Talmer and Buckner's Experiences.

PARIS, Mo., Oct. 31.-As Generals Palmer and Buckner stood on the rear platform of their car here this morning to speak for the gold standard, a number of young men pushed up with a Bryan banner and flaunted it in the faces of the generals. The disturbers hooted for Bryan, whereat a number of ex-Confederate soldiers cried to General Buckner: "We are ashamed of them."

General Palmer tried to speak, but his words were drowned. "This is a fine country," he exclaimed, finally, "and if you want to argue your causes this way you can do so with impunity."

Fresh shouts of derision greeted General Palmer and the old soldier grew indignant, while his eyes snapped. "Let these fellows with long ears bray," he exclaimed.

T. B Buckner of Kansas City tried to quell the disturbance and finally General Palmer was able to say that TORNADO IN OKLAHOMA, he simply wished to introduce General

General Buckner was cheered, but the crowd set up renewed cheers of "Look at the McKinley Aid Society!"

General Buckner pointed at the banner and said: "Let me tell you who and what constitute the McKinley Aid society." Then referring to Missouri, Illinois, Kentuel:y and Ohio, he said that the free silver agitators were the authors of the Democracy's ruin. "In elected Grover Cleveland, but the last elections in Missouri, in Illinois, in Kentucky, in Ohio, were disastrons because you, you shouters with your and contempt. The banner was then dropped to the ground. After hesitating some moments, the taunting words of General Buckner urged them to raise it again. Mingled cries of "shame" and hoots

General Buckner said: "All through Iowa we were treated with great courtesy. I did not believe that we would be shown such disrespect in Missouri. I do not believe that it went further than the few roughs.

BOONVILLE, Mo., Oct. 30 .- At Favette, a Bryan banner was advanced with an American flag marked: "Fayette Democratic Club," when Generals Palmer and Buckner appeared, and the bearers attempted to put the banner in General Palmer's face. The fighting went on under the eyes of Mrs. Palmer and Mrs. Buckner. The rioters tried to get at the generals and strike them with their Bryan banners. Scores of men fought bitterly around the car and the train had to leave without a word from the candidates being heard.

Before the actual blows began to be exchanged, dozens of citizens rushed up and shook hands with the generals and Pope Yeaman, who was to have introduced them.

Most of the rioters were young men, members of the Fayette Democratic club. They were high white hats with Bryan's name inscribed thereon, and belong to the well-to-do element. There was no warning of the intentions of the Fayette Democratic club.

One of the sisters of Dr. Donaldson three weeks ago received a letter announcing that he had accepted a professorship in one of the medical colleges of San Francisco. Prior to this he lived for some months in New York city. He has written several plays and was ouite a noted amateur actor, though he was never known to aspire to the professional stage.

It is understood that a secret marriage was contracted by the young people in July. The opposition of the bride's mother and the fear that it might injure her professional career have been given as the reason why announcement was not made at the time of the marriage several months ago. The discovery that the facts were known is said to be responsible for the hurried religious ceremony performed last evening.

Pledges by the Sultan.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28.-The Turkish government has notified the signatory powers of its intention to carry out to the fullest extent the entire spirit of the reforms embraced in the treaty of Berlin. The measures to be adopted will carry the reforms not only into the six provinces of Turkey contemplated by the treaty and peopled by Armenians, but will embrace the entire empire.

The authorities at Constantinople have taken steps to counteract the public disfavor against Turkey, due, it s felt, to a lack of knowledge of the conditions surrounding the Armenian troubles. It is pointed out that the Armenian subjects of the sultan have retained their nationality, their religion and their wealth for the last six hundred years under the protection of the Ottoman empire, and that in no other country have the Armenions been protected in this independent exercise of all their rights and privileges. As an evidence of this, the fact is cited that 597 non-Mussulmans are employed in the Turkish government service at Constantinople alone, while the number of Mussulmans in the whole government service there is about 1,800. Considering the difference in population, it is said that the greater proportion of public employment than the Mussulmans. Ordnance Bureau Reports Progres 5 Much Work Done.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28 .- The annual report of Captain Sampson, chief of the naval ordnance bureau shows that a great deal of work has been done during the last fiscal year toward the armament of ships of the navy. Up to date the bureau has built 450 guns of large caliber, has 89 partly completed and has condemned only two. All of the six inch guns on hand are to be converted into rapid firing guns as soon as funds shall be available. The appropriation of $250,000 for reserve guns is being utilized to construct wo 8-irch, two 12-inch and two 13-inch guns and these, with those previously authorized, will supply the needs of the naval service for some time, leaving the only appropriation needed for guns to arm the auxiliary eruisers. Much difficulty has been experienced with brown powder in the large caliber guns and an escape from this by the introduction of smokeless powder of this type for the use of the smaller ealibers is now being made and | So evening was sweet; and, as shadit will be issued soon for all calibers up to six inch.

A large number of five and 'six inch projectiles is still needed and the bureau strongly urges that it be authorized to require a reserve store, as the projectiles improve by the lapse of

During the past year 2,262 tons of armor have been delivered, of which 681 tens were reforged plates. Stand Firm.

An illustration of the activity of mind and the happy results is given by Charles K. Tuckerman in his "Personal Recollections of Notable People."

I was once, when a small boy packed in a dense crowd at a political meeting in Faneuil hall when Webster held forth and I came near being crushed to death-a pigmy among giants-as the standing multitude within the hall, pressed by those who were endeavoring from without, began to sway to and fro, a solid mass of human bodies, as helpless to counteract the movement as if Faneuil hall, the "Cradle of Liberty," was being rocked by an earthquake.

The orator was in the midst of a stirring appeal, urging the necessity for individual exertion and unflinching patriotism to avert the dangers that threatened the political party whose principles he espoused, when he perhe Populist national committee, who ceived the terrible sway of the packed assembly and the imminent danger

The Only Way to Satisfy Everybody.

There is a good story told of the Rev. Dr. Mott of the Central church. A lady was complaining to him of the hot weather and thought it was a shame it should be inflicted on people. The weather was pretty warm, but the doctor was taking things philosophically and making the best of it. After talking over the matter with the lady for some time he delivered himself in this exclamation: "To have the good Lord satisfy all of the people in this world he should have it rain on one side of the street all of the time and the sun brightly shine on the other, so that if they didn't like the sunshine they could cross the street and be in the rain."-Buffalo Courier:
