de Lue, chief of police of Denver, October 15, 1894.

To Offset Bryan's Last Tour.

CHICAGO, Oct. 19.—Vice Chairman Hopkins of the Palmer and Buckner campaign committee received a letter from Euclid Martin of Nebraska to-day urging him to persuade John P. Irish to visit that state and follow Mr. Bryan on his tour from Lincoln on the day before election through Nebraska. The plans that have been made for Colonel Irish, however, can hardly be altered and some other speaker will have to be secured.

JONES SAYS QUAY IS WILD

Democratic Chairman's Figures Are: McKinley, 81; Bryan, 279; Doubtful, 87.

CHICAGO, Oct. 15.—Chairman Jones, of the Democratic national committee, gave out a statement last night characterizing as absurd the figures showing the probable result of the election as given out by Senator Quay. Chairman Jones states that in all the states classed by Senator Quay as doubtful a complete and harmonious fusion between the Democrats, Populists and silver Republicans exists, rendering them certain for Bryan. For the same reason, he classes as doubtful the states of Iowa, Ohio and Wisconsin, and claims for Bryan the electoral votes of Illinois, Indiana, Kansas, Kentucky, Michigan, Minnesota, North Dakota and West Virginia, all of which were claimed for McKinley by Mr. Quay. The table given out by Chairman Jones gives 81 votes as certain for McKinley, 279 for Bryan, and 87 as doubtful.

AGAINST BRYAN.

Bishop Williams of the Protestant Episcopal Church Heard From.

MARQUETTE, Mich., Oct. 15.—Bishop G. Mott Williams of the Protestant Episcopal diocese of Marquette said yesterday:

"The Episcopal church was most largely represented among the signers of the Declaration of Independence and the framers of the constitution of the United States. She has never encouraged her clergy to be personal partisans, yet I would be a dumb guardian of my people should I hesitate to say that any member of the Episcopal church who supports the Chicago platform will do so in the teeth of the moral teachings of his church. I have never been a party man, and do not declare for any personal preference in this election, but I do declare for patriotism, mutual charity and confidence between the rich and poor, anti-sectionalism and honest money."

A McKinley Picture Causes Death.

REMINOTON, Ind., Oct. 15.—Frank Holmes, an old resident of this place, visited the home of Charles Bartholomew, where a picture of McKinley was hanging in the window, and made a remark about it which angered Bartholomew, who seized a base ball bat and struck Holmes over the head, fracturing his skull.

A Voluntary Statement.

From the Herald, Juniata, Neb. I wish to call attention to a voluntary statement made four years ago by one who for twenty-four years suffered the most excruciating pains from Inflammatory Rheumatism, together with St. Vitus' dance, and now is thoroughly cured. This lady, Mrs. Matilda Vanatta, of Juniata, Nebraska, is well-known here, and she cheerfully gave this statement regarding her long suffering and final recovery.

Mrs. Vanatta said she contracted the rheumatism when she was but eight years of age, that she gradually grew worse as years passed by, until she was considered a hopeless invalid, her life being despaired of by her friends, and her relatives at one time were called in, supposing her time had really come. During all this time she was under the constant care of different physicians, and had tried every known remedy that was recommended for her disease, until a fortune was spent, and still no relief obtained. She said it would be hard to estimate the amount of medicines she had taken.

They had almost given up hope of ever finding a cure, when she chanced to see an advertisement of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. She asked her husband what he thought of that remedy, and he said they could only tell after a trial. So a box was purchased for fifty cents, and the use of this remedy begun. Before the box of pills was gone she began to feel relief. She stopped all other medicines and took them alone from that time on, and now, as a result of these pills, she is a well-to-do woman, does all her own work and is happy, and praises the time when that advertisement came her way. She says she will recommend Pink Pills for Pale People to every one she knows who is afflicted with any like disease, and is willing to give a statement to any one that is troubled with the dread disease, that they too might enjoy health through the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People.

This is to certify that the above statement of Mrs. Matilda Vanatta, of Juniata, Neb., was voluntarily made in person, before me this 3rd day of June, 1896.

(Signed) B. F. HILL, Justice of the Peace, Juniata, Neb.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People are considered an unfailing specific for such diseases as locomotor ataxia, partial paralysis, St. Vitus' dance, sciatica, neuralgia, rheumatism, nervous headache, all diseases resulting from vitiated humors in the blood, such as scrofula, chronic erysipelas, etc. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all dealers, or will be sent postpaid on receipt of price, 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50, by addressing Dr. Williams' Med. Co., Schenectady, N. Y.

ODD SPOKES.

Literally the Japanese for cycling means "living machine."

It is asserted that the output of some manufacturers of wheels of the 1897 model will be no more than a third of their production for this year.

Charles D. Cramp of Philadelphia is at the head of a company of capitalists of that city to erect a large plant at Norristown, Pa., for the manufacture of steel cycle tubing.
